اكرر هدفي فقط من هذه الخدمة أن نذكر بعضنا باننا نحتاج ان نستعد أي حياة اليقظة الروحية. والاستعداد ليس فقط قبل مجيء المسيح بل ايضا قبل الظلمة التي ستسبق مجيؤه ليكون عندنا زيت في مصابيحنا يكفي ان نعبر هذه الظلمة وتكون مصابيحنا مضيئة وقت مجيؤه او من منا سيسلم وديعته في أي وقت. بمعنى نحتاج من الان ان نستعد بقوة بأيمان عامل وبتنقية القلب وان نثمر بالخدمة أي نجمع زيت في مصابيحنا لان الظلمة والضيقة اقتربت جدا ومن لن يستعد لها بزيت كافي من الان لن يجد زيت في الضيقة لان وقتها تجميع زيت سيكون صعب جدا بل أستطيع ان أقول من مثل العذاري انه لن يكون هناك زيت الا ما جمعته سابقا.

أفضل ان اقول لنفسي ولكم استعدوا الان لأنه اقترب فنكون مستعدين سواء جاء او نحن ان سلمنا وديعتنا عن أنى لا اقول انه اقترب لكيلا يقال عني كاذب وانشر اشاعات او اخيف البعض

ولكنه يأتي بسرعة بغته. لا اعتقد اي أحد ندم لأنه كان مستعد ومنتظر مجيء المسيح ولم يأتي

المسيح في زمنه ولكنه انتقل وهو مستعد ولكن كثيرين جدا ندموا على عدم الاستعداد عندما

انتقلوا

المسيح قال بعض العلامات مثل

انجيل لوقا 21

21: 10 ثم قال لهم تقوم امة على امة ومملكة على مملكة

21: 11 وتكون زلازل عظيمة في اماكن ومجاعات واوبئة وتكون مخاوف وعلامات عظيمة من

21: 25 وتكون علامات في الشمس والقمر والنجوم وعلى الارض كرب امم بحيرة البحر والامواج

تضج

21: 26 والناس يغطى عليهم من خوف وانتظار ما يأتي على المسكونة لان قوات السماوات

تتزعزع

21: 27 وحينئذ يبصرون ابن الانسان اتيا في سحابة بقوة و مجد كثير

سفر اعمال الرسل 2

2: 19 واعطي عجائب في السماء من فوق وآيات على الارض من أسفل دما ونارا وبخار دخان

2: 20 تتحول الشمس الى ظلمة والقمر الى دم قبل ان يجيء يوم الرب العظيم الشهير

2: 21 ويكون كل من يدعو باسم الرب يخلص

لماذا قال المسيح بعض العلامات؟

أولا لكيلا نرتاع

انجيل متى 24

مت 24: 6 وسوف تسمعون بحروب واخبار حروب لا ترتاعوا لأنه لا بد ان تكون هذه

كلها ولكن ليس المنتهى بعد

إنجيل يوحنا 14: 29

وَقُلْتُ لَكُمْ الْآنَ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَكُونَ، حَتَّى مَتَى كَانَ تُؤْمِنُونَ.

ثالثا لنتنبه ونستعد

انجيل لوقا 21

28 وَمَتَى ابْتَدَأَتْ هَذِهِ تَكُونُ، فَانْتَصِبُوا وَارْفَعُوا رُؤُوسَكُمْ لِأَنَّ نَجَاتَكُمْ تَقْتَرِبُ.»

OUTER SPACE - The closest asteroid in over a century will pass by the Earth this Friday, September 1.

Asteroid Florence, which is about 2.7 miles wide, will pass safely by the Earth at a distance of around 4.4 million miles. That's about 16 times the distance to the moon.

The close encounter will allow NASA scientists to study the asteroid up close. It'll be the closest asteroid to pass by the Earth since 1890, and the closest an asteroid will pass until after 2500.

The asteroid is named for Florence Nightingale, the founder of modern nursing, and was discovered by the Siding Spring Observatory in Australia in 1981.

It will be visible through telescopes for several nights as it moves through the Piscis Austrinus, Capricornus, Aquarius and Delphinus constellations.

More information about asteroids, and the work NASA is doing, can be found at <https://cneos.jpl.nasa.gov/>.

