اكرر هدفي فقط من هذه الخدمة أن نذكر بعضنا باننا نحتاج ان نستعد أي حياة اليقظة الروحية. والاستعداد ليس فقط قبل مجيء المسيح بل ايضا قبل الظلمة التي ستسبق مجيؤه ليكون عندنا زيت في مصابيحنا يكفي ان نعبر هذه الظلمة وتكون مصابيحنا مضيئة وقت مجيؤه او من منا سيسلم وديعته في أي وقت . بمعنى نحتاج من الان ان نستعد بقوة بأيمان عامل وبتنقية القلب وان نثمر بالخدمة أي نجمع زيت في مصابيحنا لان الظلمة والضيقة اقتربت جدا ومن لن يستعد لها بزيت كافي من الان لن يجد زيت في الضيقة لان وقتها تجميع زيت سيكون صعب جدا بل أستطيع ان أقول من مثل العذاري انه لن يكون هناك زيت الا ما جمعته سابقا .

أفضل ان اقول لنفسي ولكم استعدوا الان لأنه اقترب فنكون مستعدين سواء جاء او نحن ان سلمنا وديعتنا عن أنى لا اقول انه اقترب لكيلا يقال عني كاذب وانشر اشاعات او اخيف البعض

ولكنه يأتي بسرعة بغته. لا اعتقد اي أحد ندم لأنه كان مستعد ومنتظر مجيء المسيح ولم يأتي

المسيح في زمنه ولكنه انتقل وهو مستعد ولكن كثيرين جدا ندموا على عدم الاستعداد عندما

انتقلوا

المسيح قال بعض العلامات مثل

انجيل لوقا 21

21: 10 ثم قال لهم تقوم امة على امة ومملكة على مملكة

21: 11 وتكون زلازل عظيمة في اماكن ومجاعات واوبئة وتكون مخاوف وعلامات عظيمة من

السماء

21: 25 وتكون علامات في الشمس والقمر والنجوم وعلى الارض كرب امم بحيرة البحر والامواج

تضج

21: 26 والناس يغطى عليهم من خوف وانتظار ما يأتي على المسكونة لان قوات السماوات

تتزعزع

21: 27 وحينئذ يبصرون ابن الانسان اتيا في سحابة بقوة و مجد كثير

سفر اعمال الرسل 2

2: 19 واعطي عجائب في السماء من فوق وآيات على الارض من أسفل دما ونارا وبخار دخان

2: 20 تتحول الشمس الى ظلمة والقمر الى دم قبل ان يجيء يوم الرب العظيم الشهير

2: 21 ويكون كل من يدعو باسم الرب يخلص

لماذا قال المسيح بعض العلامات؟

أولا لكيلا نرتاع

انجيل متى 24

مت 24: 6 وسوف تسمعون بحروب واخبار حروب لا ترتاعوا لأنه لا بد ان تكون هذه

كلها ولكن ليس المنتهى بعد

ثانيا لنؤمن

انجيل يوحنا 14: 29

وَقُلْتُ لَكُمْ الْآنَ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَكُونَ، حَتَّى مَتَى كَانَ تُؤْمِنُونَ.

ثالثا لننتبه ونستعد

انجيل لوقا 21

28 وَمَتَى ابْتَدَأَتْ هَذِهِ تَكُونُ، فَانْتَصِبُوا وَارْفَعُوا رُؤُوسَكُمْ لِأَنَّ نَجَاتَكُمْ تَقْتَرِبُ.»

SOLAR WIND STORM: Earth is entering a stream of high-speed solar wind, and this is causing G1-class geomagnetic storms around the poles. First contact with the gaseous material on Jan. 31st sparked bright auroras around the Arctic Circle. In Abisko, Sweden, Chad Blakely of Lights over Lapland witnessed this outburst of green:

"I thought the back of my camera was going to explode!" says Blakely. "The auroras and light pillars started as soon as the sun went down. Our guests from the US, UK and Australia were treated to one of the finest displays of the season."

For a time, the auroras were visible to the naked eye through the city lights of Edinburgh, Scotland—a truly intense display.

NOAA forecasters say that the storm could intensify to G2-class on Feb. 1st as Earth moves deeper into the stream of solar wind. The gaseous material is flowing from an unusually wide hole in the sun's atmosphere. This means we could feel its influence for some days to come, possibly until Feb. 3rd. Aurora Alerts: SMS text, email.

