اكرر اننا لا نحدد مواعيد بل فقط نشجع بعضنا بعضا بقرب مجيء المسيح

وأیضا لا اقصد ان اخيف أحد بل من يخاف هو لا يثق في مواعيد الرب

هدفي فقط أن نذكر بعضنا باننا نحتاج ان نستعد. والاستعداد ليس فقط قبل مجيء المسيح بل

ايضا قبل الظلمة التي ستسبق مجيؤه ليكون عندنا زيت في مصابيحنا يكفي ان نعبر هذه الظلمة

وتكون مصابيحنا مضيئة وقت مجيؤه او من منا سيسلم وديعته في أي وقت. بمعنى نحتاج من

الان ان نستعد بقوة بأيمان عامل وبتنقية القلب وان نثمر بالخدمة أي نجمع زيت في مصابيحنا

لان الظلمة والضيقة اقتربت جدا ومن لن يستعد لها بزيت كافي من الان لن يجد زيت في الضيقة

لان وقتها جميع زيت سيكون صعب جدا بل أستطيع ان أقول من مثل العذاري انه لن يكون هناك

زيت الا ما جمعته سابقا.

أفضل ان اقول لنفسي ولكم استعدوا الان لأنه اقترب فنكون مستعدين سواء جاء او نحن ان
سلمنا وديعتنا عن أنى لا اقول انه اقترب لكيلا يقال عني كاذب وانشر اشاعات ولكنه يأتي بسرعة
بغته. لا اعتقد اي أحد ندم لأنه كان مستعد ومنتظر مجيء المسيح ولم يأتي المسيح في زمنه
ولكنه انتقل وهو مستعد ولكن كثيرين جدا ندموا على عدم الاستعداد عندما انتقلوا

المسيح قال بعض العلامات مثل

انجيل لوقا 21

21: 10 ثم قال لهم تقوم امة على امة ومملكة على مملكة

21: 11 وتكون زلازل عظيمة في اماكن ومجاعات واوبئة وتكون مخاوف وعلامات عظيمة من

السماء

21: 25 وتكون علامات في الشمس والقمر والنجوم وعلى الارض كرب امم بحيرة البحر والامواج

تضج

21: 26 والناس يغطى عليهم من خوف وانتظار ما يأتي على المسكونة لان قوات السماوات

تزعزع

21: 27 وحينئذ يبصرون ابن الانسان اتيا في سحابة بقوة و مجد كثير

سفر اعمال الرسل 2

2: 19 واعطي عجائب في السماء من فوق وآيات على الارض من أسفل دما ونارا وبخار دخان

2: 20 تتحول الشمس الى ظلمة والقمر الى دم قبل ان يجيء يوم الرب العظيم الشهير

2: 21 ويكون كل من يدعو باسم الرب يخلص

لماذا قال المسيح بعض العلامات؟

أولا لكيلا نرتاع

انجيل متى 24

مت 24: 6 وسوف تسمعون بحروب واخبار حروب لا ترتاعوا لأنه لا بد ان تكون هذه

كلها ولكن ليس المنتهى بعد

ثانيا لنؤمن

إنجيل يوحنا 14: 29

وَقُلْتُ لَكُمْ الْآنَ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَكُونَ، حَتَّى مَتَى كَأَن تُوْمِنُونَ.

ثالثا لننتبه ونستعد

انجيل لوقا 21

28 وَمَتَى ابْتَدَأَتْ هَذِهِ تَكُونُ، فَاَنْتَصِبُوا وَاَرْفَعُوا رُؤُوسَكُمْ لِأَنَّ نَجَاتَكُمْ تَقْتَرِبُ».

Satellites suffer mystery blackouts: Thunderstorms on the edge of space may be causing loss of GPS signals

- The European Space Agency launched its three Swarm satellites in 2013
- They have suffered regular GPS blackouts as they pass over the equator
- Scientists have traced the blackouts to thunderstorms in the ionosphere
- The findings could help develop more reliable GPS systems in the future

They were sent into orbit to measure the Earth's invisible magnetic field.

