اكرر اننا لا نحدد مواعيد بل فقط نشجع بعضنا بعضا بقرب مجيء المسيح

وأیضا لا اقصد ان اخيف أحد بل من يخاف هو لا يثق في مواعيد الرب

هدفي فقط أن نذكر بعضنا باننا نحتاج ان نستعد. والاستعداد ليس فقط قبل مجيء المسيح بل

ايضا قبل الظلمة التي ستسبق مجيؤه ليكون عندنا زيت في مصابيحنا يكفي ان نعبر هذه الظلمة

وتكون مصابيحنا مضيئة وقت مجيؤه او من منا سيسلم وديعته في أي وقت. بمعنى نحتاج من

الان ان نستعد بقوة بأيمان عامل وبتنقية القلب وان نثمر بالخدمة أي نجمع زيت في مصابيحنا

لان الظلمة والضيقة اقتربت جدا ومن لن يستعد لها بزيت كافي من الان لن يجد زيت في الضيقة

لان وقتها جميع زيت سيكون صعب جدا بل أستطيع ان أقول من مثل العذاري انه لن يكون هناك

زيت الا ما جمعته سابقا.

أفضل ان اقول لنفسي ولكم استعدوا الان لأنه اقترب فنكون مستعدين سواء جاء او نحن ان
سلمنا وديعتنا عن أنى لا اقول انه اقترب لكيلا يقال عني كاذب وانشر اشاعات ولكنه يأتي بسرعة
بغته. لا اعتقد اي أحد ندم لأنه كان مستعد ومنتظر مجيء المسيح ولم يأتي المسيح في زمنه
ولكنه انتقل وهو مستعد ولكن كثيرين جدا ندموا على عدم الاستعداد عندما انتقلوا

المسيح قال بعض العلامات مثل

انجيل لوقا 21

21: 10 ثم قال لهم تقوم امة على امة ومملكة على مملكة

21: 11 وتكون زلازل عظيمة في اماكن ومجاعات واوبئة وتكون مخاوف وعلامات عظيمة من

السماء

21: 25 وتكون علامات في الشمس والقمر والنجوم وعلى الارض كرب امم بحيرة البحر والامواج

تضج

21: 26 والناس يغطى عليهم من خوف وانتظار ما يأتي على المسكونة لان قوات السماوات

تزعزع

21: 27 وحينئذ يبصرون ابن الانسان اتيا في سحابة بقوة و مجد كثير

سفر اعمال الرسل 2

2: 19 واعطي عجائب في السماء من فوق وآيات على الارض من أسفل دما ونارا وبخار دخان

2: 20 تتحول الشمس الى ظلمة والقمر الى دم قبل ان يجيء يوم الرب العظيم الشهير

2: 21 ويكون كل من يدعو باسم الرب يخلص

لماذا قال المسيح بعض العلامات؟

أولا لكيلا نرتاع

انجيل متى 24

مت 24: 6 وسوف تسمعون بحروب واخبار حروب لا ترتاعوا لأنه لا بد ان تكون هذه

كلها ولكن ليس المنتهى بعد

ثانيا لنؤمن

إنجيل يوحنا 14: 29

وَقُلْتُ لَكُمْ الْآنَ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَكُونَ، حَتَّى مَتَى كَأَن تُوْمِنُونَ.

ثالثا لننتبه ونستعد

انجيل لوقا 21

28 وَمَتَى ابْتَدَأَتْ هَذِهِ تَكُونُ، فَاَنْتَصِبُوا وَاَرْفَعُوا رُؤُوسَكُمْ لِأَنَّ نَجَاتَكُمْ تَقْتَرِبُ.»

When Will China's 'Heavenly Palace' Space Lab Fall Back to Earth?

Is it SNOWING in space? Water turning into ice spotted directly for the first time in disk around a young star

- Young stars are surrounded by a disk of dust and gas, that forms planets
- Point at which temperature is cold enough for ice called 'water snow line'
- Contains snow, and is where rocky planets like Earth are thought to form
- For the first time, a telescope has been able to capture this part of a disk

Most people will be familiar with snow on Earth, but it seems there may be blizzards in space too.

Astronomers have seen a mixture of ice, water and snow in the disk of dust and gas surround a young star.

But while on Earth snow can mean a day of sledging and chaos on the roads, in space it may be a fundamental part of the formation of planets.

