اكرر هدفي فقط من هذه الخدمة أن نذكر بعضنا باننا نحتاج ان نستعد أي حياة اليقظة الروحية. والاستعداد ليس فقط قبل مجيء المسيح بل ايضا قبل الظلمة التي ستسبق مجيؤه ليكون عندنا زيت في مصابيحنا يكفي ان نعبر هذه الظلمة وتكون مصابيحنا مضيئة وقت مجيؤه او من منا سيسلم وديعته في أي وقت. بمعنى نحتاج من الان ان نستعد بقوة بأيمان عامل وبتنقية القلب وان نثمر بالخدمة أي نجمع زيت في مصابيحنا لان الظلمة والضيق اقتربت جدا ومن لن يستعد لها بزيت كافي من الان لن يجد زيت في الضيقة لان وقتها تجميع زيت سيكون صعب جدا بل أستطيع ان أقول من مثل العذاري انه لن يكون هناك زيت الا ما جمعه سابقا.

أفضل ان اقول لنفسي ولكم استعدوا الان لأنه اقترب فنكون مستعدين سواء جاء او نحن ان سلمنا وديعتنا عن أنى لا اقول انه اقترب لكيلا يقال عني كاذب وانشر اشاعات او اخيف البعض

ولكنه يأتي بسرعة بغته. لا اعتقد اي أحد ندم لأنه كان مستعد ومنتظر مجيء المسيح ولم يأتي

المسيح في زمنه ولكنه انتقل وهو مستعد ولكن كثيرين جدا ندموا على عدم الاستعداد عندما

انتقلوا

انجيل لوقا 21

21: 10 ثم قال لهم تقوم امة على امة ومملكة على مملكة

21: 11 وتكون زلازل عظيمة في اماكن ومجاعات واوبئة وتكون مخاوف وعلامات عظيمة من

21: 25 وتكون علامات في الشمس والقمر والنجوم وعلى الارض كرب امم بحيرة البحر والامواج

تضج

21: 26 والناس يغطى عليهم من خوف وانتظار ما يأتي على المسكونة لان قوات السماوات

تتزعزع

21: 27 وحينئذ يبصرون ابن الانسان اتيا في سحابة بقوة و مجد كثير

سفر اعمال الرسل 2

2: 19 واعطي عجائب في السماء من فوق وآيات على الارض من أسفل دما ونارا وبخار دخان

2: 20 تتحول الشمس الى ظلمة والقمر الى دم قبل ان يجيء يوم الرب العظيم الشهير

2: 21 ويكون كل من يدعو باسم الرب يخلص

لماذا قال المسيح بعض العلامات؟

انجيل متى 24

مت 24: 6 وسوف تسمعون بحروب واخبار حروب لا ترتاعوا لأنه لا بد ان تكون هذه

كلها ولكن ليس المنتهى بعد

إنجيل يوحنا 14: 29

وَقُلْتُ لَكُمْ الْآنَ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَكُونَ، حَتَّى مَتَى كَانَ تُؤْمِنُونَ.

ثالثا لنتنبه ونستعد

انجيل لوقا 21

28 وَمَتَى ابْتَدَأَتْ هَذِهِ تَكُونُ، فَانْتَصِبُوا وَارْفَعُوا رُؤُوسَكُمْ لِأَنَّ نَجَاتَكُمْ تَقْتَرِبُ.»

China's Tiangong-1 space lab expected to crash back to Earth early in April

AN out-of-control space station is due to crash down to Earth in about a fortnight, and Australia's in its firing line — several times each day.