But a cluster of scientific satellites have been suffering mysterious blackouts as they circle the planet.

Scientists were left puzzled about why the three satellites launched by the European Space Agency have regularly lost their navigation signal when passing over the equator above the Atlantic Ocean.

Now they believe they may have uncovered the underlying cause of the strange loss in the GPS signal that helps control the satellites – thunderstorms high in the ionosphere.

Hurricane Matthew lashed Haiti's southwestern coast Tuesday with raging winds, driving rain and storm surge that threatened to devastate the Caribbean nation's towns and villages.

The hurricane has killed at least nine people over the past few days as it roared across the Caribbean, the Associated Press reported. This included four in the Dominican Republic, three in Haiti, one in St. Vincent and the Grenadines and one in Colombia.

The region's strongest storm in almost a decade made landfall on Haiti's Tiburon Peninsula as a Category 4 hurricane with sustained winds of 145 mph at 7 a.m., the National Hurricane Center said. It was the first major hurricane (Category 3, 4, or 5) to hit Haiti in 50 years, since Inez in 1966, Colorado State University reported.

Hurricane Matthew moved up the Atlantic coast of the U.S. Friday night, threatening some of the Southeast's most historic cities after leaving more than 1 million people without power in Florida.

Authorities in Florida confirmed four storm-related deaths late Friday. One woman was killed when a tree fell on her house in the Daytona area and another woman died when a tree came down on a camper in Putnam County. The St. Lucie County Fire Department said Friday that an elderly couple appeared to have died from carbon monoxide poisoning while running a generator.

Researchers have revealed a newly discovered fault line running parallel to the San Andreas fault in Southern California.

The new Salton Trough Fault, which runs parallel to the San Andreas Fault, could impact current seismic hazard models in the earthquake-prone region that includes the greater Los Angeles area, seismologists say.

The newly identified strike-slip fault within the Salton Sea, just west of the San Andreas Fault, is in an area where a swarm of nearly 200 small earthquakes hit last week, raising concerns they might trigger a larger earthquake on the southern San Andreas Fault.

Prolonged drought continues to haunt the livestock sector Beni. To tell the president of Federation of Ranchers of this department, Abdon Nacif, the water of the pools, the atajados and natural reservoirs are exhausted, which is causing increased mortality of cattle. In the last month, he said, deaths rose from 30,000 to 32,000 animals.

Nacif said Cerroado, Mamore, Exaltation and Iténez are the provinces that have the highest percentage of animal deaths. He said the biggest problem is lack of water. "Two rains eased, in part, feeding because the grass is green again," he said.

However, Nacif said the government sent a team of drilling water wells for the emergency, is privileging the excavation in San Ramon communities that do not have water for human consumption. He said that once meet the needs of this population, the truck will move to livestock farms to continue drilling activity.

The farmer leader said that in addition to water, the sector requires urgent provision of minerals, vitamins and antibiotics to supply the animals in the herd which records weight loss, which is dehydrated and what is suffering diseases.

Dead Bird Mystery At Weeks Bay

WEEKS BAY, AL- State wildlife officials are investigating reports of dead birds found near the mouth of Weeks Bay.

The dead birds, including seagulls, brown pelicans and great blue herons, are located near the boat launch at the end of County Road 1. We counted 17 dead birds at that location Wednesday.

Locals that fish here aren't sure what's happening and are concerned. Some have formed their own theories including illegal shootings, deadly bacteria in Weeks Bay and electrocution from

CDC Investigating Rise of Paralysis-Causing Syndrome (ABC News)

A dangerous health condition that can cause temporary or sometimes permanent paralysis appears to be on the rise in the U.S., according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

The CDC reported Monday that there have been 50 cases of acute flaccid myelitis (AFM) since the start of this year, compared with just 21 cases in all of 2015.

