والعلامات حتى 4 فبراير 2020

اكرر هدفي فقط من هذه الخدمة أن نذكر بعضنا باننا نحتاج ان نستعد أي حياة اليقظة الروحية. والاستعداد ليس فقط قبل مجيء المسيح بل ايضا قبل الظلمة التي ستسبق مجيؤه لأننا نور العالم الذي أصبح مظلّم وليكون عندنا زيت في مصابيحنا يكفي ان نعبر هذه الظلمة وتكون مصابيحنا مضيئة وقت مجيؤه او من منا سيسلم وديعته في أي وقت. بمعنى نحتاج من الان ان نستعد بقوة بأيمان عامل بالمحبة والتبشير وبتنقية القلب وان نثمر بالخدمة أي نجمع زيت في مصابيحنا لان الظلمة والضيقة اقتربت جدا ومن لن يستعد لها بزيت كافي من الان لن يجد زيت في الضيقة لان وقتها تجميع زيت سيكون صعب جدا بل أستطيع ان أقول من مثل العذاري انه لن يكون هناك زيت الا ما جمعته سابقا.

أفضل ان اقول لنفسي ولكم استعدوا الان لأنه اقترب فنكون مستعدين سواء جاء او نحن ان
سلمنا وديعتنا عن أنى لا اقول انه اقترب لكيلا يقال عني كاذب وانشرا اشاعات او اخيف البعض
ولكنه يأتي بسرعة بغته. لا اعتقد اي أحد ندم لأنه كان مستعد ومنتظر مجيء المسيح ولم يأتي
المسيح في زمنه ولكنه انتقل وهو مستعد ولكن كثيرين جدا ندموا على عدم الاستعداد عندما انتقلوا

المسيح قال بعض العلامات مثل

انجيل لوقا 21

21: 10 ثم قال لهم تقوم امة على امة ومملكة على مملكة

21: 11 وتكون زلازل عظيمة في اماكن ومجاعات واوبئة وتكون مخاوف وعلامات عظيمة من

السماء

21: 25 وتكون علامات في الشمس والقمر والنجوم وعلى الارض كرب امم بحيرة البحر والامواج

تضج

21: 26 والناس يغطى عليهم من خوف وانتظار ما يأتي على المسكونة لان قوات السماوات

تتزعزع

21: 27 وحينئذ يبصرون ابن الانسان اتيا في سحابة بقوة و مجد كثير

سفر اعمال الرسل 2

2: 19 واعطي عجائب في السماء من فوق وآيات على الارض من أسفل دما ونارا وبخار دخان

2: 20 تتحول الشمس الى ظلمة والقمر الى دم قبل ان يجيء يوم الرب العظيم الشهير

2: 21 ويكون كل من يدعو باسم الرب يخلص

لماذا قال المسيح بعض العلامات؟

أولا لكيلا نرتاع

انجيل متى 24

مت 24: 6 وسوف تسمعون بحروب واخبار حروب لا ترتاعوا لأنه لا بد ان تكون هذه

كلها ولكن ليس المنتهى بعد

ثانيا لنؤمن

إنجيل يوحنا 14: 29

وَقُلْتُ لَكُمْ الْآنَ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَكُونَ، حَتَّى مَتَى كَانَ تُمْنُونَ.