'Cold-Mageddon' Slams US with Coldest Air in Generations, Turning Chicago Into Antarctica

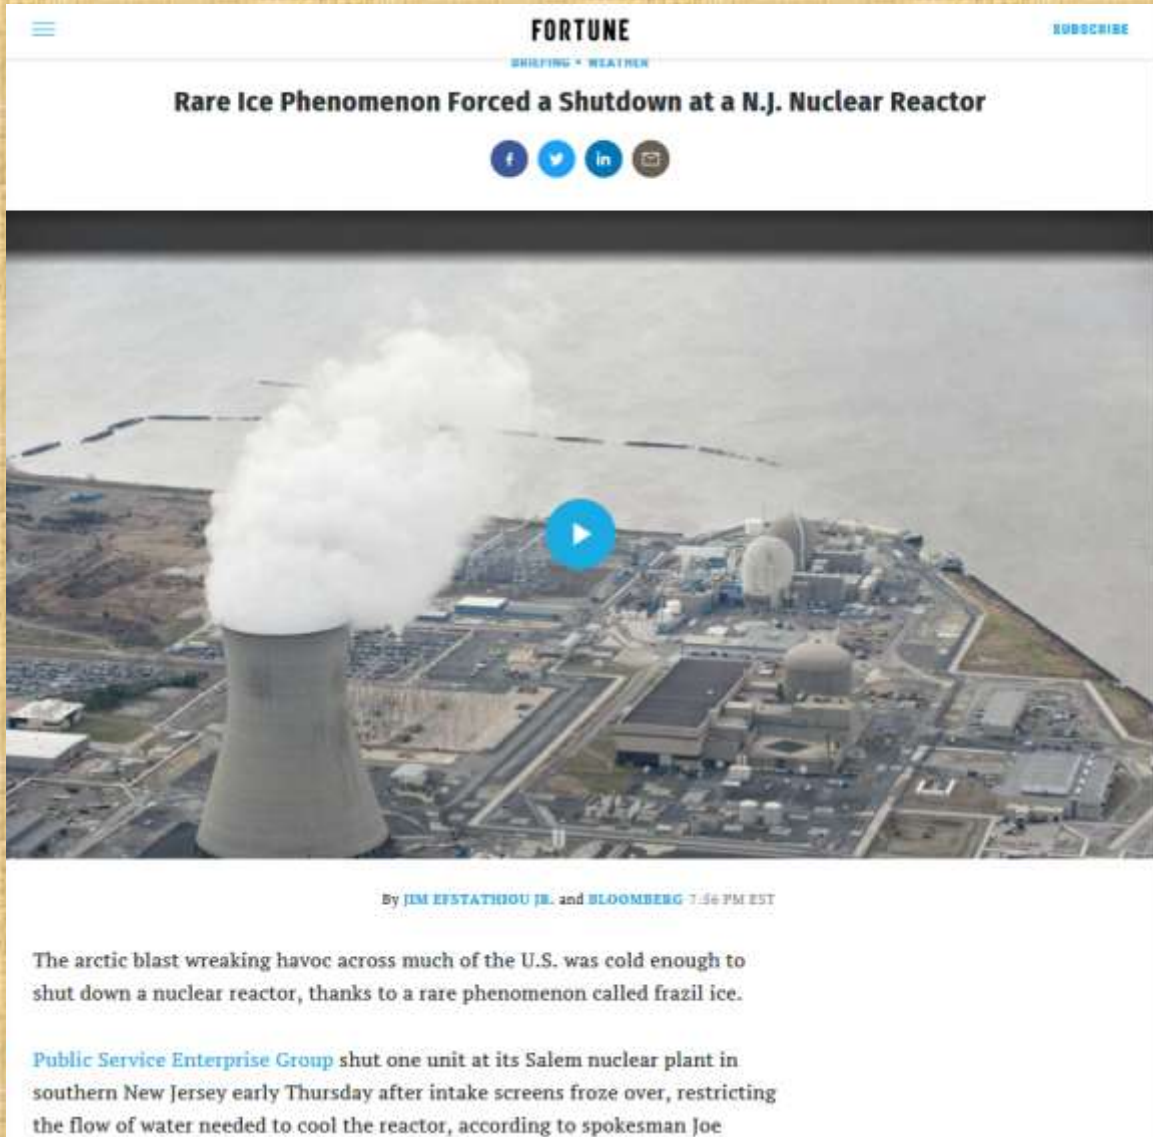

Jan 29, 2019 | BREAKING NEWS, EXTREME WEATHER | 0 | ★★★★★

(CBN News) – It's being described as the coldest air in generations. What that means is life-threatening low temperatures expected to shatter records and plunge the Midwest into a deep freeze. It's all because of the polar vortex. That's defined by Accuweather as a "large pocket of very cold air, typically the coldest air in the Northern Hemisphere, which sits over the polar region during the winter season."