AFM affects the nervous system, causing damage that can result in temporary or permanent paralysis in severe cases. The syndrome has a variety of causes, including the polio virus.

Symptoms include facial droop or weakness, droopy eyelids, difficulty swallowing and slurred speech. The CDC is looking at the enterovirus D68 as a possible cause.

EMERGENCY DECLARED AFTER FLESH-EATING SCREWORMS FOUND IN FLORIDA KEYS

BY DOUGLAS MAIN ON 10/5/16 AT 7:04 PM

TECH &amp; SCIENCE

The fearsome screwworm is back. Federal officials have identified a small outbreak of the insect, also known as the New World screwworm fly (Cochliomyia hominivorax), in a population of deer and possibly some pets in Big Pine Key, Florida.

The United States Department of Agriculture's Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service confirmed that the pest has infected at least three and likely many more key deer, an endangered species that only lives on Big Pine Key and nearby islands. Local companion animals also show signs of infection, the Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services noted in a press release on October 3.

In response, the state's commission of agriculture, Adam Putnam, declared an "agricultural emergency" in Monroe County, and ordered that no animals be removed from the area. An unspecified number of deer have also been euthanized. This is the first time the screwworm has been found infecting animals in the United States in more than 30 years.

A total of 427 suspected cases of mumps are being investigated in the state, with the majority of them children, the department reported on Friday.

More than 30 schools in the state have reported one or more student contracting the mumps virus. The health department is requiring any student with a MMR (measles, mumps and rubella) vaccine exemption to stay home for at least 26 days if they were exposed to the mumps virus. If students get the MMR vaccine, they will be able to return to school immediately.

Are the U.S. and Russia on the Verge of a Major Showdown in Syria?

If the U.S. breaks off the coordination deal with Russia for their air force operations over Syria, a clash between their warplanes is inevitable.

There is a sense in Washington and Moscow alike that a military showdown between the US and Russia is inevitable – direct this time, not through proxies, like the downing of a Russian warplane by Turkish jets last year. When the big powers are in direct confrontation, minor players step aside and run for cover.

When President Barack Obama Friday, Sept. 30 attended the funeral in Jerusalem of the Israeli leader Shimon Peres, he must have realized he was only 514km as the crow flies from Aleppo, the raging crux of the escalating big-power conflict. The moment after the ceremonies ended

Moscow (AFP) - Former Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev warned on Monday that the world has reached a "dangerous point" as tensions between Russia and the United States spike over the Syria conflict.

Relations between Moscow and Washington -- already at their lowest since the Cold War over the Ukraine conflict -- have soured further in recent days as the United States pulled the plug on Syria talks and accused Russia of hacking attacks.

The Kremlin has suspended a series of nuclear pacts, including a symbolic cooperation deal to cut stocks of weapons-grade plutonium.

Iran: Any US Attack Against Assad Regime Will be 'Suicidal'

By Patrick Goodenough | October 9, 2016 | 7:37 PM EDT

(CNSNews.com) – A senior advisor to Iran's supreme leader warned Sunday that any U.S. military strike against Syria's Assad regime would be "suicidal."

"If the Americans take military action in Syria, it will be a suicidal action," said Ali Akbar Velayati, a former foreign minister who serves as foreign affairs advisor to Ayatollah Ali Khamenei.

U.S. military action in Syria would result in the third consecutive "defeat" in the region, after the military campaigns in Iraq and Afghanistan, Velayati said, adding that the defeat in Syria would be even "stronger" than in the other two cases.

His remarks were quoted by Iran Daily, a paper published by the official IRNA news agency.

Iran's was the latest response to reports indicating that the Obama administration is mulling a "kinetic" option in a bid to end the assault by the Assad regime and its Russian allies aimed at recapturing rebel-held parts of Aleppo, Syria's biggest city.