July 13: An earthquake of magnitude 6.3 struck New Zealand's Kermadec Islands on Wednesday, reports said. Initial reports did not mention the damage to life and property, nor are there any reports of a tsunami warning being issued anywhere. This comes just a few weeks after an earthquake had hit the islands on June 5.

Wednesday's earthquake occurred 201 km NE of Raoul Island, New Zealand (125 miles). Exact location of event, depth 12.41 km, -176.3861° West, -28.0327° South, said a report by earthquakenewstoday.com. The quake was reported at 00:11:13 / 12:11 am (local time epicenter) and it occurred at a depth of 12.41 km (8 miles), below the surface of the Earth. Reports of damage to life and property (if any) have yet to come, as more details about the quake are still awaited. ALSO READ: New Zealand earthquake: 6.0-magnitude quake

Ground around one of the world's most dangerous volcano systems is raising up

The ground around one of the world's most dangerous volcanic systems has been moving upwards over the last decade, raising 38cm in the last 10 years. The movement at Italy's Campi Flegrei – or, as it's also known, the Phlegraean Fields – has raised concerns of an impending eruption, but scientists have now said this is not necessarily the case.

Piton de la Fournaise volcano (La Réunion): signs of unrest, volcano might be heading for new eruption

Posted on July 18, 2016

July 2016 – La Réunion – The volcano is showing signs of unrest that could be (but not necessarily) precursors of a new eruption. Since the beginning of the month, shallow (0-2 km depth) volcanic earthquakes of rock-fracturing type under the Dolomieu crater (the main vent of the volcano) have been more frequent, probably caused by a new magma intrusion.

The volcano observatory's (OVPF) latest statement mentions that 111 "collapses" have occurred recently on the Dolomieu crater, the Enclos and on the lava flow of Aug-Oct 2015. In addition, it seems that new deformation has started during the past days, which would fit into the picture that the volcano is likely preparing itself for a new eruption, although the trend was still unclear and needs to be confirmed. Gas emissions have not shown any significant variation above background levels. –Volcano Discovery

Geohazard: Giant sinkholes near West Texas oil patch towns are growing—as new ones lurk

Posted on July 16, 2016

July 2016 – TEXAS – Satellite radar images reveal ground movement of infamous sinkholes near Wink, Texas; suggest the two existing holes are expanding, and new ones are forming as nearby subsidence occurs at an alarming rate. Residents of Wink and neighboring Kermit have grown accustomed to the two giant sinkholes that sit between their small West Texas towns. But now radar images taken of the sinkholes by an orbiting space satellite reveal big changes may be on the horizon.

A new study by geophysicists at Southern Methodist University, Dallas, finds the massive sinkholes are unstable, with the ground around them subsiding, suggesting the holes could pose a bigger hazard sometime in the future. The two sinkholes—about a mile apart—appear to be expanding. Additionally, areas around the existing sinkholes are unstable, with large areas of subsidence detected via satellite radar remote sensing.

That leaves the possibility that new sinkholes, or one giant sinkhole, may form, said geophysicists and study co-authors Zhong Lu, professor, Shuler-Foscue Chair, and Jin-Woo Kim research scientist, in the Roy M. Huffington Department of Earth Sciences at SMU. "This area is heavily populated with oil and gas production equipment and installations, hazardous liquid pipelines, as well as two communities. The intrusion of freshwater to underground can dissolve the interbedded salt layers and accelerate the sinkhole collapse," said Kim, who leads the SMU geophysical team reporting the findings. "A collapse could be catastrophic. Following our study, we are collecting more high-resolution satellite data over the sinkholes and neighboring

Bird flu confirmed on farm in St. Catharines; 14,000 ducks to be killed

Fourteen thousand ducks to be 'de-populated' to stop spread of H5N1 virus Ontario

CBC News Posted: Jul 08, 2016 1:52 PM ET | Last Updated: Jul 08, 2016 3:27 PM ET

Ontario poultry farmers are encouraged to beef up their biosecurity measures, such as being cautious about the movement of birds.

Less than a year after Ontario was declared free of avian influenza, 14,000 ducks will be killed after the virus was found on a commercial farm in St. Catharines, Ont.

The Canadian Food Inspection Agency released a statement Friday that the virus was found in the 12-week old birds, and continued testing will be used to confirm which strain is present, though it is connected to the H5N2 strain.