CHINA'S DOOMED SPACE STATION: China's Tiangong-1 space station is about to return to Earth—as a massive fireball. According to the European Space Agency (ESA), the 8-ton spacecraft will re-enter the atmosphere sometime between March 30th and April 2nd. Tiangong-1 is about the size of a European cargo spacecraft, such as the ATV-1 which itself re-entered in 2008. This re-entry video of the ATV-1 shows what the Tiangong-1 fireball might look like:

Tiangong-1 was launched in Sept. 2011 to establish a foothold in Earth orbit for China's fledgling space program. It served as a temporary home in space for two crews, including China's first female astronauts, and provided a testbed for automated rendezvous and docking procedures. China lost control of Tiangong-1 in 2016 when a telemetry link failed. This made it impossible for mission controllers to guide the station to a re-entry over the South Pacific Ocean as originally planned. Instead, Tiangong-1 would re-enter on its own schedule as aerodynamic friction with Earth's upper atmosphere slowly drained the station's orbital energy.

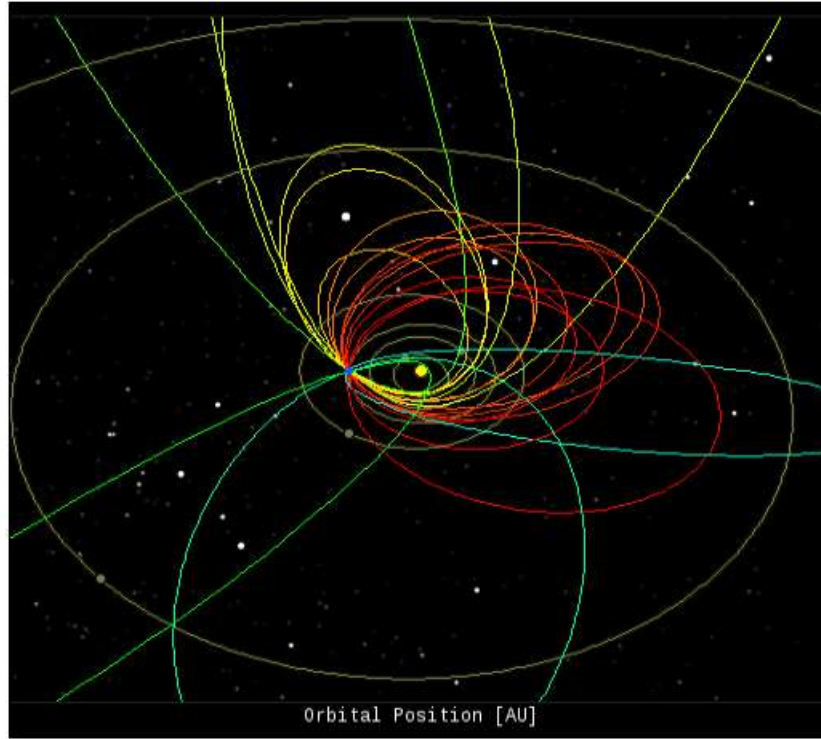

Initially, Chinese officials speculated that re-entry would occur in late 2017. However, low solar activity delayed the splashdown. Sunspot numbers have plummeted recently as the solar cycle heads toward a deep solar minimum:

Mount Etna - Europe's tallest active volcano - is sliding toward the sea which could have "devastating consequences", scientists have warned.

A team of British experts has discovered the giant volcano on the east coast of the island Sicily, Italy, is edging closer to the Mediterranean Sea by 0.6 inches every year which could result in collapse.

Seven more spinner dolphins were found dead at fishing villages near Kalpakkam and Mamallapuram on Tuesday, a day after the carcasses of five dolphins were found washed ashore in the same area.

Members of the TREE foundation said that with this, the total number of dead spinner dolphins found by them since March 9 had gone up to 15.

T.A. Pugalarasan, a fisherman from Nainar kuppam and a member of the Sea Turtle Protection Force, said there were no injury marks on any of the dolphins, which indicated that they could have drowned after being captured in a large net.

Dozens of Dead Birds and a Few Dead Seals – What Does that Mean for our Beaches?

By Chris Kelly - 2018/03/17

The scene on my walk yesterday morning was much different than in days past. It started out at the surfer statue in Imperial Beach as it had in the past; two friends and I headed north on the sand and moved down near the water where the sand was firm. A couple hundred yards past the rock jetty and we see a dead bird. While that's not something we normally see on our Coronado walks nor was it something we had seen on previous walks, it was just one bird. Until it wasn't.