The largest asteroid to come so close to Earth in over a century whizzed by the planet Friday without a hitch - and revealed two tiny moons in the process.

The highly anticipated asteroid "3122 Florence," measuring a whopping 2.8 miles (4.5 kilometers) in width, came within 4.4 million miles (7 million km) of Earth. The gap is the equivalent of 18 times the distance from our planet to the moon.

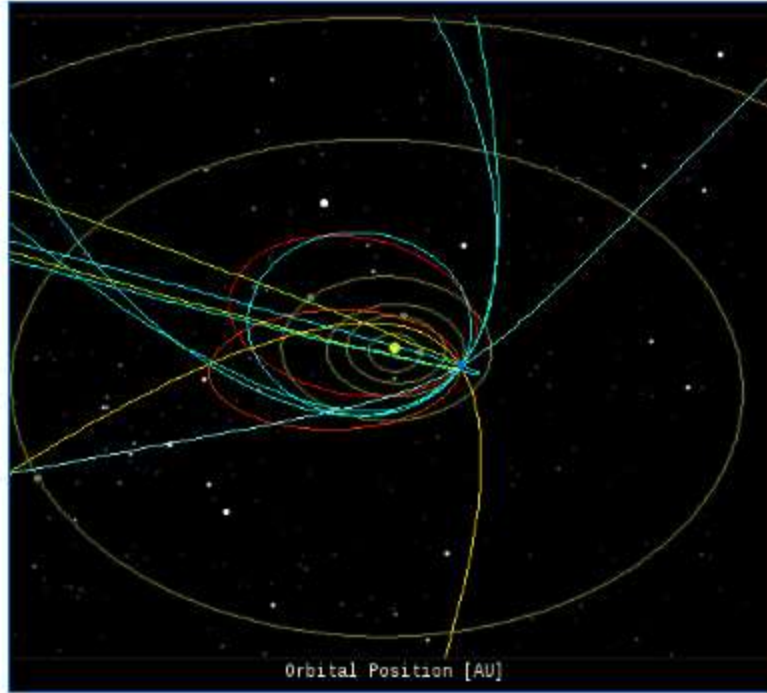

"Florence is the largest asteroid to pass by our planet this close since the NASA program to detect and track near-Earth asteroids began," Paul Chodas, of NASA's Jet

Hurricane Harvey Has Dumped 15 Trillion Gallons Of Water On Texas And May Be The Most Expensive Natural Disaster In U.S. History

By Michael Snyder, on August 28th, 2017

Authorities are now telling us that Hurricane Harvey may end up causing more economic damage than even Hurricane Katrina did. We already knew that some parts of southeast Texas are going to be "uninhabitable for an extended period of time", but the latest forecasts are calling for about 10 more inches of total rain than had previously been projected. At this moment 15 trillion gallons of water have already been dumped on Texas, and the rain continues to fall. You can get some idea of the devastation that has taken place in Houston by watching this drone footage. Essentially, some communities along the southeast Texas coastline have been totally destroyed.

It would be bad enough if 15 trillion gallons of water were dropped anywhere in the continental United States, but for it to happen in the Houston area makes it a disaster of unprecedented proportions. Houston is our fourth largest city, and that means that millions upon millions of people are being deeply affected by this storm. As I mentioned above, some experts now believe that this could end up being the most

White House's Bossert says 100,000 homes damaged by Harvey

By Robert Schroeder

About 100,000 homes were damaged by Hurricane Harvey, President Donald Trump's Homeland Security Adviser Tom Bossert told reporters on Thursday. Speaking at the White House, Bossert said the administration would soon ask Congress for an initial round of emergency funding to aid relief efforts. He said a second request would be made after getting more information.

Unprecedented Disaster: Hurricane Harvey Has Shattered The Rainfall Record For The Continental United States

By Michael Snyder, on August 29th, 2017

Never before have we seen a storm dump more than 50 inches of rain on a single location in the continental United States. The previous record for rainfall in the continental United States occurred when Tropical Storm Amelia dumped 48 inches of rain on Medina, Texas in 1978. But now one spot in southeast Texas has already received 52 inches of rain, and the rain continues to fall. And overall, 14 different spots in the Houston area have already gotten more than 40 inches of rain. Authorities are telling us that this will easily be the most costly disaster in all of U.S. history, but nobody will be able to truly assess the total damage that has been done until the rain finally stops.