Well, that air has found its way to the United States. "This is not just 'Oh, it's January, it's getting cold,' this has been lining up in the preseason and it's all come together for this extreme event that's going to be happening in the next four to five days," meteorologist Joe Bastardi told CBN News. The extreme temperatures started in the upper

With the polar vortex in full retreat, the USA's wildest weather shifts to the West.

The dangerous cold and heavy snow that hobbled the northern U.S. this week wreaked plenty of havoc - with estimates as high as 24 dead - but a new form of deadly weather has encroached upon the western United States, battering California on Saturday.

Flash flood warnings were issued across the Golden State as heavy rain and mudflows shut down major highways and caused power outages for tens of thousands of people.

The Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission attributed 589 sea turtles and 213 manatee deaths to this episode of red tide, which began in late 2017. At least 20 desert bighorn sheep have died in a San Geronio mountain population in Southern California, 100 miles east of Los Angeles. The cause of death? Pneumonia, most likely from domestic sheep or goats, though wildlife specialists are examining other possible causes, including pathogens from feral cattle to the west and disease from a different bighorn group to the south.

"Since the beginning of December, I have recovered 20 dead sheep, and I suspect that's just a portion of what's occurring," said Jeffrey Villepique, a wildlife biologist with the California Dept. of Fish and Wildlife inland deserts region who is leading the probe into the deaths.

US calls for Russian, Chinese nuclear transparency

by Staff Writers
Beijing (AFP) Jan 30, 2019

The United States accused Russia and China of not fully reporting their nuclear programmes Wednesday and called for more transparency, amid US threats to withdraw from a key arms control treaty.

A senior US official made the remarks as the five permanent members of the UN Security Council – all of them nuclear-armed powers – met in Beijing for talks on nuclear disarmament and non-proliferation.

Andrea Thompson, US under secretary for arms control and international security, said there were "uneven results" in efforts to advance transparency under the nuclear non-proliferation treaty.

"We previously agreed to set (a) format for reporting, but the gap between the reports of the United States on the one hand, and Russia and China on the other, is great," Thompson said in her opening remarks.

"I cannot overemphasise the value of transparency," she said.

Officials from Russia, China, France and Britain – countries under the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons (NPT) treaty – also attended the meeting, which will continue on Thursday.

Democratic White House hopeful Warren offers law barring first use of nukes
Washington (AFP) Jan 30, 2019 - Democratic presidential hopeful Senator Elizabeth Warren proposed legislation Wednesday that would bar the US government from using nuclear weapons first in a conflict.

Warren, together with House legislator Adam Smith, submitted the No First Use Act to codify what they said most Americans support, that the United States should never initiate a nuclear conflict.

"Our current nuclear strategy is not just outdated – it is dangerous, Warren and Smith said in a statement.

"By making clear that deterrence is the sole purpose of our arsenal, this bill would reduce the chances of a nuclear miscalculation and help us maintain our moral and diplomatic leadership in the world."

NATO 'fully' supports US withdrawal from missile treaty

by Staff Writers
Brussels (AFP) Feb 1, 2019

NATO said Friday it fully supported the US decision to pull out from a Cold War missile treaty with Russia, saying Moscow was in breach of the agreement.

"Allies fully support this action," the North Atlantic alliance said in a statement.

NATO issued the statement in the name of its council of member states shortly after US President Donald Trump announced Washington's withdrawal from the 1987 Intermediate-Range Nuclear Forces Treaty.

Russia failed to meet a deadline set by the United States to dismantle a new medium-range missile system, which Moscow insists does not infringe the treaty.

"The United States is taking this action in response to the significant risks to Euro-Atlantic security posed by Russia's covert testing, production, and fielding of 9M729 ground-launched cruise missile systems," NATO said.

But the Alliance said America's treaty withdrawal would take six months to come into effect, giving Russia a last window to destroy the offending missile system.

Russia suspends nuclear missile treaty in tit-for-tat with US

By Theo MERZ
Moscow (AFP) Feb 2, 2019

Russia vowed Saturday to develop "new types of weapons" as it suspended a Cold War-era nuclear missile treaty with the United States, which pulled back from the pact a day earlier, raising the spectre of a new arms race.

