والعلامات حتى 29 سبتمبر 2015

اكرر اننا لا نحدد مواعيد بل فقط نشجع بعضنا بعضا بقرب مجيء المسيح

وأیضا أوضح أنه يوجد نبوات لم نراها بعد مثل ابن الهلاك وهرمجدون

ولكن ايضا علامات كثيرة من التي قال عنها الكتاب انها في الزمان الاخير بدأت تحدث بوضوح

ويجب أن ننتبه اليها. ونذكر بعضنا باننا نحتاج ان نستعد. والاستعداد ليس فقط قبل مجيء

المسيح بل ايضا قبل الظلمة التي ستسبق مجيؤه ليكون عندنا زيت في مصابيحنا يكفي ان نعبر

هذه الظلمة وتكون مصابيحنا مضيئة وقت مجيؤه. بمعنى نحتاج من الان ان نستعد بقوة بأيمان

عامل وبتنقية القلب وان نثمر بالخدمة أي نجمع زيت في مصابيحنا لان الظلمة والضيق اقتربت

جدا ومن لن يستعد لها بزيت كافي من الان لن يجد زيت في الضيقة لان وقتها تجميع زيت

سيكون صعب جدا بل أستطيع ان أقول من مثل العذارى انه لن يكون هناك زيت الا ما جمعه

سابقا. أفضل ان اقول لنفسي ولكم استعدوا الان لأنه اقترب فنكون مستعدين سواء جاء او نحن ان سلمنا وديعتنا عن أنى لا اقول انه اقترب لكيلا يقال عني كاذب وانشتر اشاعات ولكنه يأتي بسرعة بغته. لا اعتقد اي أحد ندم لانه كان مستعد ومنتظر مجيء المسيح ولم ياتي المسيح في زمنه ولكنه انتقل وهو مستعد ولكن كثيرين جدا ندموا على عدم الاستعداد عندما انتقلوا

المسيح قال بعض العلامات مثل

انجيل لوقا 21

21: 10 ثم قال لهم تقوم امة على امة ومملكة على مملكة

21: 11 وتكون زلازل عظيمة في اماكن ومجاعات واوبئة وتكون مخاوف وعلامات عظيمة من

السماء

21: 25 وتكون علامات في الشمس والقمر والنجوم وعلى الارض كرب امم بحيرة البحر والامواج

تضج

21: 26 والناس يغطى عليهم من خوف وانتظار ما يأتي على المسكونة لان قوات السماوات

تزعزع

21: 27 وحينئذ يبصرون ابن الانسان اتيا في سحابة بقوة و مجد كثير

سفر اعمال الرسل 2

2: 19 واعطي عجائب في السماء من فوق وآيات على الارض من أسفل دما ونارا وبخار دخان

2: 20 تتحول الشمس الى ظلمة والقمر الى دم قبل ان يجيء يوم الرب العظيم الشهير

2: 21 ويكون كل من يدعو باسم الرب يخلص

لماذا قال المسيح بعض العلامات؟

أولا لكيلا نرتاع

انجيل متى 24

مت 24: 6 وسوف تسمعون بحروب واخبار حروب لا ترتاعوا لأنه لا بد ان تكون هذه

كلها ولكن ليس المنتهى بعد

ثانيا لنؤمن

إنجيل يوحنا 14: 29

وَقُلْتُ لَكُمْ الْآنَ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَكُونَ، حَتَّى مَتَى كَأَن تُوْمِنُونَ.

ثالثا لننتبه ونستعد

انجيل لوقا 21

28 وَمَتَى ابْتَدَأَتْ هَذِهِ تَكُونُ، فَاَنْتَصِبُوا وَاَرْفَعُوا رُؤُوسَكُمْ لِأَنَّ نَجَاتَكُمْ تَقْتَرِبُ».

Sky watchers are getting ready for an extremely rare astronomical highlight of the season: a total lunar eclipse and a super moon that will happen simultaneously.

The stunning show will be visible to the naked eye, and will start next Sunday, September 27, between 5pm and 6pm PDT time (between midnight and 1am GMT on Monday).

The super moon, or a perigee full moon, means that the moon will seem 14 percent bigger, 30 percent brighter and fuller than usual. It happens because the moon will be at its closest point in its orbit around the Earth.

NASA confirms evidence that liquid water flows on Mars

NASA has confirmed the existence of flowing liquid salty water on Mars, fueling the possibility of life on the Red Planet.

"Today, we're revolutionizing our understanding of the planet," said Jim Green, director of planetary science at NASA Headquarters in Washington, during a press conference Monday. "Mars is not the dry, arid planet that we thought of in the past - under certain circumstances, liquid water has been found on Mars."

The space rock 2015 SZ2 is one of six "near-Earth" flybys due on Wednesday, but while most will pass by several million miles away, it is estimated to be on an orbit of just 309,000 miles - only 1.3 times the distance from Earth to the Moon (238,000 miles).

Significant asteroids pass Earth every week, and Nasa monitors them at up to 12 million miles away, so this is considered a cosmic close shave.