Alarming number of sea birds found dead on Victoria beaches

WATCH: Researchers are trying to determine what's causing one species of sea bird to die in such large numbers so suddenly. April Lawrence reports.

Biologist Don Kramer was searching a small Dallas Road beach for dead sea birds Thursday, and it only took minutes to find some.

A retired professor, Kramer now monitors sea bird fatalities in Victoria for Bird Studies Canada.

"So this is the species that people have been saying has been turning up dead quite often," said Kramer, pointing out a third bird carcass.

Antibiotic-resistant cases of the sexually transmitted illness gonorrhea have more than quadrupled in the United States.

This new data, from the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, should serve as a warning that "the future of current treatment options may be in jeopardy," the agency said in a news release issued Thursday.

"The confluence of emerging drug resistance and very limited alternative options for treatment creates a perfect storm for future gonorrhea treatment failure in the U.S.," said Dr. Jonathan Mermin, who directs the CDC's National Center for HIV/AIDS, Viral Hepatitis, STD, and Tuberculosis Prevention.

Chinese President Xi Jinping has ordered the People's Liberation Army to "prepare for combat" as a measure against possible hostile U.S. action in the South China Sea after an international tribunal ruled that Beijing had no exclusive control over the area.

"The Permanent Court of Arbitration said there was no evidence that China had historically exercised exclusive control over the waters or resources," reports the BBC.

ULAANBAATAR, July 15 (Reuters) - Chinese Premier Li Keqiang told Japanese Prime Minister Shinzo Abe on Friday that his country should stop interfering and hyping up the South China Sea issue, as the dispute took centre stage at a key regional summit in Mongolia.

China has refused to recognise Tuesday's ruling by an arbitration court in The Hague invalidating China's vast claims in the South China Sea and did not take part in the proceedings. It has reacted angrily to calls by

WAR DRUMS: U.S. Warships Surround Disputed Chinese Waters, Prepared For War

15 JULY, 2016

Territorial disputes are a delicate thing... and potentially deadly as well. That's why the U.S. is backing up its positions with an ever-increasing presence of warships in the South China Sea. China is very touchy about these territories, and unwilling to give up what they perceive as their waters, even as a UN tribunal just denied their claims and strengthened the U.S. hand. Indeed, the entire situation is combustible and very dangerous.

New Russian Bomber to Be Able to Launch Nuclear Attacks From Outer Space

Posted on July 14, 2016 by Staff in News, Technology, Europe, War & Conflict // 2 Comments

(Sputnik) – The Russian Strategic Missile Forces Academy is developing a hypersonic strategic bomber capable of striking with nuclear warheads from outer space, Lt. Col. Aleksei Solodovnikov told RIA Novosti on Wednesday.

A trial model of Russia's nuclear-capable outer space strategic bomber will be developed by 2020, according to its developer.

Russian commander of the Strategic Missile Forces (SMF), Colonel General Sergei Karakayev, had earlier reported that the Russian Strategic Missile Forces Academy has already developed and tested an engine for the

A U.S. website that monitors North Korea says satellite imagery shows a high level of activity at the isolated nation's nuclear test site.

The website 38 North said Monday the commercial imagery taken July 7 appears to show supplies or equipment near a tunnel entrance at Punggye-ri (PUNG-gare-ree), where North Korea has conducted four underground nuclear test explosions since 2006. There is also a vehicle at a nearby support building and what may be mine ore carts.

The website says it is unclear whether this activity is for maintenance, excavation or preparation for a fifth nuclear test. It concludes that North Korea is ensuring that the facility is in a state of readiness.

The last test explosion took place in January and drew the toughest international sanctions yet.

An Afghan refugee who went on an axe rampage on a German train had only been living with his foster family for two weeks and may have been self radicalised after he was found to have made an ISIS flag.

The 17-year-old attacker was gunned down by armed police after fleeing the scene near the city of Wurzburg, 70 miles north of Nuremberg last night.

He shouted 'Allahu Akbar' during the incident and the terror group have claimed that he was an 'Islamic State fighter', making it the first ISIS attack in Germany.