Sadly, meteorologists say that some parts of Texas will continue to get more rain all the way through Thursday. By that time, some areas may receive an additional 20

While Americans are rightly concerned about flooding in and around Houston, more than 1,000 people have died in the West African country of Sierra Leone, Christian Aid reports today.

The charity is appealing for funds to help the stricken survivors after torrential rains set off floods and mudslides in Freetown on 14 August. This was followed by a massive fire.

One ministry has set up a cooking and distribution site to feed destitute victims who have lost everything in the ongoing crisis, but it urgently needs to do more.

'After the landslide, we went in to console relatives left behind,' said Rev Claudius Deah, head of Mission Bethel Ministries International in Monrovia, Liberia. 'We started feeding people and conducting trauma counseling, and our members in West Africa collected clothing for distribution.'

A magnitude 5.2 earthquake has struck Guam just a day after Kim Jong-un promised to target a US military base on the island.

The US Geological Survey says the earthquake hit at 8am on Wednesday and that the epicenter was 51.7 miles (83.4km) southeast of Inarajan Village, a community of about 2,300 people.

The earthquake had a depth of 6 miles (10km) and comes amid a period of intense hostility on the Korean peninsula.

Yellowstone Supervolcano Earthquake Swarm Now One of Biggest on Record, With Over 2,300 Tremors

Hannah Osborne

Newsweek September 1, 2017

An ongoing earthquake swarm at Yellowstone volcano is now one of the biggest ever recorded, with over 2,300 tremors since it began in June.

As of August 30, 2,357 earthquakes had been recorded. The most powerful in recent weeks was magnitude 3.3; it took place on August 21.

The most powerful in the current swarm was a magnitude 4.4, which was recorded on June 15. Most of the earthquakes were in the magnitude 0 or 1 range, with a further 181 recorded at magnitude 2 and 11 at magnitude 3. Another 53 were less than 0, meaning they were very small events that could be detected only with sensitive earthquake-monitoring instruments.

SPCA, vets warn of deadly cat virus

By William F. West
Staff Writer

Sunday, September 3, 2017

Local animal advocates and veterinarians are warning about a highly contagious feline virus that's believed to have led to the recent deaths of more than 50 cats.

Ann Pitts, executive director of the Northeastern North Carolina Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, said the virus known as feline panleukopenia has caused the deaths of 50 kittens at the shelter since July.

Dr. Alison Palmer, a veterinarian at Lannon's Animal Hospital, said last week her clinic has documented eight cases of panleukopenia since the first case on Aug. 12. Of those cases, six cats had to be euthanized at the clinic and the others died at their owner's home.

Palmer also said four kittens reportedly have died at their owner's home from panleukopenia, even as they were undergoing treatment for the virus.

Palmer said one of the senior doctors at her clinic has seen outbreaks of panleukopenia before, but never to this extent or severity.

A cat that's contracted panleukopenia can display a number of symptoms, including a poor quality coat, diarrhea, high fever, lethargy, weight loss and vomiting.

Veterinary experts say cats can be infected with panleukopenia after coming in contact with either the feces, infected blood, urine or fleas from other infected cats. It also can be passed from a mother cat to a kitten if the mother is infected.

While panleukopenia is no threat to humans, people who haven't properly washed their hands after handling an infected cat can pass the virus to an uninfected cat.

The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals and local veterinarians are warning about a highly contagious cat virus that has led to the deaths of more than 50 cats recently.

New Antibiotic-Resistant Superbug May Be Deadly To Healthy People

BY ELANA GLOWATZ

ON 06/31/17 AT 12:16 PM

Scientists have identified a deadly bacteria that is resistant to antibiotics and could be dangerous to even healthy people.

It started when a group of five patients in the intensive care unit at a hospital in the Chinese city Hangzhou, who all had trauma surgery, contracted severe pneumonia that did not respond to antibiotics called carbapenems, which are generally used as a last resort when other treatments fail. According to a study in the journal The Lancet Infectious Diseases, the patients all were put on ventilators and later “died due to severe lung infection, multiorgan failure, or septic shock.” An investigation after their deaths found that a hypervirulent strain of the bacteria Klebsiella pneumoniae was what killed them.