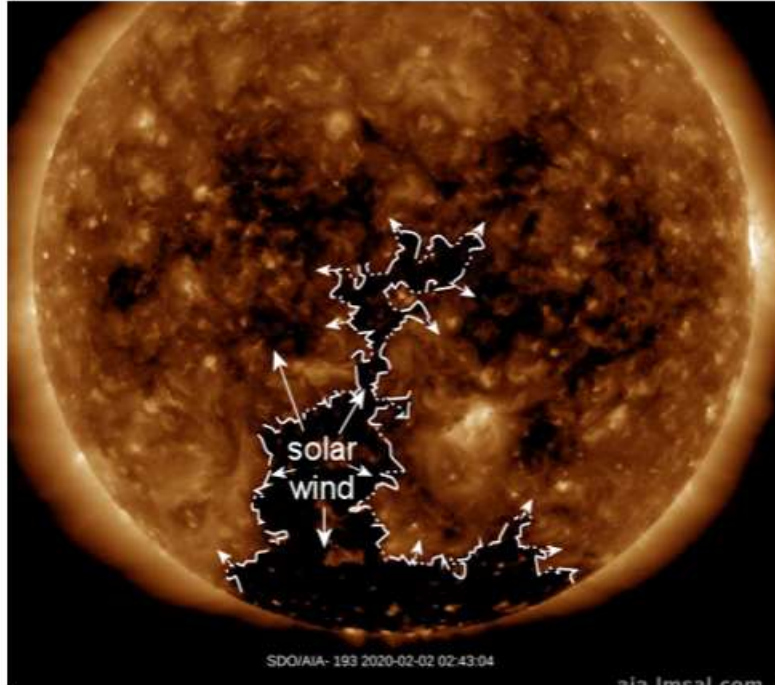

ثالثا لنتنبه ونستعد

28 وَمَتَى ابْتَدَأَتْ هَذِهِ تَكُونُ، فَأَنْتَصِبُوا وَارْفَعُوا رُؤُوسَكُمْ لِأَنَّ نَجَاتَكُمْ تَقْتَرِبُ.».

CORONAL CANYON FACES EARTH: A canyon-shaped hole in the sun's atmosphere is facing Earth and spewing solar wind in our direction. Estimated time of arrival: Feb. 5-6. This extreme ultraviolet image from NASA's Solar Dynamics Observatory shows the structure, which stretches more than 750,000 km from the sun's south pole to the equator.

This is a 'coronal hole'—a region when the sun's magnetic field opens up and allows solar wind to escape. Coronal holes are a primary form of solar activity during Solar Minimum, which is underway now.

The stream of solar wind emerging from this hole will take about 3 days to cross the sun-Earth divide. Geomagnetic storms are not expected. However, Arctic sky watchers should see an uptick in auroras when the gaseous material arrives on Feb. 5th. Aurora alerts: SMS Text.

A SMALL CRACK IN EARTH'S MAGNETIC FIELD: Last night, a small crack opened in Earth's magnetic field. Solar wind poured in to fuel a quiet display of auroras over Canada. Catalin Tapardel sends this picture from Worsley, Alberta:

"I spent few hours staring at the green glowing band," says Tapardel. "Other than a few shy pillars, there were no major developments in the aurora's structure. Just the usual solar minimum business...."

The crack developed on Jan. 28th when the interplanetary magnetic field (IMF) near Earth tilted south. This partially canceled our planet's north-pointing magnetic field, creating a gap through which solar wind could flow. During Solar Minimum (happening now), we rely on such cracks and gaps to "stoke the fires" of aurora borealis without the usual support of sunspots and solar flares.

A NEW TYPE OF AURORA--"THE DUNES": A new type of aurora is rippling across Arctic skies. Citizen scientists who discovered it nicknamed it "The Dunes" because of its resemblance to desert sand dunes. A paper published in the Jan. 28th issue of AGU Advances describes the new form and the unexpected physics that causes it.

Dune-shaped auroras form in a narrow altitude range 80 km to 120 km above Earth's surface. Turns out, this is an extremely hard-to-study layer of Earth's atmosphere. It's too high for weather balloons, and too low for rockets.

"Due to the difficulties in measuring atmospheric phenomena between 80 and 120 km, we sometimes call this region 'the ignorosphere'," says Minna Palmroth, Professor of Computational Space Physics at the University of Helsinki and the lead author of the study.

Bright flash of light over Southern California sparks panic among some

Jan 30, 2020 | 0 🌟 | ★★★★★

(ETH) – Some residents in Southern California thought the “Apocalypse” was upon us, after more than 60 witnesses reported seeing ‘a meteor’ flash through the sky on Wednesday night in a fireball so bright it was reportedly described as ‘the end of the world’. According to a report from the American Meteor Society, the bright flash of light in the sky was more likely caused by the burn-up of space debris than by a meteor. As of now, the object has not yet been officially identified.

The strange event was reported by residents around Los Angeles and San Diego. The event was reportedly witnessed as far north as Santa Barbara and reported along the coast to San Diego but the majority of the reports came from the Los Angeles/San Diego area. Many of the witnesses took to social media to share their experiences. The testimonies of some of the eyewitnesses said:

‘Saw the craziest meteor I’ve ever seen!! It blew into pieces and burned up in the atmosphere!!,’ one woman wrote on Twitter. ‘Oh, My Lanta that was SO COOL!!!! And I caught the end on camera!!’ ‘YALL I was really thinking it was the end of

The sun beat down relentlessly on Bristol Bay this summer, heating up the rivers and lakes where millions of sockeye salmon returned to spawn. July was the region's hottest month on record, and in some rivers, that heat was lethal.

Tim Sands, a biologist for the Alaska Department of Fish and Game, estimates tens of thousands of fish died.