California Lake Mysterious Runs Dry Overnight, Killing Thousands Of Fish

25 SEPTEMBER, 2015

A Northern California reservoir ran dry overnight, killing thousands of fish and leaving residents looking for answers. While a $3.5 million drought safety net at Folsom Lake finishes, a lake in another part of the state is left high and dry. Thousands of fish lay dead in what used to be Mountain Meadows reservoir also known as Walker Lake, a popular fishing hole just west of Susanville.

"Everywhere that you see that's wet, there was water," said resident Eddie Bauer. Residents say people were fishing on the lake last Saturday, but it drained like a bathtub overnight. Bauer has lived near this lake his entire life. This is the first time he's ever seen it run dry. He and other residents want answers. Pacific Gas & Electric Company owns the rights to the water and uses it for hydroelectric power. It's the situation we worked hard to avoid but the reality is we're in a very serious drought, there's also concerns for the fish downstream," said spokesman Paul Moreno. FULL REPORT

Gần 7 tấn cá chết sau mưa lớn

Mưa lớn trong nhiều ngày qua kết hợp với bão tây đổ từ thượng nguồn về khiến gần 7 tấn cá chết trên đoạn sông dài hơn một cây số ở Hà Tĩnh.

Từ ngày 17/9 tới nay, người dân nuôi cá chẻm, cá chim... bằng lồng trên sông Hộ Độ (xã Hộ Độ, huyện Lộc Hà) phát hiện cá bị chết hàng loạt, nhiều con chưa vớt kịp bốc mùi hôi thối.

Chèo thuyền đi vớt những con cá chết nổi trắng mặt sông để tránh gây ô nhiễm, ông Võ Viết Lương cho hay, ba ngày qua hơn 4.000 con cá chẻm, hồng mỳ, cá chim được ông vớt lên bờ tiêu hủy, một số còn sống thì mang đi bán gỡ gạc chút ít.

Theo ông Lương, gia đình nuôi 4 lồng cá với gần 5.000 con, nhưng hiện tại chỉ còn vài trăm. Có thời điểm cá chết nổi kín cả mặt sông, ước tính hơn 500 kg, thiệt hại hàng trăm triệu đồng.

Dagupan City, Pangasinan — Fisherfolk here who reported a fish kill since the first week of September are clamoring for action and assistance from the city government and the local agriculturist.

Alfredo Dawana, founder and chairman of the fishponds owners, operators and fisherfolk of this city, said pollution in the river is causing the fish kill.

KIOSKED Ads

DO YOU CANOE?

Dawana said about 30 tons of dead fish have already been reported in the island villages of Pugaro, Salapingao, and Luciao and can be spotted from the stretch of the Jose de Venecia Sr. Expressway Extension.

Last Monday, close to 100 tons of milkfish had to be harvested early from fishponds in these areas for fear they may go to waste.

City Agriculturist Emma Molina only called the incident a "mild fish kill" resulting from thermal shock caused by the sudden downpour on a very hot Sunday afternoon.

But Dawana said the fish kill is due to a pollution caused by fish pens and cages.

California Reservoir Drains, Killing Thousands of Fish

Posted: Sep 22, 2016 6:09 PM MDT
Updated: Sep 22, 2016 7:44 PM MDT
By Paul Nelson CONNECT

Residents of Westwood, California are wondering how a nearby reservoir drained, killing most of the fish. Mountain Meadow Reservoir, also known as Walker Lake, is a shallow body of water that emptied during the weekend of September 12. More than a week later, thousands of dead fish are scattered across the muddy lake bed and in the creek below the dam.

56-year-old Eddy Bauer has lived near the lake his entire life. This is the first time he has seen it run dry.

"It's amazing how many people have come out to see the destruction," Bauer said. "My wife, for instance, was holding her nose, can't even stand the smell."

Walker Lake's water rights are owned by Pacific Gas and Electric Company. The dam allows them to use the water for hydroelectric power. Paul

Mountain of fish perish in Gandhisagar Lake, mysteriously

Nagpur: One of the beauty spots in the Second capital City of Nagpur, Gandhisagar Lake, turned out a spot of curiosity and horror as well for the citizens. The scenario depicted a horror movie. The nearby residents and passersby witnessed thousands of fish of different species and different sizes dead and floating on surface and accumulated on the shores of Gandhisagar Lake. The mysterious death of tons of fish has caused concerns for environmentalists. Work is going on war-footing to remove the dead fish. On Saturday, around three tons of marine species were disposed of and many more tons are being disposed of.

Minea situation serves arrival of dead fish on the beach Moreno

According to the director of the Ministry for Water and Ecosocialism in Nueva Esparta, the phenomenon may stem from the change in temperature of the water, resulting in greater accumulation of fish in a water area reduced, with subsequent decreased oxygen in the Coast and mortality among marine species.

Luis Bermudez, director of portfolio ecosocialista Nueva Esparta, said on liability and agility with which it acted to address the phenomenon on the beach Moreno, better known as the conch. However, he said that "it is not the first time something like this happens and it is just the same time of year."

