والعلامات حتى 10 أكتوبر 2015

Holy_bible_1

اكرر اننا لا نحدد مواعيد بل فقط نشجع بعضنا بعضا بقرب مجيء المسيح

وأیضا أوضح أنه يوجد نبوات لم نراها بعد مثل ابن الهلاك وهرمجدون

ولكن ايضا علامات كثيرة من التي قال عنها الكتاب انها في الزمان الاخير بدأت تحدث بوضوح

ويجب أن ننتبه اليها. ونذكر بعضنا باننا نحتاج ان نستعد. والاستعداد ليس فقط قبل مجيء

المسيح بل ايضا قبل الظلمة التي ستسبق مجيؤه ليكون عندنا زيت في مصابيحنا يكفي ان نعبر

هذه الظلمة وتكون مصابيحنا مضيئة وقت مجيؤه. بمعنى نحتاج من الان ان نستعد بقوة بأيمان

عامل وبتنقية القلب وان نثمر بالخدمة أي نجمع زيت في مصابيحنا لان الظلمة والضيق اقتربت

جدا ومن لن يستعد لها بزيت كافي من الان لن يجد زيت في الضيقة لان وقتها تجميع زيت

سيكون صعب جدا بل أستطيع ان أقول من مثل العذارى انه لن يكون هناك زيت الا ما جمعه

سابقا. أفضل ان اقول لنفسي ولكم استعدوا الان لأنه اقترب فنكون مستعدين سواء جاء او نحن ان سلمنا وديعتنا عن أنى لا اقول انه اقترب لكيلا يقال عني كاذب وانشتر اشاعات ولكنه يأتي بسرعة بغته. لا اعتقد اي أحد ندم لانه كان مستعد ومنتظر مجيء المسيح ولم ياتي المسيح في زمنه ولكنه انتقل وهو مستعد ولكن كثيرين جدا ندموا على عدم الاستعداد عندما انتقلوا

المسيح قال بعض العلامات مثل

انجيل لوقا 21

21: 10 ثم قال لهم تقوم امة على امة ومملكة على مملكة

21: 11 وتكون زلازل عظيمة في اماكن ومجاعات واوبئة وتكون مخاوف وعلامات عظيمة من

السماء

21: 25 وتكون علامات في الشمس والقمر والنجوم وعلى الارض كرب امم بحيرة البحر والامواج

تضج

21: 26 والناس يغطى عليهم من خوف وانتظار ما يأتي على المسكونة لان قوات السماوات

تزعزع

21: 27 وحينئذ يبصرون ابن الانسان اتيا في سحابة بقوة و مجد كثير

سفر اعمال الرسل 2

2: 19 واعطي عجائب في السماء من فوق وآيات على الارض من أسفل دما ونارا وبخار دخان

2: 20 تتحول الشمس الى ظلمة والقمر الى دم قبل ان يجيء يوم الرب العظيم الشهير

2: 21 ويكون كل من يدعو باسم الرب يخلص

لماذا قال المسيح بعض العلامات؟

أولا لكيلا نرتاع

انجيل متى 24

مت 24: 6 وسوف تسمعون بحروب واخبار حروب لا ترتاعوا لأنه لا بد ان تكون هذه

كلها ولكن ليس المنتهى بعد

ثانيا لنؤمن

إنجيل يوحنا 14: 29

وَقُلْتُ لَكُمْ الْآنَ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَكُونَ، حَتَّى مَتَى كَأَن تُوْمِنُونَ.

ثالثا لننتبه ونستعد

انجيل لوقا 21

28 وَمَتَى ابْتَدَأَتْ هَذِهِ تَكُونُ، فَاَنْتَصِبُوا وَاَرْفَعُوا رُؤُوسَكُمْ لِأَنَّ نَجَاتَكُمْ تَقْتَرِبُ».

Shock as NASA confirms asteroid TWO MILES wide will pass close to Earth in 48 HOURS

A HUGE asteroid measuring almost two miles across will skim past Earth in just 48 HOURS, Nasa has confirmed.

By NATHAN RAO

03:44, Fri, Oct 9, 2015 | UPDATED: 06:18, Fri, Oct 9, 2015

Nasa says Asteroid 86666 is one of the biggest to come close to Earth in recent times.

It should fly safely past earth on Saturday, but astronomers are keeping a close eye on 86666 (2000 FL10) which, according to NASA, will be one of the biggest to pass close to our planet in recent times.

The giant lump of rock is currently hurtling through space at 40,000 miles an hour. The asteroid's exact size is still unclear though it is estimated to be between 0.7 miles metres and 1.6 miles wide - more than 15 times bigger than other asteroids currently on Nasa's radar.