Earlier, Russia's defense ministry spokesman noted that any attack against Syrian regime military targets would put its military personnel in danger too. Maj. Gen. Igor Konashenkov underlined Russia's deployment of sophisticated surface-to-air missile defense systems and implicitly threatened to retaliate against any U.S. strike.

The failure of the two resolutions deepened divisions at the Security Council between Damascus ally Moscow and the Western powers backing opposition rebels in the war.

It was the fifth time that Russia used its veto to block UN action to end the five-year war in Syria, which has claimed 300,000 lives.

Washington (AFP) - The White House accused Israel of a betrayal of trust, in an unusually sharp rebuke over its plans to build hundreds of new settlement homes deep in the West Bank.

Days after President Barack Obama approved a $38 billion Israeli military aid package and attended former president Shimon Peres's funeral in Jerusalem, the White House railed at the construction of 300 housing units on land "far closer to Jordan than Israel."

The New York Times has demanded US President Barack Obama use his last months in office to hit Israel hard diplomatically.

Apparently, this is in response to the fact that the Israeli government "approved the construction of a new Jewish settlement in the West Bank," which is simply "another step in the steady march under Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu to build on land needed to create a Palestinian state."

Last week, the Israeli government approved a plan allowing Amona residents to move to the neighboring town of Shilo, where they would be housed in a new neighborhood on government land planned specially for them.

Israel Strikes Gaza After Rocket Fire on Israeli City

Israel carried out airstrikes on Hamas posts in the Gaza Strip after a rocket fired from the Palestinian territory landed in a street in the southern Israeli town of Sderot on Wednesday, the Israeli military said.

Tall plumes of smoke from the Israeli strikes rose up from Gaza following the rare series of airstrikes during daylight. There were at least nine Israeli airstrikes on Hamas posts and open spaces throughout the Gaza Strip, according to Palestinian eyewitnesses, but there were no reports of injuries.

In Israel, no one was wounded by the rocket fire, but it marked an unusual incident of rocket fire penetrating Israel's aerial defense system. Only a handful of projectiles have struck the previously battered town since the conclusion of a 50-day war between Israel and Gaza militants in the summer of 2014. Sirens wailed in Sderot warning of the incoming rocket, which landed near a school.

A small Islamic group that says it is inspired by, but not officially connected to, the Islamic State group, claimed responsibility for the rocket launch via a statement posted on its Twitter account. The claim could not be independently verified and the group, which calls itself Grandsons of the Companions, is not known to have carried out any previous attacks.

Since the 2014 war, a cease-fire has largely held. But militants in Gaza occasionally launch rockets toward Israel. Israel holds Gaza's Hamas rulers responsible for all attacks emanating from the territory. Israeli army spokesman Lt. Col. Peter Lerner said the rocket fire was "the direct result of Hamas' terror agenda in the Gaza Strip that encourages deliberate attacks against Israeli civilians."

"We condemn the Israeli escalation against the Gaza Strip," Hamas said in a statement. "We can't stand idle if it continues."

FREE SPEECH CRACKDOWN: EU orders British press NOT to reveal when terrorists are Muslims

MEDDLING Brussels has said the British press should not report when terrorists are Muslims in a slew of demands to the Government to crack down on the media.

The ECRI suggested the British press should not report when terrorists are Muslims

A report from the European Commission against Racism and Intolerance (ECRI) found there was an increase in hate speech and racist violence in the UK from 2009 to March 2016.

Blaming the press, ECRI Chair Christian Ahlund, said: "It is no coincidence that racist violence is on the rise in the UK at the same time as we see worrying examples of intolerance and hate speech in the newspapers, online and even among politicians."

The report makes a whopping 23 recommendations to Theresa May's Government for changes to criminal law, the freedom of the press, crime reporting and equality law.

SAN FRANCISCO (Reuters) - Yahoo Inc last year secretly built a custom software program to search all of its customers' incoming emails for specific information provided by U.S. intelligence officials, according to people familiar with the matter.