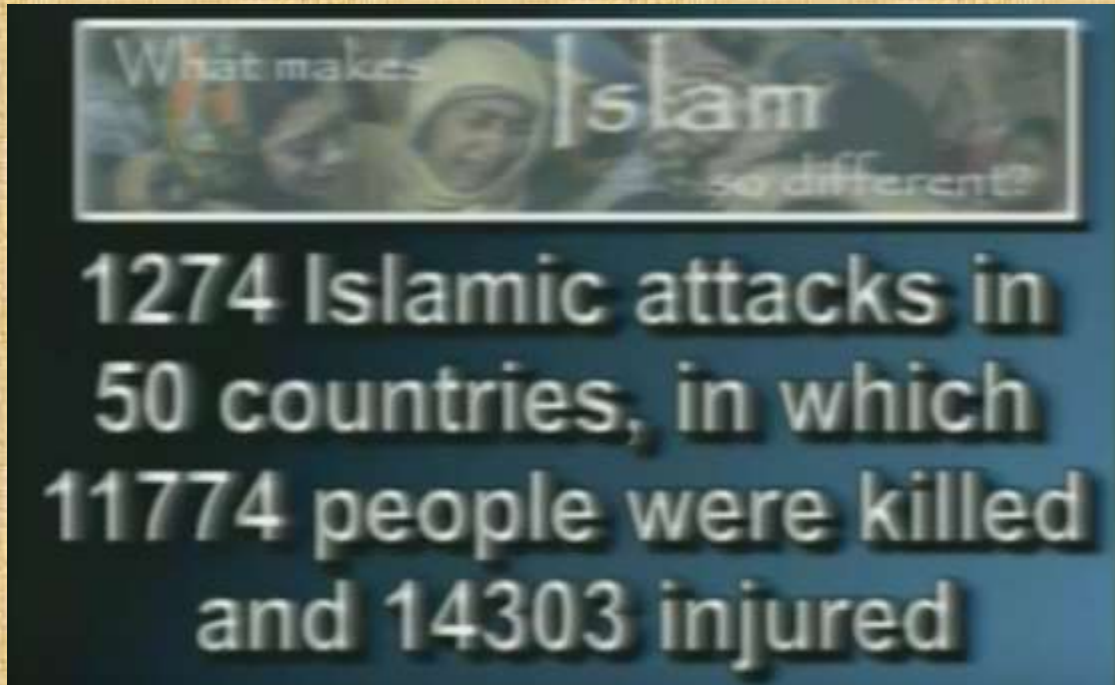

As many as 19 passengers needed hospital treatment while two victims are fighting for their lives after being attacked with 'cutting and stabbing weapons'.

An eyewitness said the train, which had been carrying around 25 people, looked 'like a slaughterhouse' after the attack, with blood covering the floor.

First responders searching for source of mysterious 'boom' in Bald Knob

Published 9:32 am Sunday, July 10, 2016

A report of a low-flying aircraft and a large explosion or boom followed by white smoke last night off Harvieland Road in Bald Knob led emergency responders to conduct an intense search of the area.

This morning, the source of the boom remains a mystery.

The first reports of a loud boom or explosion off O'Nan's Bend in Bald Knob came in at about 40 minutes before sunset Saturday night, according to Franklin County Fire Chief Kevin Hutcherson.

Franklin County firefighters responded to the call and started a search of the area, Hutcherson said, but did not find anything. Another call came in from an off-duty city police officer who reported that the boom sounded like much more than just fireworks, Hutcherson said, so emergency responders stepped up the search effort to include a helicopter from the Lexington Police Department, the Franklin County Sheriff's Office and Emergency Management.

Hutcherson said the helicopter flew a wide radius over the area twice before the search was terminated after about four and a half hours.

Hutcherson also noted that one of the callers said they saw white smoke in the area of the boom, and he said black smoke is typically what witnesses would see if the explosion involves a petroleum byproduct.

Do Demons Exist? Watch A Demon-Possessed Model Manifest A Spirit During A Live Television Interview

By Michael Snyder, on July 11th, 2016

Do demons really exist? If you are not much interested in spiritual matters, this may seem like a very odd question to you. Perhaps up to this point the only encounters you have had with "demon possession" have been in Hollywood horror movies. The topic of "demons" just doesn't come up a lot in our highly secularized society today, and even in most churches people don't really want to talk about it even though the gospels are full of stories of Jesus casting out demons. The things that you are going to read about below are quite disturbing. Before the Internet, most people were simply not going to be exposed to these types of things because they weren't about to pop up on the evening news or during prime time television programs. But today, thanks to YouTube, things that happen to ordinary people on the other side of the planet can quickly go viral and be spread all over the planet.