According to the specialist, the phenomenon may stem from the change in temperature of the water, resulting in greater accumulation of fish in a water area reduced, reducing the oxygen in the coast and kills fish.

"So far there is no evidence of contamination, or that the cause is due to the effects of human activity, however we are assessing the situation, fulfill the protocols that the case merits, in order to corroborate the causes of the fact," said Bermudez .

He said: "Historically, there are records of natural phenomena related to changes in the coastal marine causing the death of benthic fish (groundfish) Dynamic This type of event occurs periodically in different coasts of Nueva Esparta."

Antibiotic Resistant Diseases Will Cause Social Breakdown, Say Scientists

September 18, 2015 |

The impending failure of antibiotics to treat life-threatening diseases could cause a social and economic "apocalypse" in Britain and throughout the first world, scientists warn.

Medical experts predict many dangerous diseases will become completely resistant to antibiotics in the near future, causing social unrest on an unprecedented level.

The crisis could result in people barricading themselves into enclaves as the health system collapses under the strain of chronic diseases, scientist Adam Roberts told the British Science Festival last week.

The senior lecturer in microbial disease at University College London warned the failure of antibiotics could result in wars and civil unrest and people fight over medical treatments.

A briefing paper prepared for the government and Wellcome Trust warns that huge advances against diseases made possible since the discovery of penicillin could be temporary.

"Resistance to antibiotics has now become a major concern because doctors are left with fewer effective treatments for serious and life-threatening infections," the authors write.

"It is becoming clear that the success of conventional antibiotics may have only been temporary and we now anticipate a long-term, generational challenge to find new therapies as fast as bacteria become resistant to them. Worse, the search for new conventional antibiotics has become far less productive."

The paper states that £250 million (US$388 million) will be made available for 10 new classes of "alternatives to antibiotics."

Will China Or Russia Attack The United States First?

20 SEPTEMBER, 2015

There are enormously powerful forces, out there, that are intent on starting World War III. As my friend Ernie Hancock, from Freedoms Phoenix, has said many times, there are two kinds of people: Those that want to be left alone and those that will not leave them alone. Almost all of humanity wants to be left alone. Most every Jew, Muslim, Christian, atheist, gay, straight and agnostic just wants to be left alone so they can simply live their lives. Unfortunately, the central bankers who have hijacked the governments of the West, won't leave us alone.

U.S. To Station Nuclear Weapons In Germany Against Russia

22 SEPTEMBER, 2015

With plans to go to war with Russia, the U.S. will station new atomic weapons and 20 new nuclear bombs in Germany, according to Tuesday reports from Germany's ZDF public television network. Each of the 20 new American nuclear bombs are four times the destructive power of the one that was used on Hiroshima in 1945, according to the article.

The right fit for business.

"With the new bombs the boundaries blur between tactical and strategic nuclear weapons," Hans Kristensen, the Director of the Nuclear Information Project at the Federation of American Scientists, told ZDF. In June, Russian Foreign Ministry warned the U.S. against stationing its nuclear weapons in

Russia Threatens Response If US Places New Nukes In Germany

24 SEPTEMBER, 2015

BREAKING NEWS – Russia will take “countermeasures” if the US places new nuclear weapons at a base in Germany, the Kremlin said this week. Kremlin spokesman Dmitry Peskov’s comments, reported Wednesday by Russian news agencies, came in response to a report by Germany’s ZDF television. The report said that preparation is underway by the US to station B61-12 nuclear bombs at Buechel Air Base in Germany. ZDF said its information was based on examination of US federal budget reports. The claim couldn’t immediately be confirmed.

The B61-12 is an upgraded version of weapons that have been in the US arsenal for decades, developed under what is called the Life Extension Program. The National Nuclear Security Administration said in July that the upgrade included a new tail-kit assembly and would improve the bomb’s reliability and security. 2,000 Russian Troops Head To Syria For “First Phase” Of Mission To Support Assad

The massive Military Buildup of Russia in Syria is growing more and more. Now according to sources, The Kremlin seems less and less interested in observing any niceties with regard to how it describes Russia's military involvement in Syria. Initially, it seemed likely that Moscow would go the Ukraine route by providing logistical support and lurking behind the scenes while officially denying – or at least downplaying – its role in the conflict. Over the course of the last two weeks, it's become increasingly clear that Russia now intends to make no secret of its intention not only to stabilize the Assad regime but in fact to turn the tide completely with the provision of advanced weapons and equipment including combat aircraft, tanks, and drones.

The only remaining question was how long it would be before Syrian Foreign Minister Walid al-Moualeem made an official request for ground troops, allowing Moscow to abandon all pretense that Russia isn't officially at war and while we may not have reached that point yet, you can't very well build a forward operating base and not staff it which is why now, according to FT, Moscow is set to Russia is expanding its military presence in Syria and is constructing two additional bases. Satellite images were taken of the bases on the coast of the Mediterranean. The images were taken by a private intelligence provider and given to the public media on Tuesday.