The company complied with a classified U.S. government demand, scanning hundreds of millions of Yahoo Mail accounts at the behest of the National Security Agency or FBI, said three former employees and a fourth person apprised of the events.

Some surveillance experts said this represents the first case to surface of a U.S. Internet company agreeing to an intelligence agency's request by searching all arriving messages, as opposed to examining stored messages or scanning a small number of accounts in real time.

It is not known what information intelligence officials were looking for, only that

Bank of America has a recession warning that's downright 'scary'

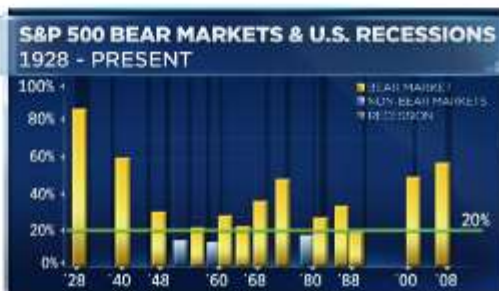

by CNBC October 09, 2016

There's a chilling trend in the market, and it could wreak havoc on your portfolio, a top market watcher said.

"We are seven years into a full-fledged, all out, central bankers doing everything they can to stimulate demand," Bank of America-Merrill Lynch's head of U.S. equity and quantitative strategy Savita Subramanian recently warned on CNBC's "Fast Money."

"We looked at all of these indicators that have been pretty good at forecasting recessions and we extrapolated that if they follow the current trends they're on, we're going to hit a recession sometime in the second half of next year."

The most unsettling thing is that this recession risk isn't discounted into the market at these levels, according to Subramanian.

Selling uniforms for food, Venezuela oil workers feel the pinch

 REUTERS | October 05, 2016

By Alexandra Ulmer

MARACAIBO, Venezuela (Reuters) - For decades, jobs at Venezuela's state-run oil giant PDVSA were coveted for above average salaries, generous benefits and cheap credit that brought home ownership and vacationing abroad within reach for many workers.

Now, in Venezuela's asphyxiating economy, even PDVSA employees are struggling to pay for everything from food and bus rides to school fees as triple-digit inflation eats away incomes.

They are pawning goods, maxing out credit cards, taking side jobs, and even selling PDVSA uniforms to buy food, according to Reuters' interviews with two dozen workers, family members, and union leaders.

"Every day a PDVSA worker comes to sell his overall," said Elmer, a hawker at the biggest market in the oil city of Maracaibo, as shoppers eyed pricey rice and flour imported from neighboring Colombia.

"They also sell boots, trousers, gloves and masks."

The bulk of PDVSA's roughly 150,000 workers make from $35 to $150 a month plus some $90 dollars in food tickets, as calculated at the black market exchange rate. It is still more than many Venezuelans, but not enough, employees say.

"Sometimes we let the kids sleep in until noon to save on breakfast," said a maintenance worker who works on the shores of Maracaibo Lake, Venezuela's traditional oil-producing area near the Colombian border. He said he has lost five kilos (11 lb) this year because of scrimping on food.

The toll of the economic crisis is fueling worker disillusionment, absenteeism, and a brain drain and is hurting efficiency in the industry which produces more than 90 percent of Venezuela's export revenue.

Deutsche Bank Collapse: The Most Important Bank In Europe Is Facing A Major 'Liquidity Event'

By Michael Snyder, on September 30th, 2016

The largest and most important bank in the largest and most important economy in Europe is imploding right in front of our eyes. Deutsche Bank is the 11th biggest bank on the entire planet, and due to the enormous exposure to derivatives that it has, it has been called "the world's most dangerous bank". Over the past year, I have repeatedly warned that Deutsche Bank is heading for disaster and is a likely candidate to be "the next Lehman Brothers". If you would like to review, you can do so here, here and here. On September 16th, the Wall Street Journal reported that the U.S. Department of Justice wanted 14 billion dollars from Deutsche Bank to settle a case related to the mis-handling of mortgage-backed securities during the last financial crisis. As a result of that announcement, confidence in the bank has been greatly shaken, the stock price has fallen to record lows, and analysts are warning that Deutsche Bank may be facing a "liquidity event" unlike anything that we have seen since the collapse of Lehman Brothers back in 2008.

