اكرر اننا لا نحدد مواعيد بل فقط نشجع بعضنا بعضا بقرب مجيء المسيح

وأیضا لا اقصد ان اخيف أحد بل من يخاف هو لا يثق في مواعيد الرب

هدفي فقط أن نذكر بعضنا باننا نحتاج ان نستعد. والاستعداد ليس فقط قبل مجيء المسيح بل

ايضا قبل الظلمة التي ستسبق مجيؤه ليكون عندنا زيت في مصابيحنا يكفي ان نعبر هذه الظلمة

وتكون مصابيحنا مضيئة وقت مجيؤه او من منا سيسلم وديعته في أي وقت. بمعنى نحتاج من

الان ان نستعد بقوة بأيمان عامل وبتنقية القلب وان نثمر بالخدمة أي نجمع زيت في مصابيحنا

لان الظلمة والضيقة اقتربت جدا ومن لن يستعد لها بزيت كافي من الان لن يجد زيت في الضيقة

لان وقتها جميع زيت سيكون صعب جدا بل أستطيع ان أقول من مثل العذارى انه لن يكون هناك

زيت الا ما جمعته سابقا.

أفضل ان اقول لنفسي ولكم استعدوا الان لأنه اقرب فنكون مستعدين سواء جاء او نحن ان
سلمنا وديعتنا عن أنى لا اقول انه اقرب لكيلا يقال عني كاذب وانشر اشاعات ولكنه يأتي بسرعة
بغته. لا اعتقد اي أحد ندم لأنه كان مستعد ومنتظر مجيء المسيح ولم يأتي المسيح في زمنه
ولكنه انتقل وهو مستعد ولكن كثيرين جدا ندموا على عدم الاستعداد عندما انتقلوا

المسيح قال بعض العلامات مثل

انجيل لوقا 21

21: 10 ثم قال لهم تقوم امة على امة ومملكة على مملكة

21: 11 وتكون زلازل عظيمة في اماكن ومجاعات واوبئة وتكون مخاوف وعلامات عظيمة من

السماء

21: 25 وتكون علامات في الشمس والقمر والنجوم وعلى الارض كرب امم بحيرة البحر والامواج

تضج

21: 26 والناس يغطى عليهم من خوف وانتظار ما يأتي على المسكونة لان قوات السماوات

تزعزع

21: 27 وحينئذ يبصرون ابن الانسان اتيا في سحابة بقوة و مجد كثير

سفر اعمال الرسل 2

2: 19 واعطي عجائب في السماء من فوق وآيات على الارض من أسفل دما ونارا وبخار دخان

2: 20 تتحول الشمس الى ظلمة والقمر الى دم قبل ان يجيء يوم الرب العظيم الشهير

2: 21 ويكون كل من يدعو باسم الرب يخلص

لماذا قال المسيح بعض العلامات؟

أولا لكيلا نرتاع

انجيل متى 24

مت 24: 6 وسوف تسمعون بحروب واخبار حروب لا ترتاعوا لأنه لا بد ان تكون هذه

كلها ولكن ليس المنتهى بعد

ثانيا لنؤمن

إنجيل يوحنا 14: 29

وَقُلْتُ لَكُمْ الْآنَ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَكُونَ، حَتَّى مَتَى كَأَن تُوْمِنُونَ.

ثالثا لننتبه ونستعد

انجيل لوقا 21

28 وَمَتَى ابْتَدَأَتْ هَذِهِ تَكُونُ، فَاَنْتَصِبُوا وَاَرْفَعُوا رُؤُوسَكُمْ لِأَنَّ نَجَاتَكُمْ تَقْتَرِبُ».

June was Earth's 14th straight record

Gerald Ford was president and the nation was celebrating its bicentennial the last time the Earth had a cooler-than-average June, and this past June was the Earth's hottest since weather records began in 1880, a report made public Tuesday by the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) found.

A separate climate report from NASA, also released Tuesday, confirmed the NOAA data.