Like a bad sequel, it's once again time for the "end of the world" as we know it (so well). Biblical calculations made by Chris McCann, head of the eBible Fellowship, predict that October 7 is the day of "annihilation."

Maybe.

"There's a strong likelihood that this will happen. Which means there's an unlikely possibility that it will not," McCann says, according to the Guardian.

That qualified statement comes after his Philadelphia, Pennsylvania-based group spent hundreds of thousands of dollars on billboards and other mass media alerting the world that May 21, 2011 was Judgment Day. Since then, McCann's following has dwindled.

Dam Breach Leads To Mandatory Evacuation In South Carolina

5 OCTOBER, 2015

A mandatory evacuation was ordered downstream from the Overcreek Bridge dam after a breach Monday, a spokeswoman for the city of Columbia, South Carolina, told CNN. Authorities were working to determine the severity of the situation, Shawn Washington said. The Charlotte Observer reported that police were working to evacuate residents downstream. If the dam fails, "It's going to unload about 22 acres of water," state Rep. Joel Lourie, D-Richland, who was working with police on the evacuation plans, told the Observer.

Death toll rises as South Carolina coast braces for 2nd round of flooding

GEORGETOWN, S.C. – As the death toll rose to 19 from days of devastating rains in the Carolinas, residents on Wednesday prepared for the state's swollen rivers to unleash a second round of flooding.

Historic downpours slammed South Carolina over the weekend as hurricane Joaquin moved off-shore.

Multiple dams breached on Sunday morning and 100 people remain trapped in their homes as emergency crews go door to door to rescue residents from the flood waters.

According to The Weather Channel, the city of Columbia observed 7.77 inches of rain in just 24 hours between Saturday and Sunday morning – a new record. Officials are declaring that some parts of South Carolina have experienced a 1,000-year rain event, which means that there's only a 1 in 1,000 chance that rains of this magnitude could happen in a given year.

Historic, 1,000-year flood 'like nothing South Carolina has ever seen'

Posted on October 7, 2015

October 2015 – SOUTH CAROLINA – South Carolina's record-smashing days of rain created a 1,000-year flood event that scientists may be studying for years, caused by a confluence of weather events. Some parts of the Charleston area received twice as much rain as Hurricane Hugo dropped in 1989, though mercifully without hurricane winds or a storm surge. Tropical moisture from Hurricane Joaquin and a second storm system was squeezed by two conflicting weather systems "into a narrow band of intense rainfall" funneled directly at South Carolina, according to AccuWeather. "I have never seen rainfall this intense, in this large of an area and during this short of a period in absence of direct impact from a tropical storm or hurricane," said AccuWeather Chief Meteorologist Elliot Abrams. The storms resulted in what's known as a 1,000-year flood, but scientists caution that doesn't mean such flooding won't be seen again during our lifetimes.

"You can, in theory, have a 1,000-year flood the very next day," said Brenda Ekwurzel, senior climate scientist at the Union of Concerned Scientists. In a 100-year flood zone, there's a 1 percent chance of flooding each year, and homeowners are typically required to have flood insurance. In a 1,000-year flood area, there's a one-tenth of 1 percent yearly chance of flooding, but that doesn't mean there will be 1,000 years between floods. "We certainly don't have precipitation records going back 1,000 years," said meteorologist Emily Tims of the National Weather Service, Charleston. The last rain event that comes close was in June 1973, when an unnamed tropical system dumped 16.56 inches on the Charleston area over four days.

Over 100 bushfires are blazing in the state of Victoria, Australia, with over 200 homes at risk. Unusually high temperatures and strong winds have fueled the fires, which are threatening areas about 80 kilometers northwest of Melbourne.

Firefighters are struggling to put out the blazes, with changing wind directions making their task even more difficult. Aerial water bombers have also been called in to provide assistance, as gusts of wind have reached over 100 kilometers an hour.

Mexico: Colima volcano erupts again spewing smoke and ash

Posted on October 7, 2015

October 2015 – MEXICO – Mexico's Colima volcano erupted late on 4 October and continued on until 5 October spewing ash and smoke into the air, authorities reported. According to Jalisco Civil Protection, the plume of gas and ash reached a height of 1,500m, heading north. Along with the ash cloud and gas, the volcano expelled pyroclastic flows that travelled hundreds of metres down the slope. The day before, a spectacular explosion was recorded at 6.29pm, sending clouds of ash and smoke 2,500m above the crater.