At one point on Friday, Deutsche Bank stock fell below the 10 euro mark for the first time ever before bouncing back a bit. A completely unverified rumor that was spreading on Twitter that claimed that Deutsche Bank would settle with the Department of Justice for only 5.4 billion dollars was the reason for the bounce.

But the size of the fine is not really the issue now. Shares of Deutsche Bank have fallen by more than half so far in 2016, and this latest episode seems to have been the final straw for the deeply troubled financial institution. Old sources of liquidity are being cut off, and nobody wants to be the idiot that offers Deutsche Bank a new source of liquidity at this point.

Disappointing 156,000 jobs added in September

Paul Davidson, USA TODAY

The private sector added 154,000 jobs in September, processor ADP said Wednesday, fueling speculation that the government this week will report a second straight month of tepid employment growth. USA TODAY

Payroll growth was disappointing for a second straight month in September as employers added 156,000 jobs, which raised questions about the health of an economy that was expected to perk up from a prolonged slump in the second half of the year.

(Photo: Alan Diaz, AP)

The unemployment rate rose to 5% from 4.9%, the Labor Department said Friday, as a rise in employment was more than offset by a sharp increase in the labor force, or the number of Americans working and looking for jobs.

Economists surveyed by Bloomberg had forecast 172,000 payroll gains.

Businesses added 167,000 jobs, led by professional and business services and health care. Federal, state and local governments cut 11,000.

Nearly 7 in 10 Americans have less than $1,000 in savings

Sean Williams, The Motley Fool 1:03 p.m. EDT October 9, 2016

Nearly 7 in 10 Americans have less than $1,000 in savings - Here are six tips. USA TODAY

America's spend-first mentality is a genuine concern.

The U.S. is often referred to as the land of economic opportunity. Apparently, it's also the land of consumption and "spend everything you've got."

We don't have to look far for confirmation that Americans are generally poor savers. Every month the St. Louis Federal Reserve releases data on personal household savings rates. In July 2016, the personal savings rate was just 5.7%. Comparatively, personal savings rates in the U.S. 50 years ago were double where they are today, and nearly all developed countries have a higher personal savings rate than the United States. In other words, Americans are saving less of their income than they should be — the recommendation is to save between 10% and 15% of your annual income — and they're being forced to do more with less in terms of investing.

It may be a new world of instant communications, abundant travel choices and increasing global awareness, but China still is hotly pursuing its last-century agenda of cracking down on Christians, according to a new report.

China Aid's "China's Religious Persecution Report (2015-2016)" concludes the nation is "regress[ing] into a more Maoist regime" and is cracking down more on faith, even to the point of attacking its own state-run church network, the Three-Self Church.

"China continuously violates its own laws and international statutes safeguarding religious freedom in favor of promoting a socialist agenda, forcing religious devotees to choose between certain persecution and disregarding their deeply held beliefs," the report says.