In a high-stakes tit-for-tat with US President Donald Trump, Russian leader Vladimir Putin said: "Our American partners have announced they are suspending their participation in the deal, and we are also suspending our participation."

And he said Russia would seek to develop medium-range missiles in response to what he said were similar projects in the US.

Russia would "not be drawn into a costly new arms race", the president said in a televised meeting with foreign and defence ministers Sergei Lavrov and Sergei Shoigu, adding it would only deploy intermediate- and short-range missiles in response to similar moves from the US.

US bolts Cold War missile treaty as Russia warns of arms race

By Shaun TANDON, with Damon Wake in Bucharest
Washington (AFP) Feb 1, 2019

The United States said Friday it would exit a landmark Cold War nuclear missile treaty due to purported violations by Russia, which has warned of a new arms race in Europe.

Washington says a new Russian medium-range missile system breaches the Intermediate-Range Nuclear Forces Treaty, although US officials also have an eye on China as the 1987 pact restricts the United States but not the rising Asian power.

President Donald Trump said the United States was suspending its obligations under the INF treaty as of Saturday and starting a process to withdraw in six months.

Brokered by US president Ronald Reagan with last Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev, the treaty ended a superpower buildup of warheads that had frightened Europeans, banning ground-launched missiles with a range of 500 to 5,500 kilometers (around 300 to 3,400 miles).

Russia's New Hypersonic Nuclear Weapon

by Staff Writers for Launchspace
Bethesda, MD (SPX) Jan 29, 2019

Last month Russia tested a new hypersonic weapon designed to sneak under current U.S. ballistic missile defenses. The Avangard, a winged glider weapon boosted high into the atmosphere by a ballistic missile, descends on its target at speeds in excess of 6.7 km/sec.

This is 15,000 MPH, almost the speed of an orbiting satellite. According to Russian news sources, Avangard will enter Russian service this year. Check YouTube for footage of the test launch.

Russian President Putin announced this and other new nuclear weapons programs last year. This weapon included the "Poseidon" Nuclear Apocalypse Torpedo and the Burevestnik Nuclear-Powered Cruise Missile.

A rocket boosts Avangard gliders very high into the atmosphere, but unlike regular ICBM warheads, Avangard doesn't go all the way out of the atmosphere. Instead, at a preset altitude, the booster fairing is released.

Then Avangard is released and it proceeds as a glider to its target at hypersonic speeds of up to Mach 20. During its recent test the Avangard traveled more than 6,000 km.

Russia is apparently creating a host of new nuclear weapons to get around ballistic missile defenses. For example, "Poseidon" would travel into U.S. territory underwater in order to deliver a thermonuclear strike.

Tehran (AFP) – The deputy chief of Iran's Revolutionary Guards has warned Europe against forcing the Islamic Republic into boosting the range of its missiles by trying to halt their development.

"If the Europeans, or anyone else, want to conspire to disarm Iran of missiles, we will be forced to make a strategic leap," the guards' deputy commander Brigadier-General Hossein Salami said on state TV on Saturday.

"All that hear me today, come to terms with the new reality of Iran's missile might: there are no obstacles or technical limitations to us increasing (their) range," he added.

MORAGA (KPIX 5) — After scientists unlocked the secrets of the human genome in 2003, there was immediate concern about how that knowledge might be abused in the wrong hands. Now, an East Bay entrepreneur wants to put that power in everyone's hands.

Dr. Josiah Zayner has a PhD in biochemistry and worked for NASA, engineering organisms to help astronauts survive on Mars. But that wasn't innovative enough for the young, self-described "Bio Hacker."

"Normal scientists want to study, like, how fruit flies have sex or something, something that nobody really cares about," said Dr.

CINCINNATI, Jan 27 (Reuters) - When Danny Reagan was 13, he began exhibiting signs of what doctors usually associate with drug addiction. He became agitated, secretive and withdrew from friends. He had quit baseball and Boy Scouts, and he stopped doing homework and showering.

But he was not using drugs. He was hooked on YouTube and video games, to the point where he could do nothing else. As doctors would confirm, he was addicted to his electronics.

"After I got my console, I kind of fell in love with it," Danny, now 16 and a junior in a Cincinnati high school, said. "I liked being able to kind of shut everything out and just relax."