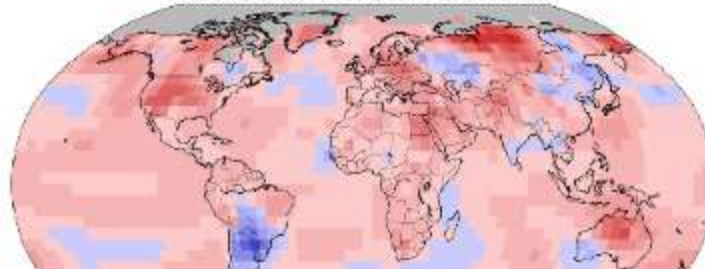

June marked the 14th straight month of record-setting heat, the planet's longest such streak in NOAA's 137 years of record keeping. Data from both NOAA and NASA indicate the Earth is well on its way to its warmest year on record.

Man-made climate change is the underlying cause of the record warmth, but the El Niño climate pattern in the tropical Pacific also boosted global temperatures beginning in October, NASA's Gavin Schmidt, a climate scientist, said in a statement.

Even without El Niño, temperatures in first six months of 2016 would have hit records, Schmidt said.

Hundreds of homes evacuated as wildfire spreads north of Los Angeles

July 23, 2016

LOS ANGELES (Reuters) - A fast-moving wildfire that has already blackened some 11,000 acres (4,450 hectares) of drought-parched land northwest of Los Angeles was threatening some 1,000 structures on Saturday, fire officials said.

The so-called "Sand Fire" broke out shortly after 2 p.m. on Friday afternoon and spread quickly near Santa Clarita, about 40 miles (65 km) northwest of the city, forcing the evacuation of some 300 people.

It has nearly tripled in size in less than a day and was only 10 percent contained.

"Because this is the fifth year of an ongoing drought we have a lot dry vegetation," Los Angeles County Fire Chief Daryl Osby told a news conference. "Some of these fuels, they haven't burned in decades. This fire has increased to about 11,000 acres just overnight."

One firefighter sustained a minor injury but as of Saturday morning no structures

- Nearly 1,700 firefighters are battling the blaze by air and ground which is at 20 percent containment
- Authorities say the body of a man was found at the scene of the fire outside a home in Santa Clarita
- Detectives are working to determine whether the man was killed by the fire or died of another cause

Smaller quakes in Berkeley could signal 'Big One' is coming

BY SOUMYA KARLAMANGLA | SENIOR STAFF

LAST UPDATED OCTOBER 27, 2011

The earthquake that rattled Berkeley early Thursday morning, the ninth tremor in a little over a week, could signal that more quakes, and maybe even the "Big One," are on their way.

The string of quakes in Berkeley on the Hayward Fault began with a magnitude 4.0 quake last Thursday afternoon. Although the "swarm" — multiple earthquakes of similar magnitudes that occur in a short time span — may be an isolated incident, it could foretell the coming of a larger quake, according to Jack Boatwright, a seismologist with the U.S. Geological Survey.

Typically, earthquakes occur in a main shock-aftershock sequence, with the first quake — the main shock — about a magnitude unit greater than the aftershocks. But the earthquakes over the past eight days have had relatively similar magnitudes and no clear decline in energy. The quake Thursday was stronger than many that preceded it at magnitude 3.6.

Scientists have said a quake of 6.7 magnitude or greater is imminent on the Hayward Fault, which runs directly under the UC Berkeley campus. The past five large quakes have occurred 140 years apart on average, and since the last was in 1868, the next large quake is overdue.

Smaller quakes usually function as "foreshocks" and precede a large quake, according to Boatwright.

"Earthquakes don't occur out of nowhere," he said.