Russia is reportedly constructing a weapons depot and military facility north of Latakia. In early September, Russia deployed jet fighters in Syria and began constructing a base for military personnel. Reports claim as many as 1,000 Russian troops are expected to arrive in Syria in the coming weeks.

Prime Minister Netanyahu met with Russian President Vladimir Putin in Moscow on Monday where the leaders held a three-hour meeting on Russian military developments and presence in Syria. Netanyahu stated following their meeting that a "red phone" would be established with Putin in order to coordinate and communicate Russian military activity with Israel.

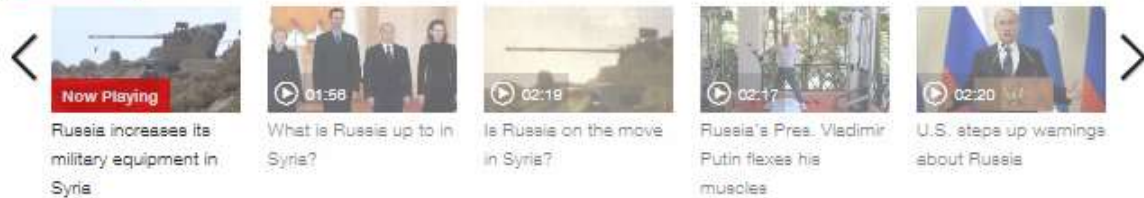

Additionally, IDF Chief of Staff Lt. Gen. Gadi Eisenkot met with Russian Army General Valery Gerasimov, announcing that a task force would be established for military coordination.

A Chinese Aircraft Carrier Docks At Tartus To Support Russian-Iranian Military Buildup

26 SEPTEMBER, 2015

Things just got even more interesting regarding the Syrian crisis in the mideast that has already pulled in Russia and Iran and now according to reports, As US President Barack Obama welcomed Chinese President Xi Jinping to the White House on Friday, Sept. 25, and spoke of the friendship between the two countries, the Chinese aircraft carrier Liaoning-CV-16 docked at the Syrian port of Tartus, accompanied by a guided missile cruiser. This is revealed exclusively by DEBKafila. Based on the claims of Arab media outlet, Russian military in Syria will be reinforced by Chinese troops and military aircraft.

It seems that such claims were made on the basis of a Chinese naval vessel, which passed through the Suez Canal and is going to Syria.

Chinese troops and military aircraft are expected to arrive at the port city of Tartus within six weeks.

Russia has already sent a number of aircraft and tanks to an airbase outside of Latakia.

It seems that a target of Russian aircraft is Deir Ezzor and Raqqa, which is believed to be the capital of ISIS in Syria. Based on claims of US officials, additional 2,000 Russian troops will be deployed to the airbase.

New pieces of information about China's involvement in Syria still have to be confirmed.

This cooperation between Russia and China in Syria will help these countries to strengthen their relationship. Also, these two countries joined their forces to put a veto on the United Nations Security Council resolutions directed against the al-Assad government.

ISRAEL AND RUSSIA AGREED ON MONDAY TO COORDINATE MILITARY ACTIONS OVER SYRIA IN ORDER TO AVOID ACCIDENTALLY TRADING FIRE, PRIME MINISTER BENJAMIN NETANYAHU SAID DURING A VISIT TO MOSCOW.

"And I will turn thee back, and leave but the sixth part of thee, and will cause thee to come up from the north parts, and will bring thee upon the mountains of Israel:" Ezekiel 39:2 (KJV)

EDITOR'S NOTE: Wow, here it comes, get ready. In the Bible, the prophet Ezekiel mentions two upcoming wars that will be fought by Russia against the nation of Israel specifically. One is the Battle of Armageddon fought at the end of the Tribulation, and the other the Battle of Gog and Magog at the end of the 1,000 Year Reign of Jesus Christ. So for Israel, right now in 2015, to be forced to form an alliance with Russia who is allies with Iran is actually unbelievable from an end times perspective. These are truly the days of prophecy.*

Recent Russian reinforcements for Syrian President Bashar al-Assad, which regional sources say include warplanes and anti-aircraft systems, worry Israel, whose jets have on occasion bombed the neighboring Arab country to foil suspected handovers of advanced arms to Assad's Lebanese guerrilla ally Hezbollah.

Russian Army starts destroying Islamic State in Syria

The army of Bashar al-Assad has reportedly started crushing Islamic State militants that had previously seized the cities of Palmyra and Homs. Western experts and journalists believe that the Syrian troops receive substantial military assistance from Russian military men at the base in Latakia.

In addition, Russia has deployed modern weapons, including air defense, missile systems and aviation, having turned the area of the Russian base into a strong fortress. To crown it all, Russia still ships weapons to the government of Bashar Assad under previously concluded contracts.

Russia's TV channel "Zvezda" ("Star") reports that the Syrian army forced ISIS militants to retreat from Palmyra, although they hide in residential areas and use ancient monuments as a cover.

"The militants, who had been keeping the city under control and destroying priceless ancient monuments for months, are being killed in the air raids of the Syrian Air Force. During the most recent attack, 40 terrorists were destroyed in the province of Homs," Zvezda reporters say. It was also said that many militants of the Islamic State lay down their arms and surrender.