Located in the south-western Mexican state of Colima, the Fire Volcano has been exhibiting activity since 9 July. Over the past two months, nearby villages have been blanketed with thick coats of ash, prompting evacuations. Officially known as the Colima Volcano, it was previously active in January and February, and is part of the Pacific's Ring of Fire. Mexico contains over 3,000 volcanoes but only 14 are considered active. The Colima Volcano has erupted more than 40 times since the 16th century and local authorities have an emergency plan that includes continuous observation of the volcano and mandatory evacuations. –IB Times

New bursts of ash and gas rise from Ecuador's Cotopaxi volcano

Published October 08, 2015 • Associated Press

QUITO, Ecuador – Ecuador's restive Cotopaxi volcano has been spewing plumes of ash and gas far above its crater and volcanologists say its activity has been on the upswing.

The country's Geophysics Institute says Cotopaxi shot out a plume more than a mile (2 kilometers) high on Wednesday, and an impressive new emission burst from the volcano on Thursday. And it says incandescent material has been seen in the crater.

On Friday morning, thousands of dead fish lay in the sun along Handsome Bay, Virgin Gorda, as frigate birds circled overhead and pelicans and seagulls perched on nearby rocks.

Other dead sea creatures on the shoreline included eels, a six-foot-long shark, lobsters, parrot fish and blowfish, to name a few.

Environmental officials believe the culprit was sargassum seaweed, which covered much of the bay on Friday and which has also been blamed for VG's water shut-off this week.

In recent months, Handsome Bay has been among the areas hardest hit by the seaweed, and residents have held several cleanups there in part to battle the sulfur smell emitted by the decaying vegetation.

On Friday, the dead fish were in larger numbers along the southwest side of the bay near the Taddy Bay Airport. On the other side, near the Handsome Bay Desalination Plant, the sulfur smell wasn't as strong, but a 14-foot-wide barrier of sargassum lined the beach.

The toxin is released by algae in the presence of very high temperatures and in courses where the water tends to stagnate and then poor oxygen. If the water starts to flow starts to oxygenate surpassing the coverage of algae. In this way the virus botulinum dies because not resist the presence of oxygen. Biologist: Waste Water Kills Thousands Of Delaware County Fish

Posted: Oct 05, 2015 6:07 PM MDT Updated: Oct 05, 2015 6:50 PM MDT

BY: TESS MAUNE, NEWS ON 6 EMAIL

DELAWARE COUNTY, Oklahoma - The Oklahoma Wildlife Department is investigating after thousands of fish were found dead in a Delaware County creek. Biologists said waste water is likely to blame.

Sager Creek is a four-and-a-half-mile stream that is part of the Illinois River Watershed. It was in the water that Oklahoma fisheries biologists said they found at least 10,000 dead fish.

The slow-flowing water on Sager Creek makes it a swimming hole anyone would want to try, according to resident Shandra Stewart.

Minerva said in a securities filing that a ship transporting its cattle had tipped over after departing from the Vila do Conde port in Barcarena. There were no human victims, it said.

Local news site G1 showed images of some cattle escaping from the side of the ship and swimming at the water's surface while most remained trapped.

Williams Shipping Agents said the ship was carrying 5,000 cows, though a Minerva representative could not confirm the number.

Minerva said in the filing that once the cattle left the dock they became the responsibility of the shipping firm, which it did not name.

They are generating losses of up to 1,500 million pesos in eggs a month, according Fenavi.

The poultry sector in the country is highly impacted by the increase in temperature levels, which has increased the death of birds and has reduced the size of the eggs.

"In a cycle of 45 days fattening are dying in Colombia about 600,000 birds, which represents 1% of total production," they reported Andres Valencia Pinzon, president of the National Federation of Poultry, Fenavi.

President Fenavi ensures that also are generating losses of up to 1,500 million pesos in eggs a month, reducing its size.

Another of the effects of El Niño for the poultry sector of the country is focused on the shortage of water resources, forcing farmers to buy water tanks truck, thus increasing production costs.

The family and friends of a British nurse who contracted Ebola last Christmas will have to be tested for the deadly virus after she fell gravely ill for the second time today.

Pauline Cafferkey, 39, is in a 'serious condition' at the Royal Free Hospital in London after the RAF flew her down from Glasgow this morning.

Her second bout of Ebola came ten days after she received a Pride of Britain award from Lenny Henry and Carol Vorderman and met Samantha Cameron in Downing Street the following day.

Miss Cafferkey is now back in the isolation unit where she spent a month and became critically ill after being diagnosed with Ebola last December.

BEIJING/WASHINGTON | BY ADAM ROSE AND DAVID BRUNNSTROM

China said on Friday it would not stand for violations of its territorial waters in the name of freedom of navigation, as the United States considers sailing warships close to China's artificial islands in the South China Sea.

A U.S. defense official told Reuters on Thursday the United States was considering sending ships to waters inside the 12-nautical-mile zones that China claims as territory around islands it has built in the Spratly chain.