Pacific plastic dump far larger than feared: study

© Provided by AFP Eight million tonnes of plastics enter the oceans every year, much of which has accumulated in five giant garbage patches around the planet, according to a new study

The vast dump of plastic waste swirling in the Pacific ocean is now bigger than France, Germany and Spain combined -- far larger than previously feared -- and is growing rapidly, a study published Thursday warned.

Researchers based in the Netherlands used a fleet of boats and aircraft to scan the immense accumulation of bottles, containers, fishing nets and microparticles known as the "Great Pacific Garbage Patch" (GPGP) and found an astonishing build-up of plastic waste.

"We found about 80,000 tonnes of buoyant plastic currently in the GPGP,"

The US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) today said that 13 people from eight states have been sickened in a Salmonella Typhimurium outbreak linked to dried coconut and that products from a second company have been implicated in the event and have been recalled.

luchschen / iStock

Earlier reports had said the source of the outbreak was Natural Grocers Coconut Smiles Organic dried coconut, which is sold at Natural Grocers stores.

Today's announcement from the CDC said International Harvest, Inc., has recalled bags of Organic Go Smile! Raw Coconut and bulk packages of Go Smiles Dried Coconut Raw.

The CDC is urging people who bought the products to throw them away or return them to the place of purchase, even if some it was eaten and no one got sick.

Three of 13 patients hospitalized

The 13 people infected in the outbreak are from California, Colorado, Connecticut, Idaho, Missouri, Oregon, Texas, and Utah. Whole-genome sequencing on bacteria isolated from sick patients shows that the Salmonella samples are closely related. Illness onsets range from Sep 2, 2017, to Feb 26. Ages range from 1 to 73 years, and two thirds of the patients are female.

Though the incidence of foodborne illnesses has held steady over the past several years, a surveillance system geared toward tracking the diseases found that those involving Escherichia coli O157 and certain Salmonella subtypes have been falling over the past decade, which experts say parallels decreased contamination in poultry and ground beef.

Infections involving some Salmonella subtypes, however, are on the rise, with some of them from nonfood sources, such as contact with animals.

A team from the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and partners in 10 states that are part of the FoodNet surveillance network reported its findings today in the latest issue of Morbidity and Mortality Weekly Report (MMWR).

Study: Non-antibiotic drugs affect gut bacteria, could promote resistance

New research by a team of German scientists indicates that antibiotics aren't the only drugs that affect the gut microbiome.

In a study today in Nature, researchers with the European Molecular Biology Laboratory (EMBL) report that more than a quarter (250 out of 923) of non-antibiotic drugs—including antivirals, antipsychotics, acid-reducing medications, chemotherapy drugs, and blood-pressure medications—inhibited the growth of at least one strain of bacteria commonly found in the gut of healthy humans. The researchers also found that consumption of some non-antibiotics may promote antibiotic resistance.

ChrisChrisW/iStock

While a growing body of research is looking at the documented effects of antibiotics on the gut microbiome, and what impact that has on human health, this study is the first to systematically profile interactions between non-antibiotics and human gut bacteria.

"The number of unrelated drugs that hit gut microbes as collateral damage was surprising," corresponding author and EMBL senior scientist Peer Bork, PhD, said in an EMBL press release. "This shift in the composition of our gut bacteria contributes to drug side-effects, Antibiotic resistance adds nearly $1,400 to the bill for treating a bacterial infection and costs the nation more than $2 billion annually, according to a study yesterday in Health Affairs.

The study, which is the first national estimate of the incremental costs for treating antibiotic-resistant infections, also found that the share of bacterial infections in the United States that were antibiotic resistant more than doubled over 13 years, rising from 5.2% in 2002 to 11% in 2014.