Should Putin's movements in Syria alarm America?

EXCLUSIVE: Russian, Syrian and Iranian military commanders have set up a coordination cell in Baghdad in recent days to try to begin working with Iranian-backed Shia militias fighting the Islamic State, Fox News has learned.

Western intelligence sources say the coordination cell includes low-level Russian generals. U.S. officials say it is not clear whether the Iraqi government is involved at the moment.

Describing the arrival of Russian military personnel in Baghdad, one senior U.S. official said, "They are popping up everywhere."

The Russians already have been building up their military presence in Syria, a subject expected to factor prominently in a planned meeting between President Obama and Russian President Vladimir Putin in New York Monday on the sidelines of the U.N. General Assembly.

Iranian President Hassan Rouhani on Sunday said that he is ready to discuss a "plan of action" for Syria's post-war future after the Islamic State (ISIS) group is defeated, reports AFP.

Iran, which along with Russia is allied with President Bashar Al-Assad in the war, has until now been kept out of UN diplomatic efforts to piece together a political solution for Syria.

The Islamic Republic is Assad's key regional ally, providing him with financial and military support.

Iran's former Iranian President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad personally sanctioned the dispatch of officers from the Iranian Revolutionary Guards to Syria to fight alongside Assad's troops, though Assad has denied there are any Iranian troops in Syria.

France says it may carry out airstrikes against Islamic State targets in Syria as an act of self-defense. Last week French aircraft started to undertake reconnaissance missions over Syria.

On Monday, French President Francois Hollande said French military sorties in Syria would soon expand to include airstrikes against Islamic State (IS, formerly ISIS/ISIL).

"We are part of the coalition in Iraq [against ISIS]," Hollande said in a news conference with his Nigerian counterpart Muhammadu Buhari. "We started reconnaissance flights [in Syria] to enable us to consider air strikes if they were necessary and they will be necessary in Syria."

French Foreign Minister Laurent Fabius said the use of weapons on Syrian territory is justified due to a string of Islamist attacks in Europe.

"We received specific intelligence indicating that the recent terrorist attacks against France and other European nations were organized by Daesh [Arabic derogatory term for IS] in Syria. Due to this threat we decided to start reconnaissance flights to have the option for airstrikes, if that would be necessary. This is self-defense," the minister told the Belgian media.

Multiple senior Iranian officials have vowed in recent weeks to violate the recently inked nuclear accord that aims to constrain the Islamic Republic's contested nuclear enrichment program, according to multiple comments by top Iranian leaders.

Iranian leaders, including President Hassan Rouhani and Foreign Minister Javad Zarif, have said that the country has "no intention" of abiding by a United Nations Security Council Resolution that encompasses the deal and other restrictions on Tehran's rogue activities, according to these comments.

These officials said that Iran views the recent Iranian nuclear deal secured in Vienna as separate from the resolution endorsing the deal and further prohibiting Iran from developing advanced ballistic missiles and purchasing other types of arms, according to the Middle East Media Research Institute, or MEMRI, which issued a report compiling recent statements by Iran.

The agreement, which was made earlier this year, is a non-binding set of resolutions focused on Iran's nuclear program. The deal was transferred to the United Nations and officially endorsed as UNSC 2231.

The accord itself "is not a contract between Iran and the P5+1 countries as a group or any single one of them, and hence no document was signed," MEMRI noted.

Senior Iranian leaders have expressed opposition to the formal resolution adopted by the U.N. and say the country will not abide by any further restrictions on its ballistic missile development.

"President Hassan Rouhani, Foreign Minister Zarif, and Deputy Foreign Minister and senior negotiator Abbas Araghchi emphasized that Iran has no intention of abiding by UNSC 2231, which includes the JCPOA [Joint Comprehensive Plan of Action] and another element; rather, that they will abide only by the original JCPOA," which is a nonbinding international agreement, according to MEMRI.

Palestinian Authority (PA) Chairman Mahmoud Abbas raised his rhetoric on Tuesday, threatening about the "risk of an intifada" or popular terror war if clashes at the Al-Aqsa Mosque on the Temple Mount in Jerusalem continue.

After a meeting with French leader Francois Hollande in Paris, Abbas warned about the clashes that have been occurring since last week, saying, "what is happening is very dangerous."

He called on Prime Minister Binyamin Netanyahu to "stop" the clashes, and warned against "an intifida which we don't want."

The statements are ironic, given Abbas's call for violence at the Temple Mount - Judaism's holiest site - just last Wednesday.

Millions of fed workers' information exposed in cyber breach

The number of people whose fingerprints were stolen in a historic breach of federal files has skyrocketed -- from just over 1 million to an estimated 5.6 million, according to the federal agency that was hacked.

The Office of Personnel Management acknowledged Wednesday that the number of fingerprints stolen is far greater than initially thought.

The information was part of an array of sensitive files, including Social Security numbers, swiped in a hack estimated to have affected 21.5 million people total -- including people who applied for security clearances and their families.