Christians Threatened With Prison For Refusing To Print Gay Wedding Invites

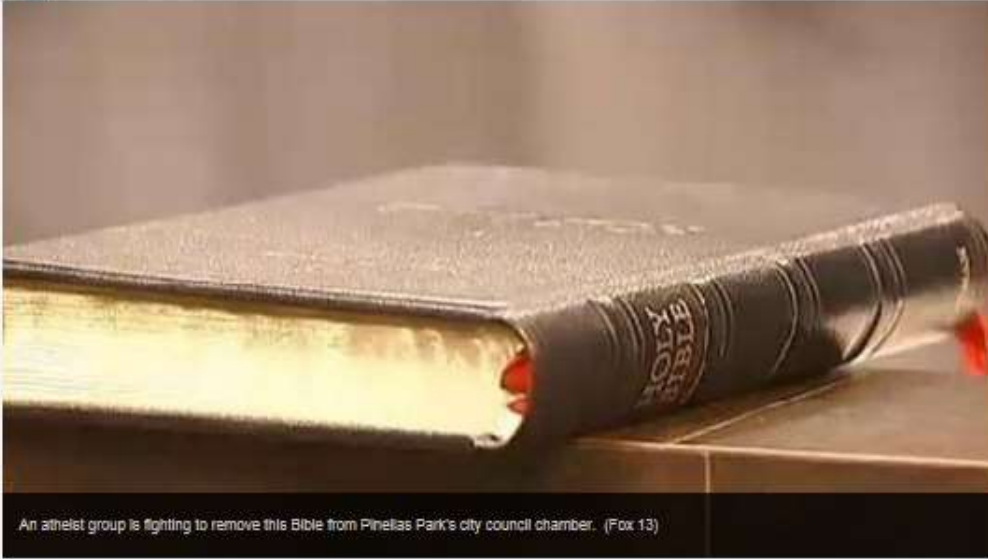

5 OCTOBER, 2016

Two Christian business owners in the U.S. are faced with imprisonment and fines after refusing to use their artistic talents to create invitations for a same-sex wedding. Graphic designers Joanna and Breanna run a stationery company called Brush & Nib Studio that makes invitations for different events, including weddings. Their story is the latest in a series of legal cases in the U.S. where Christians are being forced to comply with pro-LGBT laws.

University Distributes Seven-Page Speech Guide

4 OCTOBER, 2016

Student leaders of this year's freshman orientation at James Madison University were given a list of 35 things they should avoid saying, including phrases such as "you have such a pretty face," "love the sinner, hate the sin," "we're all part of the human race," "I treat all people the same," "it was only a joke," "I never owned slaves," and "people just need to pick themselves up by their bootstraps," among other expressions.

God created a massive dust storm to deliver Islamic converts from the militants who hunted them, according to a recent report.

Bibles For Mideast claims the organization had just finished a mass baptism for 50 newly saved Christians when militants surrounded their bus and fired shots.

"About 50 people including baptism candidates attend the service. We all went by a bus. After the baptism service and prayers, we all entered the bus to return back in our house church for the worship service and the Lord's Supper. The bus was moved. Suddenly some militants reached behind us by three or more cars and started shooting with guns toward us," a new believer said, according to the report.

The new converts and their leaders feared the worst.

That's when the wind started to pick up, and dust began to swirl around them.

Pentagon Issues Transgender Handbook for Military Service Members

Get your pronouns straight (no pun intended).

10.4.2018 | News | Tiffany Gabbay | 17

The Department of Defense should be about one thing and one thing only: Defense. Instead, it's now in the business of sensitivity training and "re-educating" service men and women on the myriad pronouns one might fancy using if one is transgender.

The Weekly Standard shares details of the DoD's new guidebook for transgender service members, released just before a deadline that would see the military provide gender reassignment and transition medical care to service personnel. The "administrative management tool" is replete with official pronouns and, according to TWS, "defines key terms, such as 'gender dysphoria.'" There are also entries about how to deal with bullying.

DAYS OF LOT - Bisexual Identity Overtaking Gay And Lesbians In Britain

5 OCTOBER, 2016

The number of British people defining themselves as "bisexual" has jumped by 45 percent in just three years, according to new official estimates. For the first time, more young people in the UK describe themselves as bisexual than gay or lesbian combined, the figures from the Office for National Statistics show.

It is the latest evidence pointing to a shift in attitudes towards sexuality, with increasing numbers viewing their own position as somewhere on a spectrum rather than it being a black-or-white question. A survey by YouGov published last year found that half of young people, and almost a quarter of the population overall, define themselves as something other than 100 per