The authors of the study say the troubling numbers, on top of the human toll of antibiotic resistance, highlight the need for increased funding from both public and private sources for efforts to develop new antibiotics, diagnostics, and infection prevention strategies.

"The direct costs of these infections, in addition to the morbidity and mortality attributable to them noted in previous studies, make a compelling case

Animal health officials in South Korea and Europe reported more highly pathogenic avian influenza outbreaks in poultry and wild birds, with H5N6 striking three commercial layer farms in South Korea and captive birds in Sweden.

Two of South Korea's outbreaks were reported from Gyeonggi province, the area that surrounds Seoul, while the third struck birds in the province's neighbor to the south, South Chungcheong, according to separate notifications yesterday from the World Organization for Animal Health (OIE).

The events began on Mar 15 and 16, with the virus killing 153 of 543,500 birds between the three locations, and authorities culled the surviving birds to curb its spread. Investigations are underway into the source of the outbreaks.

ALBANY, NY (WTNH/WTEN) - Flu season is winding down, but the Centers for Disease Control is warning of a second wave, Flu Virus B, which is happening right now.

The CDC says that B-viruses are being reported more frequently than the A-strain, which had been more dominant recently. A CDC spokesperson says B-strain viruses tend to be more severe for younger children.

Experts say it's possible for those who have already been sick with the flu to fall ill again with a different strain later in the season.

In New York, flu cases have declined for the fourth straight week, according to the New York Department of Health. There have been more than 3,000 new cases of the

China and Russia are 'aggressively pursuing' hypersonic weapons, and the US can't defend against them, top nuclear commander says

- America's top nuclear commander said the U.S. doesn't have defenses against hypersonic weapons.
- "Both Russia and China are aggressively pursuing hypersonic capabilities," said Gen. John Hyten, commander of U.S. Strategic Command.
- Earlier this month, Russia announced a slew of new nuclear weapons as well as hypersonic missiles.

China trials unmanned tanks in latest modernization push

BY REUTERS ON MARCH 20, 2018 • (LEAVE A COMMENT)

BEIJING (Reuters) – China is testing unmanned tanks which could be equipped with artificial intelligence, a state-run newspaper said on Wednesday, as the country continues with its military modernization program.

State television showed images this week of the unmanned tanks undergoing testing, the Global Times newspaper reported.

Footage showed a Type 59 tank being driven by remote control, in what the paper said was the first time a Chinese-made unmanned tank has been shown in a public forum.

The Type 59 tank is based on an old Soviet model first used in China in the 1950s and has been produced in large numbers and has a long service life, it said.

"A large number of due-to-retire Type 59 tanks can be converted into unmanned vehicles if equipped with artificial intelligence," Liu Qingshan, the chief editor of Tank and Armoured Vehicle, told the newspaper.

Unmanned tanks will be able to work on other unmanned equipment, integrate information from satellites, aircraft or submarines, the report added.

China is in the middle of an impressive modernization program for its armed forces, including building stealth fighters and new aircraft carriers, as President Xi Jinping looks to assert the country's growing power.

China's leader Xi Jinping delivered a warning to the world during a nationalist speech on Tuesday. The Communist nation is apparently ready for war to regain its rightful place in the world. In addition, Xi warned that attempts to divide China are doomed to fail and that the countries, organizations, and people seeking to do so would be "punished by history."

Deputy Foreign Minister Tzipi Hotovely (Likud) on Monday spoke with with foreign ambassadors to Israel about the Hamas terror tunnels recently destroyed by the IDF.

Speaking to the ambassadors, Hotovely said, "The tunnel destroyed by the IDF last week...led to the town of Kerem Shalom, where we visited two weeks ago. Hamas has thrown Gaza residents to the wind, and is using [humanitarian] funds to carry out terror attacks against Israeli citizens."

"It's important to remember that behind each of Hamas' actions is Iran. The Iranian regime transfers $100 million annually to Hamas, and every cent of it is used against Israel. It does not help Gaza residents at all.