As Russia Bombs Syria, Obama Pulls US Aircraft Carrier Out Of Persian Gulf

9 OCTOBER, 2015

AS RUSSIAN WARSHIPS RAIN DOWN CRUISE MISSILES AS PART OF ITS MILITARY STRIKE IN SYRIA, THERE'S NOW A GLARING ABSENCE IN THE REGION: FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE 2007, THE U.S. NAVY HAS NO AIRCRAFT CARRIER IN THE PERSIAN GULF.

EDITOR'S NOTE: With each passing day, it becomes increasingly more obvious that the Muslim-raised Obama is intentionally staying out of the rapidly-changing situation in the Middle East to allow Russia to continue to dominate the scene. By ordering home the USS Theodore Roosevelt, the United States will have no aircraft carriers in the Persian Gulf for the first time since 2007. Did you think that you would ever live to see the day where America would lay down powerlessly before our enemies? That day is today, welcome to Obama's America.

Preview Of World War III? Russia Is Putting On A Display Of Firepower That Is Shocking The World

By Michael Snyder, on October 4th, 2015

The Russians have unleashed their own version of "shock and awe" in Syria, and the brutal efficiency of their airstrikes against ISIS targets has stunned many observers around the globe. For more than a year, the Obama administration has claimed that its bombing campaign in Syria has been a "success", and yet ISIS has continued to grow stronger and gain more territory. But now just over a few days the tide of the conflict appears to have turned. The whole world has gotten a chance to see what a global superpower can truly do to a bunch of radical Islamic terrorists when it is focused and determined. The images that we have seen of hardened ISIS command centers being wiped off the face of the map by Russian bombs are truly impressive. But why did those targets still exist in the first place? Was the U.S. military unable to identify them previously? Or could it be possible that the Obama administration did not want to hit them?

What we do know is that a state of panic has been created among ISIS militants that we have not seen previously. There are reports of hundreds of terrorists abandoning their positions and trying to flee the country...

By Lucas Tomlinson, Jennifer Griffin • Published October 07, 2015 • FoxNews.com

Russian fighter jets shadowed U.S. predator drones on at least three separate occasions high above Syria since the start of Russia's air campaign last week, according to two U.S. officials briefed on this latest intelligence from the region.

Meanwhile, U.S. Navy Captain Jeff Davis told reporters a U.S. aircraft flying over Syria had to be rerouted to avoid a Russian fighter jet at least once.

Syrian rebels battle regime forces in Damascus

In an unprecedented show of unity, more than 40 Syrian rebel factions issued a joint statement condemning Russia's intervention in the ongoing civil war and vowing to fight Russian "occupiers."

Russia claims it launched its massive air campaign last week to target the jihadists ISIS terror group, as well as Al Qaeda's Syrian franchise, Al Nusra Front.

However, while Russian jets have struck ISIS positions in their northern stronghold of Al-Bab - which the London-based Syrian Observatory for Human Rights says resulted in "a large number" of casualties - the vast majority of strikes have been directed against other rebel groups seeking to topple embattled dictator Bashar al-Assad, including several US-backed groups involved in fighting ISIS.

The unabashed use of Russian military force also includes a large number of ground forces, deployed in the Syrian regime's western stronghold to fend off advancing rebels. It is being seen as yet another sign of how the US administration's hesitation in Syria has opened the way for other actors such as Iran and Russia to prop up the Assad regime, while advancing their own interests in the region.

Israel Is Braced For Russian Aerial Intrusions Over Its Golan Border

9 OCTOBER, 2015

Instability still hangs over Moscow's exact aims in regards to its aviation based armed forces flights over the Golan near Israel's fringe – even following two days of discourses on coordination finished in Tel Aviv Thursday, Oct. 8 between the Russian Deputy Chief of Staff Gen. A coordination system between the two aviation based armed forces was left as unfinished business for further talk, DEBKAF's military sources report. Russian Ships Enter The Mediterranean As Fighters Test Turkey's Airspace

More evidence of Russia's deepening and seemingly erratic involvement in Syria's civil war has now appeared via movements of parts of its Black Sea Fleet into the Mediterranean and blatant incursions into Turkey's airspace by their Syrian-based tactical aircraft. Russia's mission creep in Syria seems more like a mission sprint over the last month, with a fully established air base supporting daily air strikes humming away and an Iranian-Iraqi-Hezbollah backed ground offensive, which Russia will support, looming.

NATO held an emergency meeting late Monday, after Russia violated Turkish airspace twice in two days during airstrikes on Syria.

In the first incident, an SU-30 fighter aircraft had entered Turkish airspace "for a few seconds" because of bad weather, Moscow stated Saturday.