In a statement, OPM said the agency, together with the Defense Department, discovered during their review that more fingerprints were taken.

"The subset of individuals whose fingerprints have been stolen has increased from a total of approximately 1.1 million to approximately 5.6

Pentagon Implanting Chips In Soldier's Brains

27 SEPTEMBER, 2015

How far are we planning on taking the Micro-Chips?, For decades, DARPA, the secretive research arm of the Department of Defense, has dreamed of turning soldiers into cyborgs. And now it's finally happening. The agency has funded projects that involve implanting chips into soldiers' brains that they hope will enhance performance on the battlefield and repair traumatized brains once the fog of war has lifted. "Of the 2.5 million Americans who served in Iraq and Afghanistan, 300,000 of them came home with traumatic brain injury," journalist Annie Jacobsen told NPR. "DARPA initiated a series of programs to help cognitive functioning, to repair some of this damage. And those programs center around putting brain chips inside the tissue of the brain."

Researchers at the National Institutes of Health (NIH) have developed a system that can predict the "psychological status" of users with smartphones and hope to private companies to bring the invention to the market.

The technology appeared on a list of NIH inventions published in the Federal Register that are now available to be licensed by private companies. The government allows companies to license inventions resulting from federal research in order to expedite their arrival on the marketplace.

The system uses smartphones to ask people how they are doing mentally during the day and based on the results can "deliver an automated intervention" if necessary.

Millions Of Jews Have Begun Searching For The Messiah, Atonement

September 23, 2015

Flash Traffic Blog / Joel C. Rosenberg

At sundown, we begin Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement. This is the highest holy day on the Jewish calendar, and one of great Biblical and historic and cultural importance to my people.

I so wish I was home with Lynn and our sons in Israel tonight. Instead, I am in the U.S. speaking at a number of events, from Dallas to San Luis Obispo to Washington, D.C. to Toronto. I am speaking about the darkness that is falling in our world. But I am also explaining to people about a fascinating phenomenon that I'm observing.

Since last Yom Kippur, millions of Jews have begun a quest to find the Messiah. For reasons I cannot fully explain, Jews are suddenly searching for answers to the deepest and most important questions concerning life and death and God and atonement and eternity, in numbers unprecedented in history. Some are searching through the Hebrew Scriptures for answers.

A stunning number are actually reading the New Testament, most for the first time. They are searching on Google for information about the Messiah. They are even watching a new series of videos by Jews who claim to have found the answers. The videos — some of which have gone viral — were produced and posted on a new website called www.imetmessiah.com.

To me, these are fascinating developments. They certainly aren't being reported by the media. But they are worth examining. That said, more on all that in a moment.

First, a few thoughts about Yom Kippur itself.

There Are Indications That A Major Financial Event In Germany Could Be Imminent

22 SEPTEMBER, 2015

Is something about to happen in Germany that will shake the entire world? According to disturbing new intel that Michael Snyder from the “Economic Collapse” received, a major financial event in Germany could be imminent. He goes on to say “Now when I say imminent, I do not mean to suggest that it will happen tomorrow.” But I do believe that we have entered a season of time when another “Lehman Brothers moment” may occur. Government shutdown could cut off food stamps

By MARY CLARE JALONICK
Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP) - A government shutdown Oct. 1 could immediately suspend or delay food stamp payments to some of the 46 million Americans who receive the food aid.

The Agriculture Department said Tuesday that it will stop providing benefits at the beginning of October if Congress does not pass legislation to keep government agencies open.

"If Congress does not act to avert a lapse in appropriations, then USDA will not have the funding necessary for SNAP benefits in October and will be forced to stop providing benefits within the first several days of October," said Catherine Cochran, a spokeswoman for USDA. "Once that occurs, families won't be able to use these benefits at grocery stores to buy the food their families need."

USDA on Friday sent a letter to states asking them to hold off "until further notice" on starting the process that distributes benefits at the first of the month.

The Agriculture Department declined to give details on why the automatic funding would not continue. In the 2013 government shutdown, food stamp dollars were not affected.

Democratic lawmakers briefed by the department said USDA does not have enough money in reserve to pay a full month's benefits and a partial government shutdown would affect recipients in states that pay out their benefits at the first of the month. They said the department had extra dollars two years ago but that this time around it does not have enough additional reserves.

Democratic Sens. Jeff Merkley of Oregon and Debbie Stabenow of Michigan said benefits could potentially be delayed even if there is a last-minute agreement on a spending bill, since it could take a few days for the department to process the money once a bill is enacted.

An anti-conversion clause inserted into Nepal's new constitution was signed by the President yesterday, sparking concerns over religious freedom in the country.

The new constitution maintains that Nepal is a secular state and is neutral towards all religions but section 26 makes illegal "any act to convert another person from one religion to another or any act or behaviour to undermine or jeopardize the religion of another."

The new clause, which was passed by Nepal's Constituent Assembly (CA) and signed by the President is a violation of international treaties, Christian Solidarity Worldwide (CSW), a religious freedom charity said today.

