والعلامات حتى 4 يولييه 2017

Holy_bible_1

اكرر هدفي فقط من هذه الخدمة أن نذكر بعضنا باننا نحتاج ان نستعد. والاستعداد ليس فقط قبل مجيء المسيح بل ايضا قبل الظلمة التي ستسبق مجيؤه ليكون عندنا زيت في مصابيحنا يكفي ان نعبر هذه الظلمة وتكون مصابيحنا مضيئة وقت مجيؤه او من منا سيسلم وديعته في أي وقت. بمعنى نحتاج من الان ان نستعد بقوة بأيمان عامل وبتنقية القلب وان نثمر بالخدمة أي نجمع زيت في مصابيحنا لان الظلمة والضيقه اقتربت جدا ومن لن يستعد لها بزيت كافي من الان لن يجد زيت في الضيقه لان وقتها تجميع زيت سيكون صعب جدا بل أستطيع ان أقول من مثل العذاري انه لن يكون هناك زيت الا ما جمعته سابقا.

أفضل ان اقول لنفسي ولكم استعدوا الان لأنه اقترب فنكون مستعدين سواء جاء او نحن ان سلمنا وديعتنا عن أنى لا اقول انه اقترب لكيلا يقال عني كاذب وانشر اشاعات او اخيف البعض

ولكنه يأتي بسرعة بغته. لا اعتقد اي أحد ندم لأنه كان مستعد ومنتظر مجيء المسيح ولم يأتي

المسيح في زمنه ولكنه انتقل وهو مستعد ولكن كثيرين جدا ندموا على عدم الاستعداد عندما

انتقلوا

المسيح قال بعض العلامات مثل

انجيل لوقا 21

21: 10 ثم قال لهم تقوم امة على امة ومملكة على مملكة

21: 11 وتكون زلازل عظيمة في اماكن ومجاعات واوبئة وتكون مخاوف وعلامات عظيمة من

السماء

21: 25 وتكون علامات في الشمس والقمر والنجوم وعلى الارض كرب امم بحيرة البحر والامواج

تضج

21: 26 والناس يغطى عليهم من خوف وانتظار ما يأتي على المسكونة لان قوات السماوات

تتزعزع

21: 27 وحينئذ يبصرون ابن الانسان اتيا في سحابة بقوة و مجد كثير

سفر اعمال الرسل 2

2: 19 واعطي عجائب في السماء من فوق وآيات على الارض من أسفل دما ونارا وبخار دخان

2: 20 تتحول الشمس الى ظلمة والقمر الى دم قبل ان يجيء يوم الرب العظيم الشهير

2: 21 ويكون كل من يدعو باسم الرب يخلص

لماذا قال المسيح بعض العلامات؟

أولا لكيلا نرتاع

انجيل متى 24

مت 24: 6 وسوف تسمعون بحروب واخبار حروب لا ترتاعوا لأنه لا بد ان تكون هذه

كلها ولكن ليس المنتهى بعد

ثانيا لنؤمن

إنجيل يوحنا 14: 29

وَقُلْتُ لَكُمْ الْآنَ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَكُونَ، حَتَّى مَتَى كَانَ تُؤْمِنُونَ.

ثالثا لنتنبه ونستعد

انجيل لوقا 21

28 وَمَتَى ابْتَدَأَتْ هَذِهِ تَكُونُ، فَانْتَصِبُوا وَارْفَعُوا رُؤُوسَكُمْ لِأَنَّ نَجَاتَكُمْ تَقْتَرِبُ.»

A Giant Asteroid Will Come Extremely Close To Earth In 2029, And Impact 'Can't Be Ruled Out'

ANDREW FOLLETT
Energy and Science Reporter

4:16 PM 06/26/2017

Scientists believe a 40-million-ton asteroid set to fly close to Earth in 12 years may end up colliding with our planet on a future pass.

The Apophis asteroid will pass within 18,600 miles of Earth on April 13, 2029, which is ridiculously close by space distance standards. Scientists expect the near-miss to disrupt the asteroid's orbit, making its future path unpredictable.

This means there's a small chance Apophis could hit Earth on a future pass. Apophis will pass by the Earth again in 2036.

"You can find a full table of objects for which the impact probability is not mathematically zero," Dr. Richard P. Binzel, a planetary science professor at Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) who's involved in research on Apophis, told The Daily Caller News Foundation. "The table includes Apophis

Heavy monsoon rains started affecting Pakistan this week, causing massive floods and leaving widespread power outages. As of June 30, 2017, at least 25 people have lost their lives and dozens were injured within 48 hours, officials said.

Capital Karachi, Sindh province was the worst hit area. Torrential downpours there caused massive urban flooding and widespread power outages, killing at least 12 people since Wednesday when the rains started.

According to the Dawn, five persons including four young boys were electrocuted. In a separate incident, two boys drowned while trying to swim in water accumulated in an under-construction underpass. Five people lost their lives due to lightning and rain-related incidents mostly in lower Sindh.

