اكرر هدفي فقط من هذه الخدمة أن نذكر بعضنا باننا نحتاج ان نستعد أي حياة اليقظة الروحية. والاستعداد ليس فقط قبل مجيء المسيح بل ايضا قبل الظلمة التي ستسبق مجيؤه ليكون عندنا زيت في مصابيحنا يكفي ان نعبر هذه الظلمة وتكون مصابيحنا مضيئة وقت مجيؤه او من منا سيسلم وديعته في أي وقت . بمعنى نحتاج من الان ان نستعد بقوة بأيمان عامل وبتنقية القلب وان نثمر بالخدمة أي نجمع زيت في مصابيحنا لان الظلمة والضيق اقتربت جدا ومن لن يستعد لها بزيت كافي من الان لن يجد زيت في الضيقة لان وقتها تجميع زيت سيكون صعب جدا بل أستطيع ان أقول من مثل العذاري انه لن يكون هناك زيت الا ما جمعه سابقا .

أفضل ان اقول لنفسي ولكم استعدوا الان لأنه اقترت فنكون مستعدين سواء جاء او نحن ان سلمنا وديعتنا عن أنى لا اقول انه اقترت لكيلا يقال عني كاذب وانشر اشاعات او اخيف البعض

ولكنه يأتي بسرعة بغته. لا اعتقد اي أحد ندم لأنه كان مستعد ومنتظر مجيء المسيح ولم يأتي

المسيح في زمنه ولكنه انتقل وهو مستعد ولكن كثيرين جدا ندموا على عدم الاستعداد عندما

انتقلوا

المسيح قال بعض العلامات مثل

انجيل لوقا 21

21: 10 ثم قال لهم تقوم امة على امة ومملكة على مملكة

21: 11 وتكون زلازل عظيمة في اماكن ومجاعات واوبئة وتكون مخاوف وعلامات عظيمة من

21: 25 وتكون علامات في الشمس والقمر والنجوم وعلى الارض كرب امم بحيرة البحر والامواج

تضج

21: 26 والناس يغطى عليهم من خوف وانتظار ما يأتي على المسكونة لان قوات السماوات

تتزعزع

21: 27 وحينئذ يبصرون ابن الانسان اتيا في سحابة بقوة و مجد كثير

سفر اعمال الرسل 2

2: 19 واعطي عجائب في السماء من فوق وآيات على الارض من أسفل دما ونارا وبخار دخان

2: 20 تتحول الشمس الى ظلمة والقمر الى دم قبل ان يجيء يوم الرب العظيم الشهير

2: 21 ويكون كل من يدعو باسم الرب يخلص

لماذا قال المسيح بعض العلامات؟

أولا لكيلا نرتاع

انجيل متى 24

مت 24: 6 وسوف تسمعون بحروب واخبار حروب لا ترتاعوا لأنه لا بد ان تكون هذه

كلها ولكن ليس المنتهى بعد

ثانيا لنؤمن

إنجيل يوحنا 14: 29

وَقُلْتُ لَكُمْ الْآنَ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَكُونَ، حَتَّى مَتَى كَانَ تُؤْمِنُونَ.

ثالثا لننتبه ونستعد

انجيل لوقا 21

28 وَمَتَى ابْتَدَأَتْ هَذِهِ تَكُونُ، فَانْتَصِبُوا وَارْفَعُوا رُؤُوسَكُمْ لِأَنَّ نَجَاتَكُمْ تَقْتَرِبُ.»

A Japanese research team has discovered an intermediate-mass black hole with a mass about 30,000 times that of the sun near the center of the Milky Way galaxy.

The finding, which was published in a U.S. astrophysical journal, is expected to advance understanding of how black holes evolve.

It has been thought that a supermassive black hole with a mass 4 million times that of the sun exists at the center of the Milky Way, which is home to the solar system. Several reports have also noted the possibility that an intermediate-mass black hole exists near the larger body, though no solid evidence of its existence had been found.

A team from the National Astronomical Observatory of Japan and other entities used the ALMA radio telescope in Chile to observe radio waves emanating from gas clusters near the center of the Milky Way. It then discovered two such

What HAS Russia spotted in Earth's upper atmosphere? Scientists say satellite detected unexplained 'explosions of light' in cloud-free skies

- Scientists with Lomonosov satellite say it spotted several 'explosions' of light
- These were spotted dozens of miles above the surface, with no clouds below
- Researchers say they may have come across previously unknown phenomenon

A Russian satellite designed to monitor the atmosphere for high-energy cosmic rays has detected mysterious 'explosions' of light miles above Earth's surface, Russian scientists say.

