اكرر هدفي فقط من هذه الخدمة أن نذكر بعضنا باننا نحتاج ان نستعد أي حياة اليقظة الروحية. والاستعداد ليس فقط قبل مجيء المسيح بل ايضا قبل الظلمة التي ستسبق مجيؤه ليكون عندنا زيت في مصابيحنا يكفي ان نعبر هذه الظلمة وتكون مصابيحنا مضيئة وقت مجيؤه او من منا سيسلم وديعته في أي وقت . بمعنى نحتاج من الان ان نستعد بقوة بأيمان عامل وبتنقية القلب وان نثمر بالخدمة أي نجمع زيت في مصابيحنا لان الظلمة والضيقة اقتربت جدا ومن لن يستعد لها بزيت كافي من الان لن يجد زيت في الضيقة لان وقتها تجميع زيت سيكون صعب جدا بل أستطيع ان أقول من مثل العذاري انه لن يكون هناك زيت الا ما جمعه سابقا .

أفضل ان اقول لنفسي ولكم استعدوا الان لأنه اقترب فنكون مستعدين سواء جاء او نحن ان سلمنا وديعتنا عن أنى لا اقول انه اقترب لكيلا يقال عني كاذب وانشر اشاعات او اخيف البعض

ولكنه يأتي بسرعة بغته. لا اعتقد اي أحد ندم لأنه كان مستعد ومنتظر مجيء المسيح ولم يأتي

المسيح في زمنه ولكنه انتقل وهو مستعد ولكن كثيرين جدا ندموا على عدم الاستعداد عندما

انتقلوا

المسيح قال بعض العلامات مثل

انجيل لوقا 21

21: 10 ثم قال لهم تقوم امة على امة ومملكة على مملكة

21: 11 وتكون زلازل عظيمة في اماكن ومجاعات واوبئة وتكون مخاوف وعلامات عظيمة من

السماء

21: 25 وتكون علامات في الشمس والقمر والنجوم وعلى الارض كرب امم بحيرة البحر والامواج

تضج

21: 26 والناس يغطى عليهم من خوف وانتظار ما يأتي على المسكونة لان قوات السماوات

تتزعزع

21: 27 وحينئذ يبصرون ابن الانسان اتيا في سحابة بقوة و مجد كثير

سفر اعمال الرسل 2

2: 19 واعطي عجائب في السماء من فوق وآيات على الارض من أسفل دما ونارا وبخار دخان

2: 20 تتحول الشمس الى ظلمة والقمر الى دم قبل ان يجيء يوم الرب العظيم الشهير

2: 21 ويكون كل من يدعو باسم الرب يخلص

لماذا قال المسيح بعض العلامات؟

أولا لكيلا نرتاع

انجيل متى 24

مت 24: 6 وسوف تسمعون بحروب واخبار حروب لا ترتاعوا لأنه لا بد ان تكون هذه

كلها ولكن ليس المنتهى بعد

ثانيا لنؤمن

إنجيل يوحنا 14: 29

وَقُلْتُ لَكُمْ الْآنَ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَكُونَ، حَتَّى مَتَى كَانَ تُؤْمِنُونَ.

ثالثا لننتبه ونستعد

انجيل لوقا 21

28 وَمَتَى ابْتَدَأَتْ هَذِهِ تَكُونُ، فَانْتَصِبُوا وَارْفَعُوا رُؤُوسَكُمْ لِأَنَّ نَجَاتَكُمْ تَقْتَرِبُ.»

Shrinking Moon May Be Generating Moonquakes

The Moon is shrinking as its interior cools, getting more than about 150 feet (50 meters) skinnier over the last several hundred million years. Just as a grape wrinkles as it shrinks down to a raisin, the Moon gets wrinkles as it shrinks. Unlike the flexible skin on a grape, the Moon's surface crust is brittle, so it breaks as the Moon shrinks, forming "thrust faults" where one section of crust is pushed up over a neighboring part.

"Our analysis gives the first evidence that these faults are still active and likely producing moonquakes today as the Moon continues to gradually cool and shrink," said Thomas Watters, senior scientist in the Center for Earth and Planetary Studies at the Smithsonian's National Air and Space Museum in Washington. "Some of these quakes can be fairly strong, around five on the Richter scale."