"We cannot support Hamas' provocations. The only purpose their violent marches have is to undermine Israel's sovereignty, and they should not receive international support. We cannot help Gaza residents without fighting Hamas and Iran."

U.S. approves proposed sale of TOW anti-tank missiles to Saudi Arabia

BY REUTERS ON MARCH 22, 2018 · (LEAVE A COMMENT)

By Lesley Wroughton

WASHINGTON (Reuters) – The U.S. State Department said on Thursday it had approved the possible sale to Saudi Arabia of TOW anti-tank missiles, part of a bigger $1 billion package that also includes helicopter maintenance and spare parts for military vehicles.

The department said it had notified the U.S. Congress on Thursday of the possible sale, which kick-starts a formal congressional review process.

Saudi Arabia requested to buy 6,600 TOW missiles and an additional 96 for training for a total of $670 million, the State Department said in a statement.

The proposed sale would improve the security of an important ally in the Middle East, it added.

“The proposed sale of TOW 2B missiles and technical support will advance Saudi Arabia’s efforts to develop an integrated ground defense capability,” the department said.

In addition, the State Department said it had also approved the possible sale worth $300 million of parts for Saudi Arabia’s fleet of Abrams tanks and armored vehicles.

Furthermore, it also gave the green light for the proposed sale of equipment and services worth $106.8 million for Saudi Arabia’s fleet of military helicopters

AFRIN, Syria (Reuters) – Turkey's military and its Syrian rebel allies have taken full control of northwest Syria's Afrin region, a Turkish army source said on Saturday, as aid workers distributed food to people in the area.

Turkish forces and the Syrian fighters swept into the main Afrin town last Sunday after an eight-week campaign to drive out the Kurdish YPG militia, which Ankara regards as a terrorist group.

A military source told Reuters the last remaining villages had been seized and control established overnight.

Syrian government forces have now secured most of the eastern Ghouta enclave, the last remaining rebel-held area near Damascus, the capital and the largest city of the Syrian Arab Republic.

With Syrian forces nearing full control of the war-torn region, U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations Nikki Haley recently warned, Washington “remains prepared to act if we must,” if the United Nations Security Council fails to act on Syria for its assault on eastern Ghouta.

Last week, Russian Deputy Foreign Minister Sergei Ryabkov commented on the critical situation in eastern Ghouta and called on Washington to completely abandon its plans for a military strike against Syrian government forces.

“We’ve warned and warned the US that these plans must be unconditionally refused. Any such unlawful use of force, similar to what happened almost a year ago at the Shairat air base, would be an act of aggression against a sovereign state, as defined by the relevant article of the UN Charter,” he said.

EGYPT AND FRANCE TO SIGN MILITARY COMMUNICATIONS SATELLITE DEAL ON 10 MAY

According to French business newspaper La Tribune, France and Egypt will sign a contract for a military communications satellite worth 600 million Euros on Tuesday, 10 May 2016, in Paris.

SpaceWatch Middle East first reported on this deal in April 2016, just before French President Francois Hollande and Egyptian President Abdel Fattah Al-Sisi signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) signaling each country's intent to seal the agreement.

Now that the final details have been successfully concluded, an Egyptian delegation is expected in Paris for the signing along with French government officials and executives from the prime contractors Thales Alenia Space and Airbus Defence and Space.

SpaceWatch Middle East also reported in April that the Egyptian satellite is likely to be similar to the satellites provided to the United Arab Emirates' satellite communications company YahSat. These satellites are based on the Airbus EuroStar-3000 bus, with Thales Alenia Space providing the communications payload.

نتنياهو يقول ان إسرائيل ستمنع اعدائها من الحصول على أسلحة نووية

Netanyahu says Israel will prevent enemies from obtaining nuclear weapons

by Staff Writers
Jerusalem (AFP) March 21, 2018

Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu said Wednesday that Israel will prevent enemies from obtaining nuclear weapons after its military admitted it carried out a 2007 air raid against a suspected Syrian nuclear reactor.