What started out as a fun school trip quickly turned into an ancient discovery.

A student stumbled upon a rare Second Temple-era coin during a hike in Samaria last week, according to a statement from the Coordinator of Government Activities in the Territories (COGAT). The coin was uncovered on the eastern side of the Shiloh stream.

When the student found the coin, the group leader contacted the COGAT to examine it.

Pictured on the coin are three stalks of grain and a royal canopy with the words "King Agrippa" engraved on it.

"Agrippa" refers to Herod Agrippa, who ruled ancient Judea from A.D. 41 to 44. He was King Herod the Great's grandson and the father of Herod Agrippa II, who became the last king of the Herodian Dynasty.

New York state's new law allowing abortion virtually up to birth conflicts with the fact that modern technology allows physicians to do heart surgeries and other medical procedures on unborn babies as early as 22 weeks, contends a physician who has delivered nearly 4,000 babies.

"If they're a patient they're a person, and if they are a person they deserve our protection," said Dr. William Lile, an obstetrician-gynecologist.

In a YouTube video responding to the law passed and signed last week by Gov. Andrew Cuomo, he said "modern medical technology is already giving preborn babies blood transfusions, heart surgery and more," LifeSite News reported.

The new law also removes abortions from the penal code, meaning the state no longer recognizes preborn babies older than 24 weeks as potential homicide victims.

Lile noted lawmakers celebrated the passage of the bill with clapping.

"Celebrating what? The governor just signed a law saying that we can take the lives of the babies in the womb up until their due date. That's nothing to celebrate. ... To take the lives of these babies in the womb breaks my heart. It is not good for us and is not good for America."

On today's show, we talked about another late-term abortion bill that has been introduced in Virginia. The so-called "Repeal Act" being sponsored by Virginia Delegate Kathy Tran would reportedly remove all limits on abortion, all the way through the day of, and apparently even during birth.

WOODLAND, N.J. – New Jersey has become the second state in the nation after California to adopt a law that requires schools to teach about LGBT history in a move hailed by civil rights groups as a step toward inclusion and fairness.

Gov. Phil Murphy, a Democrat who promised to promote equality for gay and transgender people during his campaign, signed the bill Thursday. Among those celebrating the news was Jaime Bruesehoff of Vernon, whose 12-year-old transgender child, Rebekah, spoke in support of the bill in Trenton in December.

"This bill is so important for our young people," Bruesehoff said. "They need to see examples of themselves in the history being taught and in classes they are going to each day. We know representation matters."

New York enacts law to ban transgender discrimination

By David Klepper | AP

January 25

ALBANY, N.Y. — New York state added gender identity and gender expression to the state’s anti-discrimination law Friday, making it illegal to deny people a job, housing, education or public accommodations because they are transgender.

Democratic Gov. Andrew Cuomo signed the measure into law in Manhattan at the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Transgender Center. He also signed legislation prohibiting conversion therapy for minors, in which a therapist tries to change a young person’s sexual orientation.

Both bills passed last week after being blocked for years in the state Senate by Republican lawmakers. That changed when Democrats won control of the chamber in November.

رسالة بولس الرسول الي أهل رومية 13

13: 11 هذا وأنكم عارفون الوقت انها الان ساعة لنستيقظ من النوم فان خلاصنا الان أقرب مما كان حين امنا

13: 12 قد تنهى الليل وتقارب النهار فلنخلع اعمال الظلمة ونلبس اسلحة النور

13: 13 لنسلك بلياقة كما في النهار لا بالبطر والسكر لا بالمضاجع والعهر لا بالخصام والحسد

13: 14 بل البسوا الرب يسوع المسيح ولا تصنعوا تدبيرا للجسد لأجل الشهوات

احترس ان لم تتمسك بالمسيح من الان قد لا تستطيع في المستقبل القريب بسبب الظلام.

وكما قلت هو اخبرنا لكي لا نخاف

انجيل متى 24

بطرس الأولى 3: 14

وَلَكِنْ وَإِنْ تَأَلَّمْتُمْ مِنْ أَجْلِ الْبِرِّ، فَطُوبَاكُمْ. وَأَمَّا خَوْفُهُمْ فَلَا تَخَافُوهُ وَلَا تَضْطَرُّوْا،

بل نؤمن

إنجيل يوحنا 14: 29

وَقُلْتُ لَكُمْ الْآنَ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَكُونَ، حَتَّى مَتَى كَانَ تُؤْمِنُونَ.