June 29, 2017

The National Multi-agency Coordinating Group at NIFC raised the national preparedness level to PL3 yesterday due to an increase in large fire activity, incident management team mobilizations, and resources commitments in multiple geographic areas.

Nine new large fires were reported. Arizona, California, Washington, New Mexico, Idaho and Nevada all have multiple large fires. Several of them are threatening homes and officials have evacuated residents. More than 8,400 firefighters and support personnel are assigned to wildfires across the country.

Weather: The strong ridge of high pressure centered over the Yukon and Northwest Territories will keep eastern portions of the Alaskan interior warm and dry again today. Shower activity will be limited to coastal areas along the northern Gulf of Alaska and to Southwest Alaska as a system remains stalled along the Bering Sea coast. A broad trough of low pressure will linger over the West and the Great Plains and will lead to near normal temperatures. A stationary front stalled out along the Rocky Mountain Front in Montana and Wyoming will lead to a continuance of significant wet convection across both states and the central plain states. Across the Southwest, monsoonal moisture will continue to ooze northward into New Mexico and southeastern Arizona and will lead to another round of scattered wet storms in the afternoon. Meanwhile further south over central and southern Mexico tropical moisture appears to be building in the atmosphere and will be looking for a way to work its way

A mysterious sound resembling a thunderous explosion was heard around 8 p.m. on June 25 in the St. Helens area. Curious citizens flooded social media with questions about the origin of the loud boom that some said shook homes and rattled windows. According to St. Helens Police Chief Terry Moss, the first reports of the sound came in at 8:22 p.m. Moss said his department fielded 11 calls regarding the boom, mainly from residents on the west side of town.

A turtle was left in agony after it swallowed thousands of coins thrown into a pool for good luck.

The sea creature - nicknamed Bank - was found earlier this month with a broken shell and barely able to breathe as it floated around the filthy man-made pond at an abandoned park in Thailand.

Her shell was swollen, cracked and infected - causing vets to believe she had a tumour.

UPDATED: JUN 29 2017 03:13PM EDT

NEW YORK CITY (FOX5NY) - A swarm of around 30,000 bees swarmed a hotel in Times Square.

They landed on the roof and a ledge of the building near One Times Square. While many of the bees stayed put, scouring bees flew around looking for a new home.

Bee experts say that is usually the result of a queen bee leaving the group.

"The honey bees are docile, they're friendly, they're beneficial to us, I think that they get a bad rap for what wasps and hornets bring to their picnics and so on, but honeybees are gentle and a huge part of our lives," Urban beekeeper Andrew Cote says.

The New York City Beekeepers Association got several calls on the bees. Cote collected the bees using a low suction vacuum to capture them.

The bees were relocated to a pair of hives in Bryant Park where they will be looked after by members of the group.

Eastern cottonmouth – Cottonmouths (scientific name: Agkistrodon piscivorus) reach an average adult size of 20 to 48 inches with a heavy body. A threatened cottonmouth may respond by opening its mouth as if ready to bite -- it's the white color of its interior mouth that gave rise to the name cottonmouth. They are also known as water moccasins. These snakes can make a home anywhere along the East Coast from Virginia to Florida, extending as far west as Eastern Texas. Standard meals include fish, frogs, mice, rats and other small mammals.

China has sent military vessels and warplanes to "warn off" USS Stethem, a guided-missile destroyer, that sailed near a disputed island in the South China Sea, according to Chinese Foreign Ministry spokesperson Lu Kang.

"Under the pretext of 'freedom of navigation,' the US side once again sent a military vessel into China's territorial waters off the Xisha Islands without China's approval," the spokesperson said in a statement, adding that such US behavior "violated Chinese law and relevant international law, infringed upon China's sovereignty, and disrupted the peace, security and order of the relevant waters."

Trump says strategic patience with North Korea over

by Reuters

Friday, 30 June 2017 15:59 GMT

WASHINGTON, June 30 (Reuters) - U.S. President Donald Trump said on Friday that North Korea's nuclear and ballistic missiles program required a "determined response," and that the era of "strategic patience" with North Korea's government had ended.

"The era of strategic patience with the North Korean regime has failed. ... Frankly, that patience is over," Trump said in the White House Rose Garden in a joint appearance with South Korean President Moon Jae-in.

"We're working closely with South Korea and Japan, as well as partners around the world, on a range of diplomatic, security and economic measures to protect our allies and our own citizens from this menace known as North Korea," Trump said. ## Nikki Haley Worries Iran Will Give Nuclear Weapons To Terrorists

Published June 27, 2017

By Joel Gehrke, Washington Examiner

President Trump's top diplomat at the United Nations said Tuesday that she's worried Iran will acquire nuclear weapons and provide them to terrorist groups, with the tacit support of the Russians.