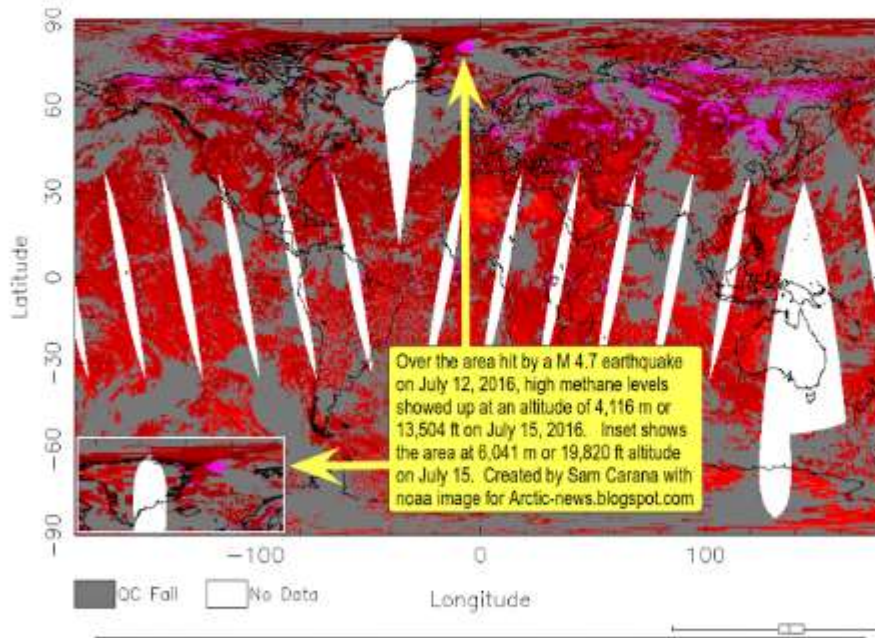

However, unless the frequency of these quakes increases, it is difficult to determine whether this month's series of earthquakes is an isolated "swarm" or a foreshock, he said.

"You don't know you have a foreshock until you have a mainshock that follows," he said. "Some

KAGOSHIMA — The Sakurajima volcano in Kyushu Japan had an explosive eruption early Tuesday, spewing volcanic ash 5,000 meters into the sky, the Japan Meteorological Agency said.

It is the first eruption projecting to such an altitude since August 2013 for the volcano within kilometers of downtown Kagoshima, a city of 606,000 and major shipping port in southwestern Japan.

The agency maintains its alert level for Sakurajima at 3, which warns people not to get close to the volcano, on a scale of 5.

A photographer captured incredible footage of a Hawaiian volcano's lava flow as it engulfed a forest.

The aerial video shows Kilauea's lava sweeping over a forest as it flows down its slopes in the rugged Hawaii Volcanoes National Park on July 9. In the video, the crackle of the burning wood can be heard as the photographer captures different angles of the snaking lava.

The Puu Oo vent of the active Kilauea volcano has seen recent and ongoing eruptions of lava across the volcano's south flank toward the Ocean.

Lava from Kilauea advanced along the flatter coastal plain, a little less than a mile from the ocean.

Visitors can view the lava flow at the Kalapana Lava Viewing Area at the end of Highway 130, near the eastern edge of the national park, and have the chance to enjoy a good look at the lava.

Kilauea is one of the world's most active volcanoes.

It is a shield-type volcano that makes up the southeastern side of the Big Island of Hawaii, according to Live Science.

The volcano rises 4,190 feet above sea level and is about 14 per cent of the land area of the Big Island.

PUNALUU, OAHU (HawaiiNewsNow) - Sudden, intense downpours brought by Tropical Storm Darby triggered flash floods across Oahu Sunday night, but the storm is not to blame for creating a giant sinkhole in Punaluu, officials say.

Images show Punaluu Valley Road off Kamehameha Highway split apart by the deep sinkhole.

Residents say they are unable to get in our out, except on foot. And they have been without water since the sinkhole opened up on Sunday.

The Board of Water Supply is on scene and says the problem occurred when a pipe in the area burst before the severe weather picked up.

Nations across west and central Africa are on high alert as the highly pathogenic avian influenza strain H5N1 tears through the region with devastating effect.

Cameroon has become the latest African country to detect an outbreak of avian influenza (AI) and neighbouring countries – Nigeria, Central African Republic, Equatorial Guinea, Republic of the Congo and Chad – fear for their poultry production.

Cameroon's economy has lost close to $20m as a direct result of the H5N1 strain.

Nigeria is already reeling from a devastating bird flu crisis with 750 outbreaks that resulted in the deaths of 3.5m birds. Burkina Faso, Côte d'Ivoire, Ghana and Niger are also reported to have detected the H5N1 strain.

Nato must prepare for 'overnight Russian invasion of Poland' and the US must ship more missiles to the region, say experts

- Russia's annexation of Crimea in 2014 has made Poland and the Baltic states nervous about the aggressive intentions of the Bear next door

By CHRIS SUMMERS FOR MAILONLINE

The Russians could invade Poland 'overnight' and the US needs to do more to beef up Nato defences in the area and send more missiles to the region to deter Moscow.