HERE COMES THE SOLAR WIND: A canyon-shaped hole in the sun's atmosphere is facing Earth and spewing solar wind in our direction. Estimated time of arrival: Feb. 19th or 20th. This is a coronal hole—a region in the sun's atmosphere where the magnetic field peels back and allows solar wind to escape. It looks dark in ultraviolet images because hot-glowing plasma normally contained there is missing.

We've seen this coronal hole before. It formed in 2018 and has been spinning around with the sun, lashing Earth with solar wind approximately once a month. The last time its solar wind interacted with our planet, on Jan. 23rd, it sparked bright pink auroras around the Arctic Circle. Aurora Alerts: SMS text, email.

CLOSE ENCOUNTER WITH A COMET: On Feb. 13th, Comet Iwamoto (C/2018 Y1) made its closest approach to Earth in more than a thousand years. Enrico Colzani of the Sormano Astronomical Observatory monitored the flyby and, while watching, caught the dirty snowball passing through the outer arms of spiral galaxy NGC 2903:

"The comet and galaxy made a beautiful pair--albeit briefly," he says.

Galaxy NGC 2903 was discovered by William Herschel in Nov. 1784. At that time, the comet was unknown and would not be found for another 235 years—in Dec. 2018 by Japanese amateur astronomer Masayuki Iwamoto. The two celestial bodies met this week in the constellation Leo just as the comet was paying a rare visit to the inner solar system.

العاصفة الثلجية التي ضربت هاواي جعلت محطة الرصد الفضائي متجمدة

A SNOWSTORM HITS HAWAII: On Monday, an historic winter storm pounded Hawaii with hurricane force winds, massive waves, and snow in some unusual places. Maui was blanketed in snow at altitudes as low as 6200 feet—the lowest snowfall since 1952. At the 10,023-foot summit of Maui's Haleakala volcano, many world-class telescopes were frozen solid:

"We were finally allowed into Haleakala National Park to get to the Haleakala Observatory," reports Rob Ratkowski, who photographed the scene. "About a foot of snow fell creating black ice that was a danger to vehicles. When we arrived today we saw much ice attached to buildings, observatories and fences."

The Haleakala Observatory was Hawaii's first astronomical research and development facility. Managed by the University of Hawaii's Institute for Astronomy, the summit is home to the ATLAS asteroid impact early warning system, the Air Force's Maui Space Surveillance Complex, the Pan-STARRS asteroid and comet survey telescope, and (under construction) the [Daniel K. NOVATO (KPIX) – Marin County has declared a state of emergency due to flooding around Highway 37 and the mudslides in Sausalito.

The problems started on Thursday when strong storms and heavy rains battered the North Bay causing a levee near the Highway 37 to give way.

Flood waters filled nearby fields, eventually coming up over the FLOTANDO. La mortandad se detectó el 21 de enero pasado.

El fenómeno se repite cada mes de enero, al menos, desde 2015. Este 2019 no fue la excepción. Miles de peces muertos aparecieron flotando en las aguas del río Luján. Las causas, como en todos los casos anteriores, se desconocen y probablemente, nunca sean aclaradas. Aunque, como siempre, todas las miradas apuntan a los efluentes que desde el Parque Industrial vuelcan al río.

Según informaron desde la Reserva Natural de Pilar, la situación fue advertida por los guardaparques del predio. Fue el 21 de enero pasado, cerca del mediodía cuando visualizaron peces muertos, según explicaron, en una cantidad aproximada de "tres ejemplares por minuto". Una vez advertida la situación, cerca de las 17 de ese mismo día referentes del área protegida municipal se dirigieron hacia Ruta 8 y río Luján, "constatando que en esa zona no se encontraban animales muertos", describieron.

Fue por esto que los ambientalistas decidieron llegar hasta el sector del río donde se produce al vuelco principal del Parque Industrial de Pilar, con acceso peatonal sobre calle Petrel. Justamente allí verificaron el efluente de "color oscuro y con un fuerte olor a carne putrefacta", describieron. En esa zona la concentración de peces muertos también era notoria.