How wildfire smoke can affect your health

Several wildfires are raging across Alberta, a western province in Canada, spewing large amounts of smoke into the atmosphere and shrouding Canadian cities, such as Calgary and Edmonton, and even sending smoke billowing into the northern United States airspace.

While there are several fires burning throughout the province, three major fires burning in the northern half of the province are the main focus.

The Chuckegg Creek wildfire is out of control and located about 3 miles (5

White Island/Whakaari was shaken by a swarm of increasingly strong earthquakes at the weekend.

A swarm of small earthquakes continues around Whakaari/White Island, but so far there's no indication the quakes are connected to the volcano.

Since Thursday, GeoNet has recorded more than 300 earthquakes, centred 20km deep or less, under the sea surrounding the Bay of Plenty island. Most have been to the west and south, and the largest had a magnitude of 3.9.

Central Australia has been rocked by a 5.4 magnitude earthquake that could be felt from 350 kilometres away.

A 4.3 magnitude aftershock struck just five hours later at 5pm in the Northern Territory's Tanami Desert on Thursday.

The initial earthquake lasted for over a minute at 11:56am on the same day.

Willowra, a remote NT town, was the closest settlement to the earthquake - 100 kilometres away.

Mount Agung volcano erupts for the second time in a week

Jun 2, 2019 | 0 📰 | ★★★★★

(Express) – Bali's Mount Agung volcano has erupted for the second time in a week, sending a huge ash plume into the air. But are flights canceled? And is it safe to travel to Bali? The second eruption of Bali's volcano occurred on Friday, May 31, one week after an eruption brought the island to a halt due to similar activity. Mount Agung sprang back to activity with a major eruption in 2017, after decades of silence.

The last major disaster at the hands of the volcano came in 1963 when more than 1,000 people were killed. Indonesia's geological agency said Friday's eruption hasn't caused any disruption to flights, unlike the week before.

Horse Racing: Training resumes after equine flu shutdown

Plummeting temperatures have resulted in 1,843 flu cases across the Australian state in the week ending May 26 alone, as well as 43 deaths from the illness. The death toll this year so far has overtaken the total number of deaths from flu in 2018, the Sydney Morning Herald reports.

A newly discovered virus has been found infecting people in China, and it may be transmitted by ticks, according to a new report.

Researchers have dubbed the virus "Alongshan virus" after the town in northeastern China where it was first discovered, according to the report, published yesterday (May 29) in the New England Journal of Medicine. In humans, the virus is linked to a number of symptoms, including fever, headache and fatigue, and in some cases, nausea, rash and even coma.

The Deadly African Virus That's Killing Asia's Pigs

By Bloomberg News | Bloomberg
May 31

A deadly swine disease is spreading across eastern Asia, infecting thousands of pigs and threatening the world's largest hog industry. Since emerging in China in August, African swine fever has been detected in Mongolia, Vietnam and Cambodia. The first outbreak in North Korea was reported in late May on a cooperative farm north of Pyongyang, about 20 kilometers (12 miles) from the Chinese border.

1. What is African swine fever?

A highly contagious viral disease which, in its most virulent form, can be 100% lethal to domestic pigs and wild boars. There is no vaccine. It is characterized by high fever, loss of appetite, hemorrhages in the skin and internal organs, with death coming in 2-10 days on

Staph Infection in Eczema Emerges as Food Allergy Risk Factor

British researchers have made significant findings to suggest Staphylococcus aureus bacteria on the skin of young children with severe eczema boosts the chances of developing food allergies.

"Our study reveals that aside from eczema severity, this bacterium that patients with eczema commonly become colonized with could be an added risk factor for food sensitization and allergy," Dr. Olympia Tsilochristou, lead author and clinical researcher at King's College in London, told Allergic Living.

The researchers found that the children with severe eczema with S. aureus colonization (commonly called staph infection) produce more IgE antibodies – a marker of allergy – to peanut, egg and milk. This indicates sensitization to these foods.

The research team based their findings on data collected during the LEAP study, which followed children at high-risk for peanut allergy (due to having egg allergy or severe eczema or both) from infancy to 5 years of age; then for an additional year in a follow-up study. Groundbreaking results from that 2015 study showed that early introduction of peanut to babies reduced the risk of developing a peanut allergy by 70 to 80 percent.