"This fails to allow for choosing and changing one's faith to be seen as a positive individual choice or as a matter of individual rights, as required by international treaties which Nepal has signed and ratified," a statement from CSW read.

Nepal was declared a secular nation in 2008 by the CA, ending its status as the world's only officially Hindu state.

(Wenzhou, Zhejiang —Sept. 24, 2015) Authorities in China’s coastal Zhejiang informed the wife of Huang Yizi, a local pastor, that he had been put under criminal detention for “endangering national security” but would not reveal where he was being held.

Huang, who was released from prison after a year-long sentence on Aug. 1, was detained again on Sept. 12. Huang’s wife, surnamed Lin, was told by authorities on Sept. 14 that the official notice of his detention had been sent out and that she should wait for it at home. As of Sept. 22, she said she had not received the notice.

Lin visited the Wenzhou Municipal Public Security Bureau with a lawyer and was told that Huang had been placed in criminal detention for “endangering national security,” though authorities refused to clarify the charge further. Thus far, Huang’s place of detention has not been released, as officers stated he was still under investigation and this was “inconvenient” information to give.

“It has only been 42 days since August 1,” Lin told China Aid’s reporter Qiao Nong. “How could my husband be so skilled and capable that he would be able to endanger national security after only a month?”

Huang is only one of many individuals detained after protesting China’s increasingly stringent religious restrictions, both in Wenzhou and other parts of China. Chen Chaohua, a teaching pastor

China: Christian lawyer 'tortured in prison' kidnapped again

Carey Lodge | CHRISTIAN TODAY JOURNALIST Published 25 September 2015

Human rights lawyer Gao Zhisheng has been 'kidnapped' by Chinese officials after speaking out about his alleged torture in prison, according to China Aid.

Sources told the Texas-based organisation that Public Security Bureau officers arrived at the lawyer's home in Shaanxi province at 1pm on Thursday, "and began frantically searching for Gao." He had previously told China Aid that he expected to be detained again after giving an interview this week that detailed horrific torture at the hands of Chinese authorities.

China Aid
Gao Zhisheng is just one of many Chinese lawyers suffering under a government crackdown.

Speaking out for the first time in five years, 51-year-old Gao told AP that he was tortured three times while in prison, and forced to live in a seven metre square confinement cell for three years. A Communist propaganda message was broadcast constantly for 68 weeks. "Those who persecuted me have used every means possible over the past nine years to break my spirit," he said. "Life in prison was absolutely terrible on a physical level... When I was tortured for the first time I was afraid, really afraid. But the second time I was not, because it's a matter of perception. Why was I not afraid? Because I knew that fear would not help, but cause more oppression and cruelty."

Gao is a two-time Nobel Peace Prize nominee, best known for his work defending Falun Gong adherents, Christians, and other persecuted social groups. He was first illegally detained by police in August 2006. Gao was initially sentenced to three years in prison for 'subversion,' followed by a probation period of five years. During this time, he was tortured in detention several times, including being hit with electrified batons and having a toothpick inserted into his genitals, while the government shut down his law practice in Beijing.

Gao was then sentenced to a further three years in prison for supposedly violating the terms of his probation in 2011, and his family were only allowed to visit twice during that time. He was eventually released in August 2014, but has lived under near constant supervision since, in the far western region of Xinjiang. Though his wife and children now live in the US, he refuses to seek exile abroad. "I thought about giving up and giving my time to my family, but it's the mission God has given me," he told AP.

Over 1.4 million children forced to flee Boko Haram, UN says

Over 1.4 million children have been forced to flee Boko Haram in Nigeria, the UN's children's agency has said.

A sharp increase in attacks has displaced half a million children in the last five months alone, bringing the total number of children on the run to 1.4 million, a statement released by UNICEF on Friday said. Many of the children are severely malnourished and are in danger of cholera as they lack access to safe water.

"Each of these children running for their lives is a childhood cut short," said Manuel Fontaine, UNICEF Regional Director for West and Central Africa, in the statement.

"It's truly alarming to see that children and women continue to be killed, abducted and used to carry bombs."

Boko Haram are a militant Islamist group who have been trying to create an Islamic state in north-east Nigeria, run by their own extreme interpretation of sharia law.

They have waged an insurrection for the last six years and controlled large areas of north-east Nigeria at the beginning of 2015 where they began to implement sharia. They were pushed out by Nigerian troops with the help of Chad, Cameroon and Niger after the abduction of over two hundred girls from a school in northern Nigeria sparked an international campaign.

Boko Haram have now reverted to guerilla warfare, raiding villages and bombing places of worship and densely populated spaces. A spike in the number of attacks has led to the sharp increase of children fleeing the violence.

"In northern Nigeria alone, nearly 1.2 million children – over half of them under 5 years old – have been forced to flee their homes," the UNICEF statement read.

The Palestinian Authority has been curiously silent over a major fire at a Christian church in Bethlehem.

In its sole statement, the PA said that the fire at the St. Charbal church in the city was caused by an "electrical malfunction" - a description that is at odds with an account by Israeli Christian Arab Father Gabriel Naddaf, who said that the church was burned down Saturday night by "Palestinian extremists."

