اكرر اننا لا نحدد مواعيد بل فقط نشجع بعضنا بعضا بقرب مجيء المسيح

وأیضا لا اقصد ان اخيف أحد بل من يخاف هو لا يثق في مواعيد الرب

هدفي فقط أن نذكر بعضنا باننا نحتاج ان نستعد. والاستعداد ليس فقط قبل مجيء المسيح بل

ايضا قبل الظلمة التي ستسبق مجيؤه ليكون عندنا زيت في مصابيحنا يكفي ان نعبر هذه الظلمة

وتكون مصابيحنا مضيئة وقت مجيؤه او من منا سيسلم وديعته في أي وقت. بمعنى نحتاج من

الان ان نستعد بقوة بأيمان عامل وبتنقية القلب وان نثمر بالخدمة أي نجمع زيت في مصابيحنا

لان الظلمة والضيقة اقتربت جدا ومن لن يستعد لها بزيت كافي من الان لن يجد زيت في الضيقة

لان وقتها تجميع زيت سيكون صعب جدا بل أستطيع ان أقول من مثل العذارى انه لن يكون هناك

زيت الا ما جمعته سابقا.

أفضل ان اقول لنفسي ولكم استعدوا الان لأنه اقرب فنكون مستعدين سواء جاء او نحن ان
سلمنا وديعتنا عن أنى لا اقول انه اقرب لكيلا يقال عني كاذب وانشر اشاعات ولكنه يأتي بسرعة
بغته. لا اعتقد اي أحد ندم لأنه كان مستعد ومنتظر مجيء المسيح ولم يأتي المسيح في زمنه
ولكنه انتقل وهو مستعد ولكن كثيرين جدا ندموا على عدم الاستعداد عندما انتقلوا

المسيح قال بعض العلامات مثل

انجيل لوقا 21

21: 10 ثم قال لهم تقوم امة على امة ومملكة على مملكة

21: 11 وتكون زلازل عظيمة في اماكن ومجاعات واوبئة وتكون مخاوف وعلامات عظيمة من

السماء

21: 25 وتكون علامات في الشمس والقمر والنجوم وعلى الارض كرب امم بحيرة البحر والامواج

تضج

21: 26 والناس يغطى عليهم من خوف وانتظار ما يأتي على المسكونة لان قوات السماوات

تزعزع

21: 27 وحينئذ يبصرون ابن الانسان اتيا في سحابة بقوة و مجد كثير

سفر اعمال الرسل 2

2: 19 واعطي عجائب في السماء من فوق وآيات على الارض من أسفل دما ونارا وبخار دخان

2: 20 تتحول الشمس الى ظلمة والقمر الى دم قبل ان يجيء يوم الرب العظيم الشهير

2: 21 ويكون كل من يدعو باسم الرب يخلص

لماذا قال المسيح بعض العلامات؟

أولا لكيلا نرتاع

انجيل متى 24

مت 24: 6 وسوف تسمعون بحروب واخبار حروب لا ترتاعوا لأنه لا بد ان تكون هذه

كلها ولكن ليس المنتهى بعد

ثانيا لنؤمن

إنجيل يوحنا 14: 29

وَقُلْتُ لَكُمْ الْآنَ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَكُونَ، حَتَّى مَتَى كَأَن تُوْمِنُونَ.

ثالثا لننتبه ونستعد

انجيل لوقا 21

28 وَمَتَى ابْتَدَأَتْ هَذِهِ تَكُونُ، فَاَنْتَصِبُوا وَاَرْفَعُوا رُؤُوسَكُمْ لِأَنَّ نَجَاتَكُمْ تَقْتَرِبُ.»

Chandrapur: Hundreds of birds have died after consuming poisonous grains from a paddy nursery in the fields around village Junona, around 8km from the city. Forest officials took notice of the incident on Wednesday and carried out inquest of the dead bodies of some birds. Local wildlife activists claimed that poisonous chemical sprayed on the paddy nursery led to the bird deaths.

"The birds are dying since last four days in fields and shrubs all around the village. I have seen hundreds of dead birds scattered in the bushes, on trees, in farms fences etc. After the matter was reported to the forest officials, the forest guard of Chandrapur range carried out an inquest on Wednesday on the dead bodies of 21 birds we had gathered at one place," said Kishor Petkule, volunteer of local wing of Eco-Pro organization.

He maintained that the number of deaths is very high, however, the forest guard who came investigate the matter did not bother to search around looking for dead birds. He was content with conducting panchanama of 21 birds that volunteers had collected. He maintained that some villagers too have taken several dead birds to eat.

With onset of monsoon, farmers have started preparing their fields for crops. Those cultivating paddy have put nurseries in their fields. These paddy nurseries are

Authorities have ordered a three-day suspension of the sale of live poultry in Macau, culling 8,000 chickens and 1,000 pigeons on Thursday night, after an environmental sample taken last Thursday from the lao Hon market has tested positive from a strain of the H7 avian flu virus.