"The Israeli government, the (Israeli military), and the Mossad (intelligence agency) have prevented Syria from developing nuclear capability, and they deserve every credit for this," Netanyahu said on Twitter.

"Israel's policy has been and remains consistent -- to prevent our enemies from acquiring nuclear weapons."

It was Netanyahu's first comments related to Israel's admission early Wednesday that broke a more than 10-year official silence surrounding the raid, though it had always been widely assumed of being responsible for the strike.

The admission along with the release of newly declassified material related to the raid comes as Israel intensifies its warnings over the presence of its main enemy Iran in neighbouring Syria.

Netanyahu has also repeatedly called for a landmark 2015 nuclear deal between world powers and Iran to be changed or

Nuclear targets: other attacks linked to Israel

Jerusalem (AFP) March 21, 2018 - Israel, which Wednesday admitted responsibility for a top-secret 2007 air raid against a suspected Syrian nuclear reactor, has been accused of other attacks in the Middle East involving atomic targets:

On June 7, 1981, Israeli fighters bombed the Iraqi nuclear reactor at Osirak, or Tammuz for Iraqis, located west of Baghdad. A French technician was killed in the raid.

The Israeli planes operated 2,000 kilometres (1,250 miles) from their base near Eilat on the Red Sea.

Air India 139 landed at Tel Aviv's Ben Gurion Airport after a flight of over 7-1/2 hours, marking a diplomatic shift for Riyadh that Israel says was fueled by shared concern over Iranian influence in the region.

"This is a really historic day that follows two years of very, very intensive work," Israeli Tourism Minister Yariv Levin said in a radio interview, adding that using Saudi airspace cut travel time to India by around two hours and TRIPOLI/BENGHAZI, Libya (Reuters) – U.S. forces said they had killed "two terrorists" in an air strike in southwestern Libya on Saturday as part of efforts to deny militants a safe haven in the country's vast desert.

The strike hit on the outskirts of the city of Ubari and was carried out in coordination with the internationally recognized Government of National Accord in Tripoli, the U.S. Africa Command said in a statement.

"At this time, we assess no civilians were killed in this strike," the statement said.

A witness in Ubari told Reuters by telephone that a large explosion had been heard around midday.

A house in the Fursan neighborhood was hit and two bodies were found there, he said. Residents from the neighborhood said the house was frequented by foreigners, according to the witness, who did not want to be identified for security reasons.

Pictures in local media showed a body on the ground with several limbs and its head missing, and a car with its windows blown out and dozens of holes in one side.