The patients, who were between 53 and 73 years old, died in spring 2016.

Strains of K. pneumoniae like this one “pose a substantial threat to human health because they are simultaneously hypervirulent, multidrug-resistant, and highly transmissible,” the scientists wrote in their study. “Control measures should be implemented to prevent further dissemination of such organisms in the hospital setting and the community.”

WASHINGTON (AP) -- Russia on Friday promised a "tough response" to a U.S. order to shut the Russian consulate in San Francisco and offices in Washington and New York, the latest round in a diplomatic tit-for-tat.

The U.S. issued its order Thursday and gave Russia 48 hours to comply, intensifying tensions between the two countries.

South Korea has 24 nuclear reactors vulnerable to attack from North Korea

As the United Nations imposes more sanctions on North Korea to try and stop its development of nuclear weapons, a Russian diplomat argues Pyongyang wouldn't need an atomic device in a conflict on the Korean Peninsular.

Instead, North Korea could rain its missiles down on South Korea's atomic power plants, causing widespread radiation contamination that would turn South Korea into a desert, devoid of life, Georgy Toloraya, who served in North Korea, said in an interview with the Russian news service RT.com.

NKOREA MISSILE FEAR SETS PRE-EMPTIVE STRIKE DEBATE IN JAPAN

TOKYO (AP) -- Japan is debating whether to develop a limited pre-emptive strike capability and buy cruise missiles - ideas that were anathema in the pacifist country before the North Korea missile threat.

With revisions to Japan's defense plans underway, ruling party hawks are accelerating the moves, and some defense experts say Japan should at least consider them.

S.Korea, US to deploy more anti-missile defences: Seoul

by Staff Writers
Seoul (AFP) Sept 4, 2017

South Korea and the United States will deploy more of the anti-missile defences hated by China in response to Sunday's nuclear test by North Korea, Seoul's defence ministry said Monday.

Two launchers of the Terminal High-Altitude Area Defense (THAAD) system are already operational, but public concern about the possible environmental impact of the US system forced Seoul to suspend the installation.

"Four remaining launchers will soon be temporarily deployed through consultations between South Korea and the US to counter growing nuclear and missile threats from the North," the ministry said in a statement.

The THAAD launchers are sited on a golf course-turned-US military base in Seongju County, 300 kilometres (188 miles) south of Seoul.

The deployment has infuriated China, which has long argued it will destabilise the region and has retaliated against Seoul through unofficial economic sanctions.

Sign of the Times? Iranian Threat Moves Closer to Israel

The threat of Iranian missiles feels too close for comfort for Israel. (Wikimedia Commons)

The Islamic Republic of Iran seems to be working overtime to increase its influence in the Gaza Strip on Israel's southern border and in Syria and Lebanon in the north.

It's not as if much has changed; rather, the rabid hatred of the Jewish state by Islamists appears to be reshaping what has been brewing below the surface for decades.

The passage of the Iranian nuclear deal in July 2015, supported and promoted by former U.S. President Barack Obama and his administration, provided Iran with a financial windfall that has benefitted the terror group Hezbollah in Lebanon, President Bashar al-Assad's brutal regime in Syria and Hamas and Islamic Jihad in the Gaza Strip.

Hamas fell out of favor with Iran temporarily when it threw its support behind "rebel groups" opposing Assad's regime. When Hamas leader Khaled Meshaal moved his base from Damascus to Qatar in 2012, the rift with Iran widened.

That relationship has been revitalized, according to Gaza-based Hamas chief Yahya (Yehiyeh) Sinwar, who replaced Ismail Haniyeh when he filled Meshaal's position after he stepped down last

Authorities in China have tightened their grip on the country's churches by ordering that children are to be banned from joining religious groups.

The ban also prohibits children from attending religious sermons and other activities in several provinces across the country.

Control on the country's churches began several years ago when places of worship were ordered to remove crosses from their buildings in Zhejiang province.

Sharoon was named a 'chura', a derogatory term used for Christians, and was allegedly told by one student: 'You're a Christian, don't dare sit with us if you want to live.' It's also said that there were several attempts to convert Sharoon to Islam.

On August 27, Sharoon was reportedly beaten by many of his fellow pupils in their classroom and died at the scene.