Russia 'probably' conducting banned nuclear tests, US official says

The US expects Russia's weapons arsenal to increase "significantly" over the next decade

Russia may be violating a ban on the testing of low-yield nuclear weapons capabilities at a site in the Arctic, a top US intelligence official said.

Lt Gen Robert Ashley, the director of the US Defense Intelligence Agency, said Moscow was "probably not adhering to" the rules of a recognised treaty.

He was referring to the Comprehensive Test Ban Treaty (CTBT), a multilateral agreement prohibiting nuclear testing.

Chinese defense minister vows to 'fight to the end, at all costs' over trade & Taiwan

Beijing will fight to the end to protect its national interests both economically, amid the trade war with the US, and militarily, if any outside force dares to challenge the One China policy and split Taiwan from the mainland.

The People's Liberation Army will have no choice but to protect Taiwan at all costs should the US or any other outside force dare to split the island from the mainland, Defense Minister Wei Fenghe told delegates of the Shangri-La Dialogue security summit, a day after his American counterpart tried to muster an international coalition against China's growing might in the Indo-Pacific.

China will not renounce use of force in Taiwan reunification: defence minister

by Staff Writers
Singapore (AFP) June 2, 2019

China will not renounce the use of force in the reunification of Taiwan, the country's defence minister said Sunday, calling it "very dangerous" to underestimate Beijing's will.

"We will strive for the process of peaceful reunification with utmost sincerity and greatest efforts but we make no promise to renounce the use of force," General Wei Fenghe told an international security conference in Singapore.

"Any underestimation of the PLA's (People's Liberation Army) resolve and will is extremely dangerous," he said, calling it the army's "sacred duty" to defend Chinese territory.

The two sides have been ruled separately since the end of a civil war on the mainland in 1949 but China still sees Taiwan as part of its territory to be reunified.

Wei added: "If anyone dares to split Taiwan from China, the Chinese military has no choice but to fight at all costs. At all cost, for national unity."

US warns China on behaviour towards its Asian neighbours

By Martin ABBUGAO
Singapore (AFP) June 1, 2019

The United States warned China on Saturday against threatening its neighbours' sovereignty and said Washington is investing in new military technology to defend its Asian allies.

Washington and Beijing have been vying for influence in the region, which hosts potential flashpoints such as the South China Sea, the Korean Peninsula and the Taiwan Strait.

Ties between the two powers are once again taking centre stage at the weekend Singapore conference known as the Shangri-La Dialogue, which gathers defence ministers and top military officials from around the world.

While the forum is purely on security, the discussions are being held against a backdrop of Sino-US trade tensions and high-tech rivalry.

"China can and should have a cooperative relationship with the rest of the region ... But behaviour that erodes other nations' sovereignty and sows distrust of China's intentions must end," acting US Secretary of Defense Patrick Shanahan told the forum.

"Until it does, we stand against a myopic, narrow, and parochial vision of the future, and we stand for the free and open order that has benefitted us all, including China."

- No 'fait accompli' -

Washington has been pushing back against Beijing's aggressive militarisation of the South China Sea, where China has staked "indisputable" ownership over almost the whole area and rejects partial claims by Taiwan, Brunei, Malaysia, the Philippines and Vietnam.

Beijing is also regularly angered by US and other warships transiting through the Taiwan Strait, which it considers part of its territorial waters.

NUKE WARS

China will double its nuclear warheads in next 10 years, DIA chief says

by Ed Adamczyk
Washington (UPI) May 31, 2019

China will double its stockpile of nuclear weapons in the next decade, the chief of the U.S. Defense Intelligence Agency said.

Speaking to the Hudson Institute in Washington, D.C., Lt. Gen. Robert Ashley added that assessments indicate Russia violated a 1996 treaty banning nuclear detonation tests that could cause a self-sustaining chain reaction.

"Over the next decade, China is likely to at least double the size of its nuclear stockpile in the course of implementing the most rapid expansion and diversification of its nuclear arsenal in China's history," Ashley said on Wednesday. "Last year, China launched more ballistic missiles for testing and training than the rest of the world combined."