Desde la Reserva Natural señalaron que al día siguiente ya no se registraron ejemplares muertos en forma constante pero sí "se pudieron observar acumulaciones de peces de buen tamaño en diversos puntos del río".

Sea of white: 'Hundreds of thousands' of fish dead in Australia

January 29, 2019

Just weeks after up to a million fish were killed, another mass death occurred in the Murray-Darling river system

"Hundreds of thousands" of fish have died in drought-stricken Australia in the last few days and more mass deaths are likely to occur, the authorities warned Tuesday. Locals around the Darling River were confronted with a sea of white, as dead fish carpeted the waters near the southeastern Outback town of Menindee.

Just weeks after up to a million were killed—with scientists pointing to low water and oxygen levels as well as possibly toxic algae—another mass death occurred in the key agricultural region.

Inspectors from the New South Wales Department of Primary Industries have visited the site and said they found that "hundreds of thousands of fish have died".

"Further fish deaths in the Darling River are anticipated as a significant

Eight dolphins were found stranded in Lee County during the government shutdown, but the shutdown's effects on the federal program that helps study the cause of the deaths are unclear.

Some of the eight animals were too decomposed to be identified with certainty, but it's likely all of them were bottlenose dolphins, said Kim Amendola, a communications supervisor for the fisheries division of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration.

No stranded dolphins were found in Collier County, Amendola said. She could not be reached for further comment about where in Lee County the dolphins were found.

FULL STORY

A common intestinal virus, enterovirus, in early childhood may be a trigger for later coeliac disease in children at increased genetic risk of the condition, finds a small study published in The BMJ today.

But adenovirus, another common virus, was not associated with a risk of later coeliac disease.

This preliminary finding adds new information on the role of viral infections as a potential underlying cause of coeliac disease, say the researchers.

Coeliac disease is a common digestive condition caused by an adverse reaction to gluten, a dietary protein found in wheat, barley and rye. It is believed to develop from a combination of genetics and environmental triggers.

Fighting rare but scary pacemaker infections

By Maureen McFadden | Posted: Fri 4:56 PM, Feb 15, 2019 | Updated: Fri 7:51 PM, Feb 15, 2019

When someone's heart skips a beat or beats too fast, doctors implant pacemakers to create a normal heart rhythm. But with those lifesaving implants comes the risk of infection.

Muriel Smith is a 90-year-old patient whose pacemaker's infected lead wires were bound to her blood vessels, creating a critical need for high-tech surgery.

"My heart was skipping beats. Even in my sleep, it was skipping four and five beats," she said.

World teeters towards war as Russia tests UNDETECTABLE nuke which can stay aloft for days

RUSSIA today claimed huge success in new tests of its new nuclear-powered cruise missile Burevestnik – supposedly capable of flying for days on end as it probes weaknesses in Western defence systems. The boast follows reported teething problems on the military innovation designed to strike at "unlimited" range and with unprecedented ability to manoeuvre.

WASHINGTON, DC — China's "massive effort to grow and modernize" the People's Liberation Army (PLA) is "eroding" the United States' "relative competitive military advantage" in the Indo-Pacific region, the top American commander in the area warned on Tuesday, stressing that Beijing's communist leaders are sensing "weaknesses."

China says US aims to 'stir up trouble' with naval sail-by

by Staff Writers
Beijing (AFP) Feb 11, 2019

China accused the United States of trying to "stir up trouble" on Monday by sending two US guided-missile destroyers near disputed South China Sea islands.

The two warships sailed near the Beijing-claimed Spratly Islands earlier Monday as part of what Washington calls "freedom of navigation operations", Chinese foreign ministry spokeswoman Hua Chunying told a daily press briefing.

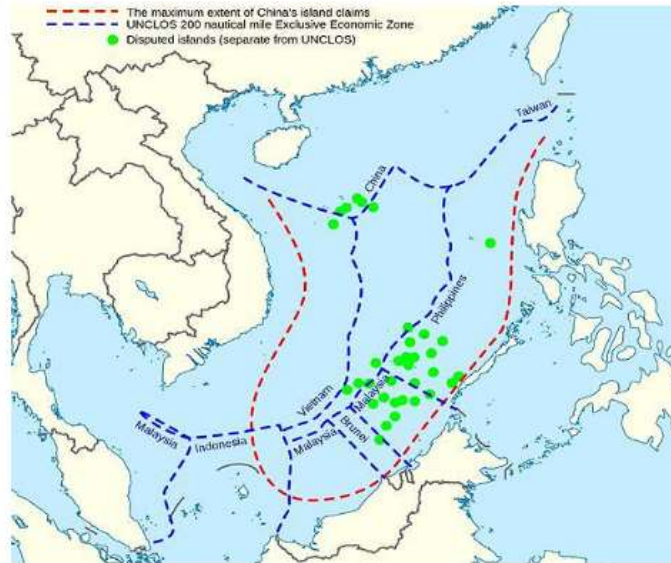

The US is "determined to stir up trouble in the South China Sea, create tension and undermine peace", Hua said.