However, since then, yet another incident has been reported, a Turkish foreign ministry official stated Monday night - and warned that Russia would "be responsible for any undesired incident that may occur" if it happened again.

Tuesday morning, Ankara announced it had summoned the Russian ambassador to Turkey to "strongly protest" the airspace violations, AFP reported.

NATO Secretary-General Jens Stoltenberg stated Tuesday that Russia has not given "any real explanation" for its extended violation of Turkish airspace. As a result, he concluded that the issue "does not look like an accident."

Russia began to carry out airstrikes in Syria last Wednesday. Stoltenberg has since called on Moscow to be careful not to further escalate the tensions between Russia and NATO.

A senior Iranian military leader warned this weekend that "all U.S. military bases in the Middle East are within the range of" Iran's missiles and emphasized that the Islamic Republic will continue to break international bans on the construction of ballistic missiles.

Much of this missile work, like the details of Iran's advanced arsenal, remains secret, according to Brigadier General Amir Ali Hajizadeh, commander of the Iranian Revolutionary Guard Corps Aerospace Force.

Hajizadeh dismissed the threat of military action by the United States, warning that all U.S. assets and allies are in range of Iran's current missile arsenal, according to comments made Sunday in Tehran and recorded by Iran's state-controlled Fars News Agency.

The threats of attack on the United States were issued as Iran unveiled new high-tech torpedoes and the formation of a joint war room along with Russia, Syria, and Iraq.

"Some of the threats by the U.S. are aimed at appeasing the Zionists, while others are for the purpose of domestic consumption (in the U.S.), but what is important is that they are aware of and acknowledge our capabilities and deterrence power," Hajizadeh was quoted as saying.

"We do not feel any need to increase the range of our missiles and (our perceived enemy) targets are fully within the range of our missiles," he added.

Iran will not slow down the research and construction of advanced missiles, the IRGC leader said, despite international bans on such action.

"At least 3,000 militants from Islamic State (IS, formerly ISIS/ISIL), al-Nusra and Jaish al-Yarmouk have fled to Jordan. They are afraid of the Syrian army having stepped up activities on all fronts and of Russian airstrikes," the RIA source said.

The official added that on Sunday the Syrian army had carried out a number of attacks on Islamic State and al-Nusra fighters on the outskirts of Damascus as well as in the provinces of Deir ez-Zor and Homs.

In Deir ez-Zor, 160 militants were killed in an army assault that aimed at driving extremists away from several settlements.

Disturbing Signs Obama Will Pull US Veto Support Of Israel

9 OCTOBER, 2015

Speculation has been building that President Barack Obama is considering abandoning the longstanding U.S. policy of protecting Israel at the UN with the power of the veto. The U.S. typically uses its veto power to put down any anti-Israel resolutions or Palestinian attempts at reaching statehood through the U.N. However, with peace talks at a standstill for almost a year the US is being pressured by other international powers to either to abstain or even vote in favor of a resolution that would see the laying out of terms for a two-state solution based on Israel's 1967 borders, something Jerusalem opposes.

Israel's air force attacked Gaza early on Monday following a rocket attack on southern Israel which the Israeli military pinned on Hamas.

Israeli jets hit targets in the Gaza Strip on Monday, following rocket attacks on southern Israel that have been attributed to Hamas.

Rockets were fired into Israel late on Sunday night, prompting an attack on the Gaza Strip several hours later by Israeli F-16 jets. Israeli-Palestinian tensions have escalated in recent days, with Palestinian knife attacks against Israeli soldiers.

In the wake of the horrific stream of Palestinian terrorist murders, Israeli Ambassador to the UN Ron Prosor told the UN Security Council that while these horrific killings and the recent escalation of attacks against Israelis were condemned by Secretary General Ban Ki-moon, "the Security Council remains silent, as always."

"Palestinian terrorists are trying to turn the holiday season into a season of grief," Prosor's statement continued. "Instead of calming tensions, the Palestinian leadership has used this holiday season to increase its inflammatory rhetoric and dangerous incitement."

"Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu has repeatedly made it clear, most recently at his address last week to the General Assembly, that 'Israel is fully committed to maintaining the status quo' at the Temple Mount. Despite these clear and unequivocal statements, Abbas continues to deliberately spread false allegations with the sole purpose of sparking violence amongst the Palestinian People. In this he joins in league with extremists groups such as Hamas and Islamic Jihad."

Ambassador Prosor called on the UN Secretary General to put an end to the Palestinian incitement.

A female Arab terrorist stabbed and moderately wounded a Jewish man, aged 36, at the Lion's Gate in the Old City, on the eastern side of the Temple Mount, Wednesday morning. The man shot the terrorist, who is in serious condition.