"We expect this modernization to continue and this trajectory is consistent with Chinese President Xi's vision for China's military, which he laid out at the 19th Party Congress and stated that China's military will be 'fully transformed into a first tier force' by 2050," Ashley said.

He added that the estimate of China's available nuclear weapons is in the "low, couple of hundred" of warheads.

Of particular concern is the number of tactical nuclear weapons in the Chinese arsenal, weapons designed for battlefield use instead of demolition of cities or strengthened military targets. The New START, or New Strategic Arms Reduction Treaty caps tactical weapons at 1,550 deployed warheads, but there is no cap on tactical nuclear weapons. That treaty will expire in 2021.

Israel Strikes Syrian Target Amid Rising Tensions With Iran

05-28-2019 - Associated Press

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) – Syria said an Israeli attack against a military post in the country's south on Monday killed a soldier and injured another. Israel, in a rare statement acknowledging firing into Syria, said it was responding to an anti-aircraft fire from Syria against one of its combat planes.

The back-to-back statements come amid heightened regional tension over Iran's role in Syria and other parts of the Middle East. They also follow a number of reported Israeli strikes on Syria in the past ten days, according to state run media.

Japan PM to meet Iran's Khamenei to mediate with US: report

by Staff Writers
Tokyo (AFP) June 2, 2019

Japanese Prime Minister Shinzo Abe will meet Iran's supreme leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei later this month with Tokyo hoping to mediate between Washington and Tehran, a report said Sunday.

As tensions intensify between Iran and Japan's key ally the United States, Abe has reportedly proposed serving as a go-between and is said to be weighing up a state visit to Iran.

According to the Mainichi Shimbun report, Abe's planned meeting with influential Khamenei will be the first such talks between a Japanese premier and Tehran's supreme leader.

US President Donald Trump said last week he remained open to talks with Tehran during his state visit to Tokyo, appearing to have given the green light to Abe's plan.

Abe will also meet Iran's president Hassan Rouhani before meeting Khamenei during his tour to Iran from June 12 to 14, the newspaper said, citing unnamed government sources.

Before Trump flew to Japan, the United States had announced it was sending 1,500 extra troops to the region, adding to the aircraft carrier group and nuclear-capable bomber planes already dispatched.

Trump himself threatened "the official end" of the country if Tehran ever attacked US interests.

Forming romantic and sexual relationships with robots 'will be widespread by 2050'

May 28, 2019 | 0 | *****

OPINION (Metro) – Can you fall in love with a robot? It's a question that has been widely explored by sci-fi novelists and filmmakers for decades. Her and Ex Machina – both Oscar-nominated – revolve around protagonists developing deep, romantic feelings for some form of artificial intelligence. Our fascination with this concept isn't difficult to unpick: a romantic relationship with a machine takes away all of the messiness and unpleasantness of human emotion and leaves you with something that is much simpler and easier to comprehend, if relatively sterile. It feels like a fantasy because, for the moment at least, it remains one. But just how likely is it that we will willingly abandon our innate need for human touch and interaction and what will the implications be for humanity if we do? Relationship coach and neuroscientist Bobbi Banks thinks robotic partners could definitely be on the cards in the not too distant future. 'Forming romantic and sexual relationships with robots will be widespread by 2050,' Bobbi tells Metro.co.uk. 'The way we experience love and connection today is changing.

Further escalation of the trade dispute between the world's two largest economies, China and the US, could greatly hurt the global economy, according to former governor of the People's Bank of China (PBOC), Dai Xianglong.

Talking at a press event in Beijing on Friday, he said that, "The consequence of the China-US trade war not only will be reflected in both countries, but will also extend to relevant regions, extend to the whole world."

"If the China-US trade war continues to grow larger, it may cause the global economy to decline, and may cause a global financial crisis," he said as cited by CNBC.

Alabama Lawmakers Now Want To Eliminate Marriage Licenses

Conservative Alabama lawmakers are now taking serious aim at marriage law, wasting no time since passing an extreme measure eliminating nearly all abortions in the state.

On Friday, the Alabama legislature sent a Republican-backed measure to the desk of Gov. Kay Ivey (R) that would aid officials who oppose same-sex marriage.