She urged the US to cease the "provocative actions".

The sail-bys -- conducted by USS Spruance and USS Preble -- occurred as both sides started crucial trade talks in Beijing this week, seeking to avoid an all-out trade war between the world's two biggest economies.

Beijing asserts nearly all of the South China Sea as its territorial waters, while Taiwan, the Philippines, Brunei, Malaysia and Vietnam all claim parts.

The US and its allies periodically send planes and warships near South China Sea islands and reefs claimed by Beijing to signal their right under international law to pass through the waters, invariably angering China.

A senior Iranian official said over the weekend that the Islamic Republic has the chemical and technical know-how to produce a nuclear weapon, according to Farsi language remarks independently translated for the Washington Free Beacon.

Ahmad Khatami, a senior member of Iran's Assembly of Experts, which enjoys close ties with Supreme Leader Ali Khamenei, claimed in recent comments that having a nuclear missile "is vital for Iran to confront the U.S. and its allies," according to Farsi language comments made over the weekend.

"Having missile[s] and nuclear authority is vital for Iran to confront the U.S. and its allies." Khatami was quoted as saying in remarks in which he also referred to the United States as a thug.

The comments come on the heels of threats issued by Khamenei to senior Trump administration figures, including Donald Trump himself, National Security Adviser John Bolton, and Secretary of State Mike Pompeo.

Regional experts who spoke to the Free Beacon about the threats said U.S. intelligence agencies must take them seriously, and should launch an investigation into scores of potential agents tied to the Iranian regime, including those known to operate on U.S. soil.

Pence demands EU isolate Iran as Israelis, Arabs unite

By Shaun TANDON
Warsaw (AFP) Feb 14, 2019

US Vice President Mike Pence demanded Thursday that Europeans drop a nuclear deal with Iran and join in seeking to cripple the regime, a cause that united Israel with longtime Arab rivals at a conference in Warsaw.

Major European powers sent low-level representation to the US-initiated meeting, suspicious of US President Donald Trump's hawkish impulses and convinced the 2015 deal under which Iran drastically scaled back its nuclear programme is working.

But Pence took direct aim at allies Britain, France and Germany, denouncing their new initiative to let European companies operate in Iran in defiance of unilateral US sanctions.

"It's an ill-advised step that will only strengthen Iran, weaken the EU and creates still more distance between Europe and the United States," he said.

"The time has come for our European partners to withdraw from the Iran nuclear deal and join with us," he said.

The Warsaw conference is timed just as Iran's clerical regime celebrates 40 years since the Islamic revolution ousted the pro-US shah.

Iranian President Hassan Rouhani, visiting the Russian resort of Sochi for a simultaneous summit called by Russian leader Vladimir Putin that also included Turkey, retorted: "We see what's happening in Warsaw, it's an empty result, nothing."

Pence stopped just short of calling for regime change in Iran, which has been comparatively stable in recent years amid unrest throughout the Middle East.

Pence threatened further US sanctions as "the people of Iran take to the streets" and its "economy continues to plummet".

WARSAW, Poland—Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu said on Wednesday, in what could be a possible gaffe, that his meetings with Arab leaders in Poland are "in order to advance the common interest of combating Iran."

The comments were made to reporters on the sidelines of the Warsaw Middle East ministerial following Netanyahu's meeting with the Sultanate of Oman's Minister Responsible for Foreign Affairs, Yusuf bin Alawi.

"Here I am going to a meeting with 60 foreign ministers and envoys of countries from around the world against Iran," Netanyahu said. "What is important about this meeting—and this meeting is not in secret, because there are many of those—is that this is an open meeting with representatives of leading Arab countries, that are sitting down together with Israel in order to advance the common interest of combating Iran."

"What we are doing is pushing and driving Iran from Syria," Netanyahu added. "We are committed to doing this."