"Following the positive result, the government activated its contingency plan in coordination with the Health Bureau. In order to ensure public health and safety, we will be culling birds and suspending the sale of live poultry," said José Tavares.

"We will also undertake inspection and disinfection efforts in sales spaces and the slaughter houses. On its part, the Health Bureau will be monitoring the workers of this market," the president of the Civic and Municipal Affairs Bureau added.

The sale of live poultry is expected to be halted for three days, with a further extension to 21 days if the authorities fail to track down the supplier of the infected birds.

Deadly Drought: Fish and alligators dying as severe drought hits Pilcomayo river in Paraguay.

Members of environmental NGOs warn for an impending ecological disaster in the watercourse. It predicts that the situation will be reversed only in November and December, if a new flood occurs. Dozens of crocodiles and fish die every day due to drought Pilcomayo river in Paraguay. The image of animals trapped in the mud moves the villagers who can do nothing in the absence of water.

The truth is that the lack of water in the river can not be solved by opening the channel, but until a new flood occurs between the months of November and December, he told Oscar Salazar, president of the National Commission of the Pilcomayo River.

Meanwhile, Victor Benitez, Altervida NGO, warned that "we are in an ecological disaster doors" to the situation that must cross the species to drought.

Several animals suffer because of the lack of the vital water.

While many of them died, others are struggling to survive.

Plague Of Mayflies Invade Havana, Illinois

28 JUNE, 2016

A massive swarm of mayflies has invaded the town of Havana, Illinois, creating a slippery mess and several accidents. Havana police tell NewsChannel 4 that it's unlike anything they've ever seen before. "We have mayflies but never an invasion like this," said Officer Stark.

We call it Profit Share.

The swarm has its sights set on a main bridge, which has prompted the Havana Police Department to send out this warning on its Facebook page: "At one point they had piled 6 inches high and when ran over, became very slick. There were already motorcycle accidents due to this and cars stuck in the center of the bridge." Commenters say the swarm resembles "a plague."

Russia's defense minister says the military will respond in kind to NATO's buildup near Russian borders.

Sergei Shoigu said Wednesday the deployment of additional NATO units and weapons in Eastern Europe "has undermined strategic stability." He voiced concern that NATO's activities near Russia's borders could expand further following the alliance's summit in July.

Shoigu said that NATO's moves have prompted Russia to take countermeasures, adding that Russia's western military district will receive 2,000 new weapons units this year. He noted that as part of the response to NATO's buildup, Russia's Baltic Fleet has received new ships and other weapons and the military has formed a new army corps to support it.

NATO has rotated weapons and troops to reassure its eastern members amid tensions with Russia over the Ukrainian crisis.

VLADIMIR Putin is to send Russia's largest battleship to Syria in a bid to crush ISIS once and for all.

The Russian president is to dispatch the Admiral Kuznetsov aircraft carrier plus 30 jet fighters and attack helicopters to the war-torn country in an attempt to destroy the terror group for good.

The Kremlin strongman's decision came in the wake of ISIS atrocities in Bangladesh – where it murdered 20 hostages in a restaurant in the capital Dhaka – and Baghdad, Iraq, where a car bomb killed 125 shoppers.

KILLING MACHINE Terrorists 'actively seeking' to build deadly army of intelligent killer robots, UN warns

Terrorists are working to build armies of artificially intelligent killer robots capable of slaughtering vast numbers of innocent civilians.

That's the terrifying claim from a piece of authoritative research published by the United Nations, which recently held an urgent meeting to discuss the threat posed by murderous machines.

Experts from dozens of countries convened in Geneva to consider the grim implications of "Lethal Autonomous Weapons Systems" (LAWS) which are capable of killing without needing to have a human at the controls.

European Banks Have Their Worst Two Day Stretch EVER As The Global Financial Crisis Intensifies

By Michael Snyder, on June 27th, 2016

Over the last two trading days, European banks have lost 23 percent of their value. Let that number sink it for a bit. In just a two day stretch, nearly a quarter of the value of all European banks has been wiped out. I warned you that the Brexit vote "could change everything", and that is precisely what has happened. Meanwhile, the Dow was down another 260 points on Monday as U.S. markets continue to be shaken as well. Overall, approximately three trillion dollars of global stock market wealth has been lost over the last two trading days. That is an all-time record, and any doubt that we have entered a new global financial crisis has now been completely eliminated.

But of course the biggest news on Monday was what happened to European banks. The Brexit vote has caused financial carnage for those institutions unlike anything that we have ever seen before. Just check out this chart from Zero Hedge...

A federal judge appointed by President Obama has struck down a Mississippi law – hours before it was set to take effect Friday – that would have protected the religious freedom of clerks and businesses that refuse to participate in same-sex marriages.

In his 60-page ruling, U.S. District Court Judge Carlton Reeves stated that the law, known as the "Protecting Freedom of Conscience from Government Discrimination Act," or H.B. 1523, is unconstitutional and would "diminish the rights of LGBT citizens."