Police sources said that the stabber sneaked up from behind the man and stabbed him near the neck. He turned around and shot her in self defense. She tried to run away but nearby Border Police gave chase, pounced on her and neutralized her.

Video from the Kotel (Western Wall) Plaza where the wounded were taken following the attack can be seen below.

Magen David Adom (MDA) medical teams and United Hatzalah volunteers initially gave the man and his attacker medical treatment at the site before later evacuating them to a hospital.

MDA paramedic Aharon Adler, who was at the scene, recalled that "in the alleys adjacent to the Lion's Gate a 36-year-old man was lying in moderate condition, stabbed in the upper body, and next to him lay the terrorist, a youth around 20-years-old in serious condition with gunshot wounds in her upper body."

"We gave the wounded initial medical treatment on the scene...and evacuated them to the Kotel Compound on a MDA all-terrain vehicle. There we attached it to an emergency treatment vehicle of MDA that evacuated the wounded to the hospital."

North Korea's Workers' Party prepares anniversary celebration 01:49

Washington (CNN)—The U.S. "sees indications" that North Korea is "likely preparing" for some type of weapons test in association with the 70th anniversary of the founding of the ruling Workers Party on October 10, a U.S. official told CNN.

A likely scenario is that North Korea will attempt, for the first time, to test a submarine-launched medium-range ballistic missile at sea off its eastern coast, according to two U.S. officials familiar with the latest intelligence. The test is seen by the U.S. as part of the regime's "usual provocative efforts."

MOSCOW — Russia and Egypt are holding their first-ever joint naval exercises, the defence ministry said Wednesday, in a bid to strengthen ties amid Moscow's confrontation with the West.

"The active phase of joint Russian-Egyptian naval exercises called The Bridge of Friendship-2015 started today in the Mediterranean Sea near the shores of Egypt," the Russian defence ministry said in a statement.

Several Russian naval vessels including the Moskva missile cruiser, the corvette Samum, the tanker Ivan Bubnov and landing ship Alexander Shabalin are participating in the exercises set to run until June 14.

Egyptian frigates Taba and Sharm El-Sheik and the patrol boat are taking part in the drills off the port of Alexandria.

In May, Russia conducted similar naval drills with China in the Mediterranean.

"With support from aviation, the Russian and Egyptian naval ships will perform tasks with the aim of protecting sea lanes from various threats," the defence ministry said in the run-up to the drills.

Russia is seeking to expand its reach in the Arab world's most populous country after its ties with the West crumbled following the seizure of Crimea from Ukraine last year.

Patriotic teenagers in Jackson Hole, Wyoming showed up to class Wednesday waving American flags in defiance of educators who canceled "America Day" over fears it might upset students who don't consider themselves to be American.

Administrators at Jackson Hole High School pulled the plug on "America Day" – citing concerns that celebrating the USA would alienate some of their young people, the Jackson Hole Daily reported.

Obama Threatens To Defund Military Unless Demand Is Met!

8 OCTOBER, 2015

On Monday, the Obama administration announced that President Obama would veto a defense authorization bill if it did not close down Guantanamo Bay. White House press secretary Josh Earnest explained that the House funding bill would be vetoed “principally because...of the irresponsible way that it funds our national defense priorities, but also because of the efforts to prevent the closure [of] the prison at Guantanamo Bay.” He added that Democrats would sustain Obama’s veto, and defense authorization would die. Obama’s strong stand on Gitmo underscores two vital points. First, President Obama does not fear defunding America’s national security. Second, Obama does not fear Republicans in Congress.

Beneath the surface of a St. Louis-area landfill lurk two things that should never meet: a slow-burning fire and a cache of Cold War-era nuclear waste, separated by no more than 1,200 feet.

As AP reports,

Government officials have quietly adopted an emergency plan in case the smoldering embers ever reach the waste, a potentially "catastrophic event" that could send up a plume of radioactive smoke over a densely populated area near the city's main airport.

Although the fire at Bridgeton Landfill has been burning since at least 2010, the plan for a worst-case scenario was developed only a year ago and never publicized until this week, when St. Louis radio station KMOX first obtained a copy.

But don't panic, as officials say it is "contained"...

County Executive Steve Stenger cautioned that the plan "is not an indication of any imminent danger."

"It is county government's responsibility to protect the health, safety and well-being of all St. Louis County residents," he said in a statement.

Landfill operator Republic Services downplayed any risk.

Interceptor wells — underground structures that capture below-surface gasses — and other safeguards are in place to keep the fire and the nuclear waste separate.

"County officials and emergency managers have an obligation to plan for various scenarios, even very remote ones," landfill spokesman Russ Knoke said in a statement. The landfill "is safe and intensively monitored."