U.S. Ambassador to the U.N. Nikki Haley told a House Appropriations subcommittee that she believes the Iran nuclear agreement reached under the Obama administration will only "delay something that's going to happen," which is Iran's achievement of a nuclear weapon. She said that poses the risk that Iran could share that technology with terrorist groups it supports.

"They're going to continue their nuclear capabilities and we just gave them a lot of money to do it with," she said. "And my concern is they are associating with are all the groups we're trying to defeat."

Moscow has warned the US against taking unilateral action in Syria, as there is no threat from the Syrian military, Russia's Foreign Ministry said. The statement comes after the US accused Syria of preparing for a chemical attack, without giving any evidence.

Asked if Russia had warned the US administration against any unilateral action in Syria, Russia's deputy foreign minister, Gennady Gatilov, replied that Russian officials have "always spoken about that, including in relation to their [US] latest strikes on Construction of a security fence in certain areas of the Israel-Lebanon border will begin in July.

Israel's Defense Ministry estimates that Hezbollah terrorists - including snipers - will attempt to stop the construction by firing towards Israel.

One of the reasons for constructing a wall is to prevent Hezbollah terrorists from infiltrating into Israel en masse and attempting to take over Jewish towns. The wall will not prevent such incidents, but it is expected to slow Hezbollah's

East Central University said they will remove crosses, Bibles and other religious symbols from a campus chapel to appease a bunch of out-of-town agitators.

It's unclear when the Oklahoma school will commence with the Christian cleansing of the Kathryn P. Boswell Memorial Chapel. The chapel opened in 1957.

"We will continue to use the building as we always have, for all faiths," ECU President Katricia Pierson said in a statement to the Ada News. "We do not want to presume to embrace one faith over another. We support all cultures and attempt to make them comfortable when they are here."

The university's president went on to say they are "looking at the feasibility of removing the cross on the steeple, but need to respond to the request for removal of religious icons from the chapel."

"We are exploring options for preserving the items," she said.

Wombs for men: Astonishing prospect as fertility doctors back operations on NHS so transgender women born as boys can have babies

- Doctors have said transgender women, born male, should be able to have kids
- Gynaecologists say implanting a donor womb into a person born male is possible
- Talks planned on if womb transplants for trans-women should be publicly funded
- Uterine transplants could even be given to gay and straight men within ten years

Transgender women who were born male should be given womb transplants so that they can have children, leading NHS doctors have told The Mail on Sunday.

And fertility experts say taxpayers should fund such transplants for those who identify as women, on the basis of 'equality enshrined in law'.

Leading the debate on the controversial procedure is medical ethics lawyer Dr Amel Alghrani, who is pressing for a talks on whether womb transplants for trans-women should be publicly funded.

Dr Alghrani, of Liverpool University, also predicts that a successful programme would lead to others demanding wombs - including gay and straight men who wanted to experience 'the joys' of carrying a child.

But critics say the NHS should not waste precious resources merely to allow trans-women to pursue an 'authentic female experience'.

Supreme Court Orders States to List Same-Sex Parents on Birth Certificates

JUNE 27, 2017

The United States Supreme Court has reversed a lower court that upheld an Arkansas law that treated same-sex and opposite-sex married couples differently regarding the issuing of birth certificates. Known as Pavan v. Smith, the case was centered on a state law that automatically listed an opposite sex spouse on a birth certificate even if they were not the biological parent. This was not done for same-sex couples. In an unsigned order issued Monday, the high court ruled that

Two-thirds of Americans now back same-sex marriage, among them almost half of Republicans and larger proportions of religious people—the highest level of support ever registered by a survey that polled opinions every year for two decades.

Some 62 percent of Americans now say they back the rights of gay and lesbian people to marry, versus 32 percent who say they are opposed, the Pew Research Center poll found.

This marks a spike in support since March last year, when 55 percent of Americans were in favor, and a huge rise since 2010, when more Americans were against (48 percent) same-sex marriage than supported it (42 percent).

A PARENT who identifies as a "non-binary trans person" is demanding their baby is given the world's first "gender unknown" birth certificate.

Canadian Kori Doty, who has a moustache and claims to be neither male or female, has been fighting to keep Searyl Atli's gender off government records since giving birth last November.

Kori Doty says Canadian birth certificates should not specify gender

The child already has a health card in British Columbia which does not state its gender

Doty, who prefers to be referred to as "they" rather than "he" or "she", told CBC they are "raising Searyl in such a way that until they have the sense of self and command of vocabulary to tell me who they are."

They added: "I'm recognising them as a baby and trying to give them all the love and support to be the most whole person that they can be outside of the restrictions that come with the boy box and the girl box."

Doty is trying to get British Columbia to issue the child with a birth certificate which does not have a gender marker.

But while the Canadian province has sent the baby health cards with an "undetermined" gender, authorities have refused to issue the certificate.