"The state has put its thumb on the scale to favor some religious beliefs over others," Reeves said.

ChristianMingle.com, an online dating service for Christian singles, must start allowing people to seek out same-sex relationships under a judge-approved settlement.

ChristianMingle only required new users to specify whether they're a man seeking a woman or a woman seeking a man. Two gay men filed class-actions claims against the site's owner, California-based Spark Networks Inc., claiming that the site's limited options violated California's anti-discrimination law, The Wall Street Journal reported.

State law requires businesses to offer "full and equal" accommodations and services to people regardless of their sexual orientation.

For now, ChristianMingle will only ask a user whether he or she is a man or woman. Spark Networks agreed that within two years, it would adjust other features to give gay singles a more tailored experience, the Journal reported.

The terms approved by a state judge Monday also applied to other Spark-owned sites that had operated in the same fashion, including CatholicMingle.com, AdventistSinglesConnection.com and BlackSingles.com, the Journal reported.

A Christian ministry that works with persecuted Christians worldwide has announced a day of prayer and fasting for Wednesday, June 29, because of looming legislation in Russia that would return the nation to the days of Communist power by demanding everyone who wants to share their faith first get government authorization.

According to the announcement from Barnabas Fund, the day of prayer and fasting is being sought by Christians in Russia because of the looming new restrictions on religion.

"Last Friday two members of the Russian Duma (parliament) introduced a series of amendments to anti-terrorist legislation that would require individuals to gain prior state authorization before even discussing their faith with someone else," the announcement said.

Asking children to attend Christian assemblies undermines their human rights, according to a United Nations committee.

A highly controversial new report by the U.N. Committee on the Rights of the Child expresses "concern" that pupils in the U.K. are legally required to take part in a daily act of collective worship, which is "wholly or mainly of a broadly Christian character."

Conservative MP David Burrowes described the criticism as "ludicrous" and said the government can Smiling as she sits in a float at St. Louis' annual pride parade, Erin O'Flaherty gleams with a crown atop her head, a prize she clinched after being crowned Miss Missouri last month.

For O'Flaherty, being a part of the event had personal significance, as she is the first openly gay Miss America contestant in the pageant's 95-year history.

Her experience in the run-up to this September's Miss America pageant, she said, has been an atmosphere that is nothing short of inclusive.

"The Miss America organization has done a great job of wrapping their arms around me," O'Flaherty, 23, told CNN's Ashleigh Banfield. "Everyone who I've come into contact with has been nothing but supportive."

She added that she has never encountered any problems with fellow contestants, and that everyone has become lifelong friends, "bonding through the process."

Same-Sex Couples Win Birth Certificate Suit

BRANDON SMITH

INDIANAPOLIS -- A federal judge Thursday ordered the state to include the names of both mothers on the birth certificate of a child born to a lesbian couple.

Indiana birth certificates list only the mother and the father. Eight lesbian couples sued, seeking the right to include both mothers: the birth mother and her partner. They argue that the state's current system sometimes denies them the right to give the child both last names and denies parents -- and the children -- certain rights and access to benefits. The state had argued same-sex partners should go through the adoption process.

But the couples noted that was both lengthy and expensive...and federal judge Tanya Walton Pratt agrees. Pratt says denying both same-sex spouses the right to be on a birth certificate leaves the child in what she calls the "vulnerable position" of having only one legal parent.

In a statement, the Attorney General's office says it hasn't decided whether to appeal.

'Transgenderism' shaking up America's schools

Monday, June 27, 2016 | Bob Kellogg (OneNewsNow.com)

As so-called "transgender rights" continue to stir up major controversies for schools and parents across America, at least one conservative commentator is questioning how such a tiny group of people can be allowed to create such havoc for the entire nation.

Stressing the enormous weight given to such a miniscule group of people in America, Henry W. Burke wrote in an article published in Education News that the normally quoted figure for the number of transgenders in the U.S. is around 700,000.

However, he maintains that 2010 statistics from the U.S. Census Bureau covering the United States' population of well over 300 million individuals put the number more accurately at around 16,000 people.

28 وَمَتَى ابْتَدَأَتْ هَذِهِ تَكُونُ، فَأَنْتَضِبُوا وَارْفَعُوا رُؤُوسَكُمْ لِأَنَّ نَجَاتَكُمْ تَقْتَرِبُ.».

افرحوا لان عريسنا قد اقترب مجيؤه. وانتبهوا الشيطان يريد أن نفقد سلامنا ولا ننال أكاليل.

وأيضاً استعدوا فقد تسلموا وديعتكم في أي وقت فهناك 150 ألف شخص يموتوا في اليوم الواحد

انت لا تعرف متى ستكون منهم

المسيح اقترب فاصنعوا ثمار تليق بالتوبة واستعدوا لاستقبال العريس.

والمجد لله دائما