Why Are The IMF, The UN, The BIS And Citibank All Warning That An Economic Crisis Could Be Imminent?

By Michael Snyder, on October 8th, 2015

The warnings are getting louder. Is anybody listening? For months, I have been documenting on my website how the global financial system is absolutely primed for a crisis, and now some of the most important financial institutions in the entire world are warning about the exact same thing. For example, this week I was stunned to see that the Telegraph had published an article with the following ominous headline: "\$3 trillion corporate credit crunch looms as debtors face day of reckoning, says IMF". And actually what we are heading for would more accurately be described as a "credit freeze" or a "credit panic", but a "credit crunch" will definitely work for now. The IMF is warning that the "dangerous over-leveraging" that we have been witnessing "threatens to unleash a wave of defaults" all across the globe...

102.6 Million Working Age Americans Do Not Have A Job

5 OCTOBER, 2015

So how bad is the economy? After all didn't Obama just tell us that things were stable and moving forward? Well according to a new report, The federal government uses very carefully manipulated numbers to cover up the crushing economic depression that is going on in this nation. For the month of September, the federal government told us that 142,000 jobs were added to the economy. If that was actually true, that would barely be enough to keep up with population growth. Sadly, the truth is that the real numbers were actually far worse than that.

The unadjusted numbers show that the U.S. economy actually lost 248,000 jobs in September and the government added more than a million Americans to the "not in the labor force" category. When I first saw that number I truly believed that it was inaccurate. But you can find the raw figures right here. According to the Obama administration, there are currently 7.9 million Americans that are "officially unemployed" and another 94.7 million working age Americans that are "not in the labor force". That gives us a grand total of 102.6 million working age Americans that do not have a job right now. That is not an economic recovery – that is an economic depression of an almost

Stock Market Crash October 2015? 9 Of The 16 Largest Crashes In History Have Come This Month

By Michael Snyder, on October 5th, 2015

The worst stock market crashes in U.S. history have come during the month of October. There is just something about this time of the year that seems to be conducive to financial panic. For example, on October 28th, 1929 the biggest stock market crash in U.S. history up until that time helped usher in the Great Depression of the 1930s. And the largest percentage crash in the history of the Dow Jones Industrial Average by a very wide margin happened on October 19th, 1987. Overall, 9 of the 16 largest single day percentage crashes that we have ever seen happened during the month of October. Of course that does not mean that something will happen this October, but after what we just witnessed in September we should all be on alert.

Clearly, there is a tremendous amount of momentum toward the downside right now. As you can see from the chart below, all of the gains for the Dow since the end of the 2013 calendar year have already been wiped out...

Venezuelan Governor Suggests Eating “Fried Rocks” amid Shortages

Anything to Beat the Opposition in “Economic War” Says Rangel

OCTOBER 2, 2015 AT 8:55 AM

The governor of the Venezuelan state of Bolívar has some advice for dealing with the widespread shortage of food across the country. Can't find eggs at your local Venezuelan grocery store? Why not try fried rocks instead?

Governor Francisco Rangel said during his radio show on Tuesday, September 29, that the Venezuelan people should not “yield to temptation” or worry about not being able to find a pack of flour or sardines to buy amid the shortages.

“Let them take away whatever they want. We are capable of eating a stick, or instead of frying two eggs, fry two rocks, and we will eat fried rocks,” he said, “but no one can beat us.”

Rangel referred to the so-called economic war and the “induced inflation” that he and other ruling-party leaders claim is being caused by the opposition. “Now that prices are sky high, we need to fight against this together. Let them not feel like they have beaten us,” he said.

According to Andrés Bello Catholic University, the cost of basic food needs for an average family in Ciudad Guayana, Bolívar, increased by 18.79 percent in August. The university estimates that a family must now earn 44,963 Bs. (US$54.63) per month to satisfy their food requirements, roughly six times the monthly minimum wage.

Governor Rangel suggests Venezuelans eat fried rocks instead of “giving in to the Venezuelan opposition.” (PanAm Post)

HIGHLY ADORED AND HIGHLY CONTROVERSIAL FAST FOOD CHAIN CHICK-FIL-A SATISFIED CRAVINGS AND RUFFLED A FEW FEATHERS SATURDAY WITH THE GRAND OPENING OF ITS FIRST OFFICIAL MANHATTAN OUTPOST.

EDITOR'S NOTE: So let me see, 5,000 CFA fans show up for the best chicken sandwich in the world and wait for hours in the rain to buy lunch, while 2 dozen LGBT stand outside and protest. Hmm, I'll take those odds any day. In fact, if I was there, I would have been happy to buy all of those 24 people a chicken sandwich. Chick-Fil-A takes Manhattan!