A 25-page document by the US-based Atlantic Council think tank says Nato needs to do more to 'counter a resurgent Russia'.

The report says: 'Even if Moscow currently has no immediate intent to challenge Nato directly, this may unexpectedly change overnight and can be implemented with great speed, following already prepared plans. The capability to do so is, to a large extent, in place.'

It says the timing of a Russian invasion could not be predicted but it could come as a result of Nato being 'distracted by another crisis' or as a reaction to a 'misperception of Nato's activities'.

In a telephone conversation with Iranian President Hassan Rouhani on Tuesday, Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan expressed his willingness to cooperate closely with Iran and Russia "to settle regional crises and restore peace and stability to the region." But what do Russian political analysts make of the Turkish leader's proposals?

As expected, the main topic of discussion between the Iranian and Turkish leaders during Tuesday's phone call was the failed military coup attempt that rocked Ankara on Friday night. Rouhani emphasized that Iran welcomed the return of stability in Turkey, and praised "the great maturity of the Turkish people, who showed during this coup attempt that strong-arm tactics have no place in our region."

North Korea's state radio has recently broadcast strings of indecipherable numbers in a possible move echoing a Cold War-era method of sending coded messages to spies operating in South Korea.

A female announcer at the radio station read numbers for two minutes on June 24 and 14 minutes on Friday, according to Seoul's Unification Ministry and National Intelligence Service, including phrases such as 'turn to page 459, question 35' in what she described as a mathematics assignment.

During the Cold War, Pyongyang sent such numbers via shortwave radio to give missions to agents dispatched to South Korea, according to captured North Korean spies.

As GOP trashes China, Beijing warns of potential war with U.S.

Patrick Winn, GlobalPost

There's never an ideal time to antagonize the world's largest army. But this week — when China is seething over perceived American aggression — is a particularly bad moment to rile up Beijing.

Yet that's exactly what the U.S. Republican Party is doing. At its ongoing convention in Cleveland, led by nominee Donald Trump, the party is doubling down on China bashing.

According to the new Republican platform, China is guilty of "cultural genocide," "barbaric population control" and a state-backed "hostile takeover" of American businesses.

Worse yet, China's military is growing more intimidating thanks to — you guessed it — the “complacency of the Obama regime.”

This bluster comes at an extremely tense moment in US-China relations.

Last week, an international tribunal at The Hague sided with the United States and eviscerated one of China's most contentious claims of sovereignty.

For years, Beijing has insisted that practically all of the South China Sea — a vital waterway that supports one-third of the world's shipping trade — is the "blue national soil" of China.

Unsurprisingly, other nations who look upon the sea from their shores (namely Vietnam and the Philippines) have never agreed.

The U.S. has urged both Vietnam and the Philippines to stand tall against China. All the while, the U.S. military has deployed its superior fleet of drones and warships into the sea to scare China into submission.

Human DNA Sent Into Space To 'Back-Up' Species So We're Never Extinct

21 JULY, 2016

As fears mount the humanity's time on Earth is limited, scientists are making contingency plans by setting up a cosmic CLOUD of human data. As it stands, experts neither have the technological capability or the knowledge of how to mass-transfer the human race to a nearby habitable planet – with the closest being 14 light years away (one light year is equal to 5,878,499,810,000 miles).

This is why some are looking at the possibility of using the Universe as a sort of 'cosmic cloud' to back up data on the human race for when we do meet our inevitable end. The Cyberspace Administration of China imposed the ban on several major news portals, including Sohu.com Inc. and NetEase Inc., Chinese media reported in identically worded articles citing an unidentified official from the agency's Beijing office. ## 19.4 Trillion Dollars In Debt – We Have Added 1.1 Trillion Dollars A Year To The National Debt Under Obama

By Michael Snyder, on July 20th, 2016

In 2006, U.S. Senator Barack Obama's voice thundered across the Senate floor as he boldly declared that "increasing America's debt weakens us domestically and internationally. Washington is shifting the burden of bad choices today onto the backs of our children and grandchildren." That was one of the truest things that he ever said, but just a couple of years later he won the 2008 election and he turned his back on those principles. As I write this article, the U.S. national debt is sitting at a grand total of $19,402,361,890,929.46. But when Barack Obama first entered the White House, our federal government was only 10.6 trillion dollars in debt. That means that we have added an average of 1.1 trillion dollars a year to the national debt under Obama, and we still have about six more months to go.