For example, the first incident that I want to share with you comes from Thailand.

Kerry: We Will Meet Obama's Goal of Admitting 10,000 Syrian Refugees by Sept. 30

By Patrick Goodenough | July 13, 2016 | 1:47 AM EDT

(CNSNews.com) – The Obama administration will meet its target of settling 10,000 Syrian refugees in the United States by the time fiscal year 2016 ends on September 30, Secretary of State John Kerry announced on Tuesday night.

Addressing an end-of-Ramadan Eid al-Fitr reception at the State Department, Kerry noted that the 10,000 figure would be a six-fold increase in Syrian refugee admissions from FY 2015.

"Tonight, I can announce proudly that we will meet President Obama's goal of welcoming 10,000 Syrian refugees to the United States in the current fiscal year," he said.

"Those are refugees, which is different from normal process of migration and green card and becoming a citizen and so forth. It's a very different category," Kerry added. "It's also representing six-fold increase over what we did the year before."

Three police officers were fatally shot in Baton Rouge, La., and three others were wounded, according to officials, in what one witness described as a fusillade of dozens of shots shattering the calm of a Sunday morning.

President Obama condemned the attack, which came just 10 days after a gunman killed five police officers in Dallas — and 12 days after police in Baton Rouge fatally shot 37-year-old Alton Sterling while he was pinned to the ground. Police have said the officers, who were white, thought Sterling, who was black, was reaching for a gun in the July 5 shooting. Sterling's funeral was Friday.

Mass Exodus Of Jews Planning To Flee France After Nice Attack

18 JULY, 2016

The recent terror attack in France has sparked concern in the Jewish People of France. According to a recent report from the International Fellowship of Christians and Jews (The Fellowship), the main organization helping Jews of France immigrate to Israel (make aliyah), has received thousands of recent inquiries from French Jews seeking to go to Israel and expects that number to climb following the terror that struck Nice. The Fellowship in June brought 82 Jews from across France to Israel, and, additionally, is preparing to bring more than 150 to Israel this

War Is Coming And The Global Financial Situation Is A Lot Worse Than You May Think

By Michael Snyder, on July 13th, 2016

On the surface, things seem pretty quiet in mid-July 2016. The biggest news stories are about the speculation surrounding Donald Trump's choice of running mate, the stock market in the U.S. keeps setting new all-time record highs, and the media seems completely obsessed with Taylor Swift's love life. But underneath the surface, it is a very different story. As you will see below, the conditions for a "perfect storm" are coming together very rapidly, and the rest of 2016 promises to be much more chaotic than what we have seen so far.

Let's start with China. On Tuesday, an international tribunal in the Hague ruled against China's territorial claims in the South China Sea. The Chinese government announced ahead of time that they do not recognize the jurisdiction of the tribunal, and they have absolutely no intention of abiding by the ruling. In fact, China is becoming even more defiant in the aftermath of this ruling. We aren't hearing much about it in the U.S. media, but according to international news reports Chinese president Xi Jinping has ordered the People's Liberation Army "to prepare for combat" with the United States if the Obama administration presses China to abandon the islands that they are

Seagate Expands Job Cuts to 6,500 as PC-Component Market Suffers

by Ian King

July 11, 2016 — 3:00 PM MDT

Seagate Technology Plc, a maker of disk drives for computer storage, expanded plans to cut jobs to 14 percent of the workforce, seeking to reduce costs to weather a prolonged slump in demand.

The company will eliminate about 6,500 positions by the end of fiscal 2017, according to a statement. Cupertino, California-based Seagate had previously indicated workforce cuts of about 3 percent, or 1,600 jobs, and the stock rallied as much as 13 percent on news of the broader restructuring. The moves will result in pretax charges of about $164 million next year.

ABC Show Suggests The Church Is To Blame For Most Of The World's Atrocities

12 JULY, 2016

Hollywood and the Media has a way of getting their message out to the masses by using movies, tv shows and even cartoons. Here is the latest where it appears ABC wants to let you know who the blame is for the world's "atrocities". ABC's Mistresses episode "What Happens in Vegas" delves into parenthood and religion in a surprising way. April (Rochelle Aytes) tries to get her 14-year-old daughter Lucy to come with her to the annual church fundraiser, but the teenager rebels against her mother, or as she calls her, "Mussolini in a maxi dress." Lucy says she used to like church but now she knows what it really represents—"Most of the world's atrocities are committed under the name of religion"—and she can no longer support it.