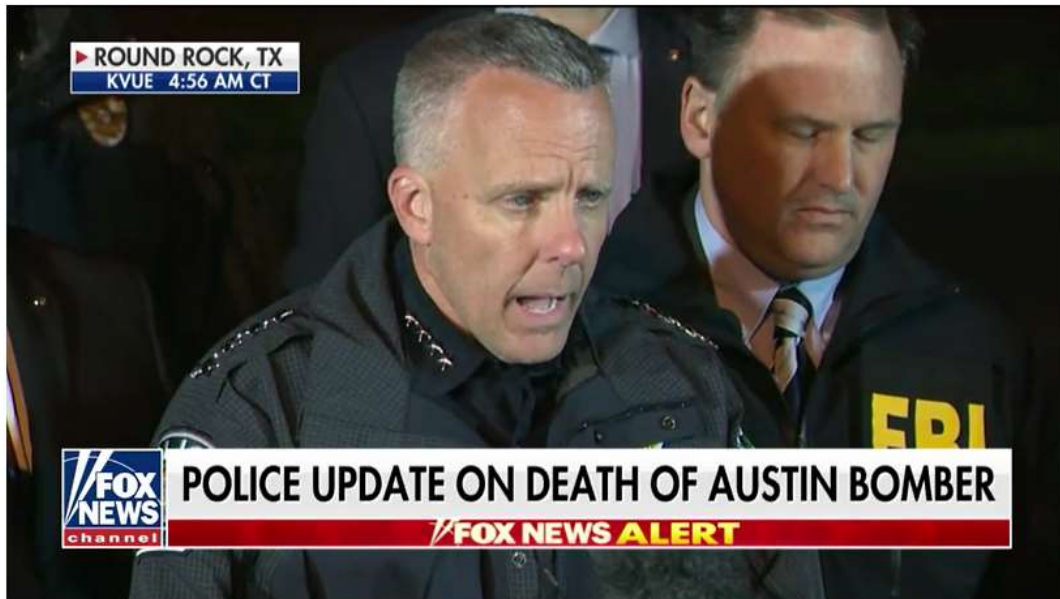

U.S. forces have carried out occasional air strikes targeting militants in Libya over the past few years.

China activists fear high-tech crackdown in Xi's 'new era'

By Joanna CHIU
Beijing (AFP) March 21, 2018

As Xi Jinping embarks on a potentially lifelong presidency, activists fear that the Chinese leader's promise of a "new era" sounds the death knell for human rights under an increasingly digital-savvy police state.

The Chinese government has severely reduced space for civil liberties since Xi took power in 2012, and authorities are developing new technologies to keep the vast population in check.

They include include facial recognition software as well as a "social credit" system for good behaviour -- eerily similar to an episode of Netflix's sci-fi hit "Black Mirror" that depicted a dystopian society governed by such scores.

Ye Du, a poet and activist who lives in southern Guangdong province, warned that China is entering a stage of "high-tech totalitarianism" in which most citizens will feel the psychological impact.

"The Chinese Communist Party has begun to pay more and more attention to cloud technology, monitoring technology and other tools, trying to integrate the most cutting-edge technology for the monitoring of the behaviour and thoughts of the people," Ye told AFP.

Xi's move to stay in office beyond the end of his second term in 2023, rubber-stamped this week when parliament abolished term limits, triggered a rare bout of criticism on social media.

Censors blocked dozens of phrases such as "I disagree" or "emperor", in an illustration of their resolve to maintain stability, backed by a massive increase in domestic security spending in recent years.

Rendering of future Third Temple

The newly reconstituted Sanhedrin in Israel, the re-creation of the ancient legal council, is inviting Arabs to prepare for their role in the construction of a Third Temple, as the Bible prophesies.

A letter prepared by rabbis, a copy of which was obtained for Breaking Israel News by Adam Eliyahu Berkowitz, explains "the time has come to rebuild the Temple on Mount Moriah in Jerusalem in its ancient place."

The letter from the "biblically mandated court of 71 elders" was in Hebrew, English and Arabic and invites "the Arabs as the sons of Ishmael to take their role in supporting the Third Temple as prophesied by Isaiah."

Ishmael, in the Bible, is the first son of Abraham, by his wife's maid, Hagar. Abraham is the patriarch of Judaism, Christianity and Islam. Isaac was the second son, and Judaism and Christianity trace roots through him. Islam claims its heritage through Ishmael.

REVIVING BIBLICAL WEDDING CUSTOMS IN PREPARATION FOR THE THIRD TEMPLE

By Adam Eliyahu Berkowitz March 20, 2018 , 2:00 pm

Let me be a seal upon your heart, Like the seal upon your hand. For love is fierce as death, Passion is mighty as Sheol; Its darts are darts of fire, A blazing flame.” (Song of Songs 8:6)

The “chuppah chatanim,” a wedding canopy designed according to ancient practice. (Reuven Prager)

Weddings in Biblical times were significantly different than they are today. One Jerusalemite, a simple tailor, has spent years and tens of thousands of dollars to recreate this joyous occasion as authentically traditional as possible. But there are still some changes that need to be made, which will have to wait until the Third Temple is built.

The tailor, Reuven Prager, who specializes in Biblically styled clothing, has a passion for restoring ancient Israelite customs. Twenty-five years ago, Prager learned about four marriage customs described in the Talmud as having fallen out of practice after the destruction of the Temple in 70 CE and the squashed Bar Kochba revolt in 132 CE.