"I condemn with all my heart the laxness of the Palestinian Authority in protecting Christian holy places it controls. According to Christian community leaders in Bethlehem, the fire was started by extremist Islamists who for months have been threatening community members with harm. As a result of the fire, several rooms on the church's second floor were completely destroyed. No one was killed or injured.

Kermit the Frog advertises ABC's 'The Muppets,' which is far from the program many remember. (Facebook)

One Million Moms (1MM) suspects there are going to be a lot of shocked moms and dads when they discover that the family-friendly Muppets of the 1970s are no more. It appears that no subject is off limits. ABC's new Muppet Show, airing on Tuesdays at 8 p.m. EDT, is not what Jim Henson imagined and created. The new show is aimed at a mature, modern audience and addresses subjects not suitable for family viewing.

"It's sort of an adult Muppet show," Kermit the Frog said during a promotional video for the show. One ad read, "Finally, a network TV show with full frontal nudity."

The mature version of The Muppets will cover a range of topics from sex to drugs. Miss Piggy came out as a pro-choice feminist during an MSNBC interview. The puppet characters loved by kids in the 1970s, 1980s and beyond are now weighing in on interspecies relationships and promiscuity.

Sex Reassignment Is Latest Company Benefit In Push For Equality

21 SEPTEMBER, 2015

U.S. companies are swiftly adding health insurance benefits for employees who want to transition to another gender, a fairly inexpensive way to show they're serious about a diverse workforce because so few people actually use them. More than 415 of about 780 firms surveyed for their friendliness toward lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender workers now cover related procedures, including hormone therapy and sex-reassignment surgeries, according to the Human Rights Campaign. That's more than double the number in 2012, and up from just 49 in 2009.

Over half of the members of the governing body of the Church in Wales have backed the idea of allowing same-sex couples to marry in church.

A secret ballot was held on taking the issue forward. Of the 120 members present, 61 voted in favour of holding same-sex marriages in church.

However, this falls short of the two-thirds majority needed for change.

Constitution

And any amendment to the Church's constitution requires a new bill to be passed by Parliament.

The governing body comprises of the six diocesan bishops alongside 51 other clerics and 86 lay people.

فالاضطهاد يزيد والاضطراب يزيد والزلازل والابوة والفساد الأخلاقي يزيد والالحاد يزيد

فلهذا أقول المسيح اقترب ميعاد مجيؤه لا احدد مواعيد بل ارفض من يحدد مواعيد ولكن اطلب

الأول نصلي ونستعد ونعد زيت لمصاييحنا لاستقبال العريس بالصلاة والصوم وخدمة أبناء الله
وتنقية القلب والاستعداد بلبس العرس.

رسالة بولس الرسول الي أهل رومية 13

13: 11 هذا وأنكم عارفون الوقت انها الان ساعة لنستيقظ من النوم فان خلاصنا الان أقرب مما
كان حين امنا

13: 12 قد تنهى الليل وتقارب النهار فلنخلع اعمال الظلمة ونلبس اسلحة النور

13: 13 لنسلك بلباقة كما في النهار لا بالبطر والسكر لا بالمضاجع والعهر لا بالخصام والحسد

13: 14 بل البسوا الرب يسوع المسيح ولا تصنعوا تدبيرا للجسد لأجل الشهوات

احترس ان لم تتمسك بالمسيح من الان قد لا تستطيع في المستقبل القريب بسبب الظلام.

الثاني لا نخاف

انجيل متى 24

مت 24: 6 وسوف تسمعون بحروب واخبار حروب لا ترتاعوا لأنه لا بد ان تكون هذه

كلها ولكن ليس المنتهى بعد

بطرس الأولى 3: 14

وَلَكِنْ وَإِنْ تَأَلَّمْتُمْ مِنْ أَجْلِ الْبِرِّ، فَطُوبَاكُمْ. وَأَمَّا خَوْفُهُمْ فَلَا تَخَافُوهُ وَلَا تَضْطَرُّوْا،

بل نؤمن

إنجيل يوحنا 14: 29

وَقُلْتُ لَكُمْ الْآنَ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَكُونَ، حَتَّى مَتَى كَانَ تُؤْمِنُونَ.

ثالثا لنتنبه ونستعد

انجيل لوقا 21

28 وَمَتَى ابْتَدَأَتْ هَذِهِ تَكُونُ، فَاَنْتَصِبُوا وَارْفَعُوا رُؤُوسَكُمْ لِأَنَّ نَجَاتَكُمْ تَقْتَرِبُ.»

افرحوا لان عريسنا قد اقترب مجيؤه. وانتبهوا الشيطان يريد أن نفقد سلامنا ولا ننال أكاليل.

وأیضا استعدوا فقد تسلموا وديعتكم في أي وقت فهناك 150 ألف شخص يموتوا في اليوم الواحد

انت لا تعرف متى ستكون منهم

المسيح اقترب فاصنعوا ثمار تليق بالتوبة واستعدوا لاستقبال العريس.

والمجد لله دائما