12 JULY, 2016

A single anonymous complaint is forcing a New York school district to cover a cross hanging on the side of a school building. The large cement cross hangs outside South Richmond High School in Staten Island, a school well-known for serving special needs children. The building used to be a Christian orphanage dating back to the 1950s, but now the school leases it from the Catholic Diocese.

Prestonwood Baptist Church's youth choir

Commentators in Scotland are aghast that a youth choir from a Christian church in America was allowed to perform at a shopping center in Edinburgh, comparing the young people from Texas to Nazis and ISIS.

"What message does it send when a shopping center welcomes this kind of musical Trojan horse into a Scottish city, and where do we draw the line?" wrote Shona Craven, a columnist for The Herald and The National newspapers in Scotland.

The 100-member choir is from Prestonwood Baptist Church in Plano, Texas, which is part of the Visitors roam around a replica Noah's Ark as rain clouds pass overhead at the Ark Encounter theme park during a media preview day, Tuesday, July 5, 2016, in Williamstown, Ky. The long-awaited theme park based on the story of a man who got a warning from God about a worldwide flood will debut in central Kentucky this Thursday. The Christian group behind the 510 foot-long wooden ark says it will demonstrate that the stories of the Bible are true. Its construction has rankled opponents who say the attraction will be detrimental to science education. (AP Photo/John Minchillo)

CBS This Morning reporter Mark Strassmann on Thursday offered a sneering, condescending look at a new biblical theme park attraction in Kentucky. Speaking of the gigantic Noah's Ark Experience, Strassmann dismissed, "Nothing like it built before. But critics wonder why it was even built at all."

Using the liberal reporter dodge of "critics say," Strassmann attacked the man behind the modern ark, Ken Ham: "What do you say to critics saying this is not the truth? This is not scientifically based. This is promoting an ignorant view."

Church members in China have been threatened with being sued and their children barred from college, a persecution charity has said.

According to Texas-based China Aid, parents who attend Huaqiu Church, a house church in central Guizhou province, were told if they didn't stop bringing their children to church, they would not be allowed to attend college or a military academy.

In addition, anyone who brings a minor to church will be sued.

Huaqiu Church leader, Mou, said a notice detailing these rules was sent to all the schools in the local town. "They intend to cleanse us and ask us to join the Three-Self Church [China's state-approved church]", he explained.

The church has also been prevented from holding its Sunday services over the past two weeks. "Huaqiu is in a dark place," Mou said.

A church sued over Iowa's state transgender policy when officials asserted they had authority to control the content of pastor's sermons.

Limited time.

Now the church has filed a request for an immediate protective order in response to the state's claim of authority to define what is religious.

The case is over the aggressive actions by the Iowa Civil Rights Commission, which has published guidelines for handling transgender issues in church gatherings that are "open to the public."

Shocking Poll Shows Most Americans Find Nothing Wrong With Changing Sexes

15 JULY, 2016

Most Americans see nothing morally wrong with gender change, LifeWay Research finds. Six in 10 Americans don't think it's wrong for people to identify with a gender different from their birth sex, according to the Nashville-based research organization. And more than half don't think it's wrong to switch genders by taking hormones or having surgery.

The findings indicate most Americans don't see moral significance in being born male or female, said Scott McConnell, executive director of LifeWay Research. "A majority of Americans reject the view of a creator giving them a gender that shouldn't be changed," he said. "We freely change many things about ourselves—we have cosmetic surgery, we use teeth whitener, we dye our hair,

Teachers are being told to call transgender children 'zie' rather than 'he' or 'she' to avoid giving offence under new official guidelines.

The Boarding Schools Association has told teachers to learn a 'new language' as part of official guidance which is aimed at 'queering the education system'.

The advice aims to help teachers navigate the 'minefield' of gender identity and deal with children and young adults who do not want to be referred to by male or female pronouns.

As part of it teachers have been told to address children by their 'pronoun of choice', including they or 'zie'.

Alex Thompson, deputy chief executive of the Boarding Schools' Association, said the guidelines hope to help school staff who may be 'in the dark'.