Even though Barack Obama is on track to be the first president in all of U.S. history to not have a single year when the U.S. economy grew by 3 percent or better, many have still been mystified by the fact that the economy has been relatively stable in recent years.

But the explanation is rather simple, actually. Anyone can live like a millionaire if the credit card companies will lend them enough money. You could even do it yourself. Just go out and apply for as many credit cards as possible and then spend money like

PEMBROKE, Ga.

— A prominent professing atheist organization is seeking the removal of a Christian flag from a county courthouse in Georgia out of its assertion that its presence is unconstitutional.

The Wisconsin-based Freedom From Religion Foundation (FFRF) sent a letter on July 6 to the clerk of courts at the Bryan County Courthouse to demand that the flag be ejected from the courtroom. The flag—a white and blue flag with a red cross first created in 1897 to honor the Christian faith—sits in the corner by the judge's bench.

"It has been said that the white in the flag represents the biblical conceptions of purity, the blue in the flag represents the baptism in water, and the red color of the cross is symbolic of the sacrifice Jesus Christ made when He was crucified," attorney Elizabeth Cavell wrote.

A Dutch Christian charity had its government funding withdrawn after pressure from MPs over its opposition to active homosexual relationships.

Government minister Jet Bussemaker said Hart van Homo's would not receive further government money after the Netherlands' ruling Party for Freedom and Democracy argued the charity, which encourages celibacy for gay Christians, sent out the wrong message.

Hart van Homo's, which roughly translates as "heart for gays", says gay Christians should "opt for friendship without a sexual relationship". It represents a number of organisations which aim to create more acceptance of homosexuality within churches.

The government U-turn came after Hart van Homo's was revealed to have received state money through an umbrella foundation, LCC+, which represents a number of organisations that aim to create more acceptance of homosexuality within churches. At first Bussemaker said she was confident the charity would not proscribe how gay Christians should live their lives. But now the minister has stopped funding the LCC+ foundation. She has asked them to submit a new application without Hart van Homo's.

"This is a question of principle, not money," one Labour MP Keklik Yücel said. "Should we be subsidising an organisation which conflicts with emancipation?"

The Gospel Coalition

The charity has insisted it will carry on its objectives despite the funding cut.

In a court decision that takes euthanasia – the deliberate killing of people sometimes with their approval – to an entirely new level, judges in Belgium have ordered a nursing home to pay a fine and damages to the family for refusing to allow a fatal injection for a patient.

"It is now black and white that an institution cannot intervene in an agreement between doctor and patients," Sylvie Tack, a lawyer for the family of the 74-year-old woman told Catholic Herald.

The case developed for the St. Augustine rest home, a Catholic facility, in Diest when Mariette Buntjens, reportedly agreed to euthanasia with her doctor.

However, the rest home officials refused to allow the procedure, so the woman instead was moved to a private address where shortly later she

Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau has announced a bill that would criminalize anti-transgender speech, with violators receiving up to two years in prison.

The new bill, introduced May 17 on the International Day Against Homophobia, Transphobia and Biphobia, aims to amend the Canadian Criminal Code to expand the country's "hate speech" prohibitions to include any public speech or communication that "promotes hatred" on the basis of "gender identity" or "gender expression." It would also change the Canadian Human Rights Act to cover transgender people.

PHILADELPHIA—The Democratic National Convention has turned a women's restroom into an "all-gender" bathroom at the Wells Fargo Arena.

The all-gender bathroom is one of the ways the DNC is infusing its party platform into the arena accommodations. The arena also has a "gluten-free zone" and garbage cans are categorized by landfill, recycling, and compost.

A DNC

volunteer told the Washington Free Beacon that there is only one all-gender restroom to accommodate transgender individuals.

The change leaves female convention goers with one fewer bathroom than male attendees.

No transgender individuals were spotted using the restroom, but it was being used by both male and female reporters, as well as some cameramen. The bathroom is closest to the media section of the arena.