A top Chinese official warned Sunday that a "trade war" would harm all sides but gave no indication of Beijing's possible next move in a spiraling dispute with President Donald Trump over steel and technology.

Speaking to global business leaders at a development forum, Vice Premier Han Zheng appealed for cooperation to make economic globalization "beneficial for all."

"A trade war serves the interests of none," Han said at the China Development Forum. "It will only lead to serious consequences and negative impact."

Boko Haram refuses to release Christian schoolgirl as dozens of others freed

Christian Today staff writer Thu 22 Mar 2018 11:10 GMT

Boko Haram has released dozens of schoolgirls kidnapped from their Nigerian village last month but kept hold of at least one because she is a Christian and refused to recant her faith.

Brandishing black and white flags and wearing military outfits and balaclavas members of the jihadist group drove into the centre of Dapchi village and returned most of the girls they had abducted on February 19.

A string of vandalism cases have been reported by churches nationwide this month, from Georgia and North Carolina to Texas and California.

"Why?" asked William Yeoman, a trustee at Providence Missionary Baptist Church in Belville, North Carolina. "Did God do anything to you? Did we do anything to you?"

One Muslim says so.

"There is no remedy for it. Europe will be Muslim. We will be effective there, Allah willing. I am sure of that," said Alparslan Kavaklıoğlu, a member of the ruling Justice and Development Party in Turkey.

He's also the head of the Turkish parliament's Security and Intelligence Commission.

He recently said: "The fortune and wealth of the world is moving from the West to the East. Europe is going through a time that is out of the ordinary. Its population is declining and aging. It has a very old population. So, people coming from outside get the jobs there. But Europe has this problem. All of the newcomers are Muslim. From

رسالة بولس الرسول الي أهل رومية 13

13: 11 هذا وأنكم عارفون الوقت انها الان ساعة لنستيقظ من النوم فان خلاصنا الان أقرب مما
كان حين امنا

13: 12 قد تناهى الليل وتقارب النهار فلنخلع اعمال الظلمة ونلبس اسلحة النور

13: 13 لنسلك بلياقة كما في النهار لا بالبطر والسكر لا بالمضاجع والعهر لا بالخصام والحسد

13: 14 بل البسوا الرب يسوع المسيح ولا تصنعوا تدبيرا للجسد لأجل الشهوات

احترس ان لم تتمسك بالمسيح من الان قد لا تستطيع في المستقبل القريب بسبب الظلام.

وكما قلت هو اخبرنا لكي لا نخاف

انجيل متى 24

مت 24: 6 وسوف تسمعون بحروب واخبار حروب لا ترتاعوا لأنه لا بد ان تكون هذه

كلها ولكن ليس المنتهى بعد

بطرس الأولى 3: 14

وَلَكِنْ وَإِنْ تَأَلَّمْتُمْ مِنْ أَجْلِ الْبِرِّ، فَطُوبَاكُمْ. وَأَمَّا خَوْفُهُمْ فَلَا تَخَافُوهُ وَلَا تَضْطَرُّوْا،

بل نؤمن

إنجيل يوحنا 14: 29

وَقُلْتُ لَكُمْ الْآنَ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَكُونَ، حَتَّى مَتَى كَانَ تُؤْمِنُونَ.

ثالثا لنتنبه ونستعد

انجيل لوقا 21

28 وَمَتَى ابْتَدَأَتْ هَذِهِ تَكُونُ، فَأَنْتَصِبُوا وَارْفَعُوا رُؤُوسَكُمْ لِأَنَّ نَجَاتَكُمْ تَقْتَرِبُ.»

وأيضا استعدوا فقد تسلموا وديعتكم في أي وقت فهناك 150 ألف شخص يموتوا في اليوم الواحد

انت لا تعرف متى ستكون منهم

المسيح اقترب فاصنعوا ثمار تليق بالتوبة واستعدوا لاستقبال العريس.

والمجد لله دائما