Chick-Fil-A, the massively popular Southern staple owned by a conservative Christian family known for their anti-gay marriage views, hatched a 5,000-square-foot store in Herald Square to mixed reviews from fervent devotees and activists.

"This is the best chicken in the world, in my opinion." said Dana Kelly, 25, after devouring an original chicken sandwich with waffle fries. "It was completely worth it. It's like nothing else." Thousands of hungry, and soggy, fast food fanatics braved the bad weather to get a taste of the chain's signature sandwiches. A few hundred even camped out overnight.

SPRING, Texas - In quaint Old Town Spring, a new church is truly the first of its kind.

The church that will soon be opening doors isn't any old church — it's the Greater Church of Lucifer."

In about 3 1/2 weeks the Houston area will see the doors open on the first known home of the GCOL right down the street from Christian churches, antique stores and flower shops. But church leaders said it's not that Lucifer.

LESBIAN SWEDISH BISHOP WANTS CHRISTIAN CROSSES REMOVED FROM CHURCH TO PLEASE MUSLIMS

And replaced with symbols "marking the direction of Mecca"

by PAUL JOSEPH WATSON | OCTOBER 5, 2015

With hundreds of thousands more migrants set to pour into Sweden, a Bishop in Stockholm has proposed removing crosses from a Christian church and replacing them with Islamic symbols in order to cater for Muslims.

Bishop Eva Brunne wants to remove Christian symbols from the Seamen's Church to make the building "more inviting" for Muslims, reports SVT, Sweden's national public TV broadcaster.

"Leasing a room to people of other faiths, does not mean that we are not defenders of our own faith. Priests are called to proclaim Christ. We do that every day and in every meeting with people. But that does not mean that we are hostile toward people of other faiths," wrote Brunne, attempting to justify the plan.

فالاضطهاد يزيد والاضطراب يزيد والزلازل والابوئة والفساد الأخلاقي يزيد والاحاد يزيد

فلهذا أقول المسيح اقترب ميعاد مجيؤه لا احدد مواعيد بل ارفض من يحدد مواعيد ولكن اطلب

الأول نصلي ونستعد ونعد زيت لمصابيحنا لاستقبال العريس بالصلاة والصوم وخدمة أبناء الله

وتنقية القلب والاستعداد بلبس العرس.

رسالة بولس الرسول الي أهل رومية 13

13: 11 هذا وأنكم عارفون الوقت انها الان ساعة لنستيقظ من النوم فان خلاصنا الان أقرب مما

كان حين امنا

13: 12 قد تناهى الليل وتقارب النهار فلنخلع اعمال الظلمة ونلبس اسلحة النور

13: 13 لنسلك بلباقة كما في النهار لا بالبطر والسكر لا بالمضاجع والعهر لا بالخصام والحسد

13: 14 بل البسوا الرب يسوع المسيح ولا تصنعوا تدبيرا للجسد لأجل الشهوات

احترس ان لم تتمسك بالمسيح من الان قد لا تستطيع في المستقبل القريب بسبب الظلام.

الثاني لا نخاف

انجيل متى 24

مت 24: 6 وسوف تسمعون بحروب واخبار حروب لا ترتاعوا لأنه لا بد ان تكون هذه

كلها ولكن ليس المنتهى بعد

بطرس الأولى 3: 14

وَلَكِنْ وَإِنْ تَأَلَّمْتُمْ مِنْ أَجْلِ الْبِرِّ، فَطُوبَاكُمْ. وَأَمَّا خَوْفُهُمْ فَلَا تَخَافُوهُ وَلَا تَضْطَرُّوْا،

بل نؤمن

إنجيل يوحنا 14: 29

وَقُلْتُ لَكُمْ الْآنَ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَكُونَ، حَتَّى مَتَى كَانَ تُؤْمِنُونَ.

ثالثا لنتنبه ونستعد

انجيل لوقا 21

28 وَمَتَى ابْتَدَأَتْ هَذِهِ تَكُونُ، فَانْتَصِبُوا وَارْفَعُوا رُؤُوسَكُمْ لِأَنَّ نَجَاتَكُمْ تَقْتَرِبُ.».

افرحوا لان عريسنا قد اقترب مجيؤه. وانتبهوا الشيطان يريد أن نفقد سلامنا ولا ننال أكاليل.

وأیضا استعدوا فقد تسلموا وديعتكم في أي وقت فهناك 150 ألف شخص يموتوا في اليوم الواحد

المسيح اقترب فاصنعوا ثمار تليق بالتوبة واستعدوا لاستقبال العريس.

والمجد لله دائما