From Echo to Ring doorbell and Fire TV, are you comfortable Amazon with controlling your smart home?

Jefferson Graham, USA TODAY Published 8:00 a.m. ET Feb. 16, 2019 | Updated 12:26 p.m. ET Feb. 16, 2019

Amazon unveiled a bevy of new products connected to its flagship voice assistant Alexa, including a microwave, a clock and a smart plug-in (Sept. 20) AP

Amazon acquired another startup this week, the maker of the beloved tech product Eero, a mesh router that improves dead Wi-Fi spots in the home. To that, you might have said, OK, so?

Sure, it's just another purchase by the world's largest online retailer. But, more importantly, it's an indication of how Amazon wants to go further than just making our homes "smart." It wants to turn our dwellings into the "Amazon Home."

Engineers translate brain signals directly into speech

Advance marks critical step toward brain-computer interfaces that hold immense promise for those with limited or no ability to speak

Date: January 29, 2019

Source: The Zuckerman Institute at Columbia University

Summary: In a scientific first, neuroengineers have created a system that translates thought into intelligible, recognizable speech. This breakthrough, which harnesses the power of speech synthesizers and artificial intelligence, could lead to new ways for computers to communicate directly with the brain.

The Bladensburg World War I Veterans Memorial in Maryland just outside Washington D.C. went up to honor the 49 men from the area lost in that war, their bodies buried near faraway battlefields. It's in the shape of a big cross because crosses mark most graves of the war's fallen across Europe. It's not about religion, but recalling actual graves.

Still, some say Bladensburg's Peace Cross as it's now called has to come

When the administration of Azusa Pacific University dropped the section of its student code of conduct that banned same-sex relationships last August, reaction was swift.

American Christian media and church leaders were quick to accuse the evangelical school of caving to societal pressure and compromising its Christian identity.

The response prompted the university's board to reverse the change, affirming the definition of marriage as being between "one man and one woman."

About the same time, Trinity Western University—Canada's premier evangelical university—also made a change related to same-sex relationships, but in a different Tennessee has become the first state in the South with a hate crime statute protecting transgender individuals.

State Attorney General Herbert Slatery issued an opinion Feb. 8 in response to a question posed by Rep. Mike Stewart, D-Nashville.

"A defendant who targets a person for a crime because that person is transgender has targeted the person because of his or her gender within the meaning" of the current state law that outlines sentence enhancements for hate crimes, Slatery wrote.

5TH CIRCUIT WARNS SINGLE-SEX RESTROOMS COULD BE ILLEGAL

The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals judge is warning that the current transgender-activist movement will lead to the banning of all single-sex restrooms and changing facilities in the country.

"This case does not simply concern sexual orientation and transgender discrimination," wrote Circuit Judge James Ho.

"It affects every American who uses the restroom at any restaurant, buys clothes at any department store, or exercises at any gym. What's more, because federal statutes governing educational institutions employ language indistinguishable from Title VII, this debate also affects virtually every school, college, dormitory, athletic activity, and locker room in America."

The case that drew the comments was Nicole C. Wittmer vs. Phillips 66.

Wittmer, a "transgender woman," had applied for a job with Phillips 66 and was offered a position conditional upon passing background checks.

فلهذا اطلب أن نصلي ونستعد ونعد زيت لمصاييحنا لاستقبال العريس بالصلاة والصوم وخدمة
أبناء الله وتنقية القلب والاستعداد بلبس العرس.

كان حين امنا

13: 12 قد تنهى الليل وتقارب النهار فلنخلع اعمال الظلمة ونلبس اسلحة النور

13: 13 لنسلك بلباقة كما في النهار لا بالبطر والسكر لا بالمضاجع والعهر لا بالخصام والحسد

13: 14 بل البسوا الرب يسوع المسيح ولا تصنعوا تدبيرا للجسد لأجل الشهوات

احترس ان لم تتمسك بالمسيح من الان قد لا تستطيع في المستقبل القريب بسبب الظلام.

وكما قلت هو اخبرنا لكي لا نخاف

افرحوا لان عريسنا قد اقترب مجيؤه. وانتبهوا الشيطان يريد أن نفقد سلامنا ولا ننال أكاليل.

وأيضا استعدوا فقد تسلموا وديعتكم في أي وقت فهناك 150 ألف شخص يموتوا في اليوم الواحد