Under existing state law, couples are required to obtain a marriage license from a probate judge and hold a ceremony to “solemnize”

'Fetal heartbeat' abortion bill sent to Louisiana governor, who will sign it; court must uphold it

BY SAM KARLIN | SKARLIN@THEADVOCATE.COM MAY 29, 2019 - 5:15 PM

Sen. John Milkovich, D-Shreveport, left, and Rep. Valarie Hodges, R-Denham Springs speak outside the State Capitol, after the House passed Milkovich's 'fetal heartbeat' bill that would ban abortions at about six weeks of pregnancy, if upheld by the courts, sending it to the governor's desk without exceptions for victims of rape and incest, on Wednesday, May 29, 2019. Hodges handled the bill on the House side for its passage. Gov. John Bel Edwards, the only Democratic governor in the Deep South, said he will sign the bill into law. Wednesday, May 29, 2019.

Why Illinois' Abortion Bill Is Much Worse Than New York's

5:30PM EDT 6/3/2019 | LIBERTY COUNSEL

The Illinois Senate voted 34-20 last Friday to pass a bill that is even more extreme than New York's infanticide law. The "Reproductive Health Act" repeals the state's ban on partial-birth abortion, allowing abortions through nine months, and requires insurance companies to provide coverage Democrat Governor J.B. Pritzker, who has campaigned to make Illinois the most progressive state in the country for abortion, hugged and congratulated supporters of the bill on the Senate floor after the vote. Pritzker has vowed to sign it into law.

Satanic Temple Rejects Supreme Court Ruling on Aborted Baby Bodies, Claims Religious Freedom

05-29-2019 - Steve Warren

The Satanic Temple (TST) has issued a defiant response to Tuesday's US Supreme Court ruling that upheld the Indiana law (HEA 1337) requiring burial or cremation of fetal remains. The Satanists say their members are immune from the law due to freedom of religion and will argue a federal law passed in 1993 will uphold their claim.

The Arkansas Times Magazine reports the TST, which is headquartered in Salem, Mass., believes non-viable fetal tissue is part of the woman who carries it, even though science proves that every so-called fetus

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Democratic presidential candidate Joe Biden declared Saturday that the Equality Act would be his top legislative priority, an effort to enshrine LGBTQ protections into the nation's labor and civil rights laws.

The former vice president shared his hopes of signing the legislation as part of a keynote address to hundreds of activists at the Human Rights Campaign's annual Ohio gala on the first day of Pride Month. In a half-hour at the lectern, his remarks ranged from emotional tributes to his audience and their personal endurance to condemnations of President Donald Trump.

United Methodist 'Church' to Host Screening of Homosexual 'Arthur' Episode, 'Wedding Party' for Mr. Ratburn

By Heather Clark on June 3, 2019 · 4 Comments

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — A United Methodist “church” in Alabama has decided to host a “wedding party” featuring a free screening of the “Arthur” episode surrounding the same-sex “wedding” of Mr. Ratburn after Alabama Public Television said that it would not air the broadcast.

The screening is a joint effort between The Sidewalk Film Festival, the Shout LGBTQ Film Festival and the First United Methodist Church Of Birmingham. A Facebook page for the June 15 event outlines invites all ages to the “free celebration & screening of the Arthur episode ‘Mr. Ratburn and the Special Someone,’ followed by two additional surprise cartoon episodes.”

“There will be wedding cake, sparkling apple juice and surprises,” it states.

WASHINGTON — President Trump posted two tweets on Friday in recognition of homosexual and transgender "Pride Month," asking Americans to "stand in solidarity" with homosexuals who live in countries where such sexual practices are illegal, as well as for nations to join his administration's campaign to decriminalize homosexuality worldwide.

"As we celebrate LGBT Pride Month and recognize the outstanding contributions LGBT people have made to our great nation, let us also stand in solidarity with the many LGBT people who live in dozens of countries worldwide that punish, imprison, or even execute individuals on the basis of their sexual orientation," he wrote.

US transgender runner Cece Telfer, who previously competed against men, has become embroiled in controversy after winning the women's 400m hurdles title – with many fans accusing the athlete of having an unfair advantage.

Franklin Pierce University senior Telfer took the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) women's 400m hurdles title in dominant fashion at the end of May, setting a new personal best of 57.53 and finishing more than a second ahead of rival runners.