Locust Swarms of Biblical Proportions Forces Somalia To Declare a National Emergency

Feb 2, 2020 | 0 🌐 | ★★★★★

OPINION (ETH) – Recently we reported on how Kenya was experiencing the worst outbreak of locusts in 70 years. The report indicated that millions of locusts swarmed into the East African nation from Somalia and Ethiopia destroying farmland and threatening an already vulnerable region with devastating hunger. Now a new report is indicating that the situation has gone from bad to worst as Somalia has officially declared a national emergency as the locusts swarms spread across east Africa.

According to BBC, The country's Ministry of Agriculture said the insects, which consume large amounts of vegetation, posed "a major threat to Somalia's fragile food security situation". There are fears that the situation may not be brought under control before the harvest begins in April. The report went on to say that the UN warned that the swarms are the largest in Somalia and Ethiopia in over 25 years. But neighboring Kenya has not seen a locust threat on this level in 70 years, according to the UN Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO). A

Leading epidemiologist warns Global pandemic inevitable - infected to reach 6 figures by next week

Jan 28, 2020 | 0 | *****

(Express) – The leading epidemiologist said the numbers of those infected will number in the six figures by next week. As of today the death toll from the new coronavirus now stands at 106, with the number of infections almost doubling in a day to more than 4,500. The rise comes as governments scramble to control the spread of the virus. Harvard based public health scientist Doctor Eric Feigl-Ding warned the transmissibility of the disease is higher than 2003's SARS and the deadly Spanish Flu of 1918.

This coronavirus outbreak continues to grow at an exponential rate. In fact, the number of cases is 14 times larger than it was just one week ago. Needless to say, if the number of cases continues to escalate at this pace, we are going to have a horrifying global pandemic of epic proportions on our hands very rapidly. But hopefully that won't happen. Hopefully the measures that global authorities have taken to slow the spread of the virus will work. But we are definitely in a race against time, and if they don't get this outbreak under control shortly we could soon be facing a worst case scenario.

By Tracy Rucinski and Laurence Frost

CHICAGO/PARIS Jan 30 (Reuters) - Pilots and flight attendants are demanding airlines stop flights to China as health officials declare a global emergency over the rapidly spreading coronavirus, with American Airlines' pilots filing a lawsuit seeking an immediate halt.

China has reported nearly 10,000 cases and 213 deaths, but the virus has spread to 18 countries often by plane passengers.

The Allied Pilots Association (APA), which represents American Airlines pilots, cited "serious, and in many ways still unknown, health threats posed by the coronavirus" in a lawsuit filed in Texas, where the airline is based.

Russia invites NATO members to take part in war games

by Staff Writers
Moscow (AFP) Jan 24, 2020

Russia's defence minister said Friday it is sending out invitations to NATO states to take part in annual Moscow-led military drills called the "International Army Games."

Defence Minister Sergei Shoigu has invited "troops from 90 countries including NATO members," the ministry said on its website.

The games include events such as tank biathlon, where tank crews practise shooting, as well as an obstacle course.

This year's games will focus on "security as a whole, medical care and logistics," and should be visually entertaining, Shoigu said.

Around 6,000 troops were expected to take part in the event that runs from late August to early September, the ministry said.

Last year, several EU countries sent observers and Greece took part.

The games, which have been held since 2015, usually include former Communist regimes such as China, Vietnam and Angola, as well as Moscow allies like Iran.

NATO and Russia often spook each other with war games close to the border between Russia and eastern flank NATO allies.

US Space Force seeks civilians to join staff

by Staff Writers
San Antonio TX (SPX) Jan 29, 2020

The U.S. Space Force, the new branch of the Armed Forces established Dec. 20, has begun advertising to fill civilian staff positions in its initial headquarters, called the Office of the Chief of Space Operations. Advertisements for the first 35 positions were posted last week, with a second wave of positions to follow soon.

"The law passed by Congress and signed by the President directed immediate establishment of the U.S. Space Force and authorized a modest initial staff," said Gen. Jay Raymond, chief of space operations and senior member of the Space Force.

"As a result, we are moving quickly to hire individuals with the expertise, passion and vision to build the sixth branch of the Armed Forces as a lean, agile and focused military service."

Individuals eligible for the advertised positions include current or former federal employees in competitive or excepted services, and individuals with specific category qualifications such as career transition, individuals with disabilities, military spouses and veterans.

"This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for civilians to join a new military service and participate in growing the nation's space capability," said Patricia Mulcahy, the newly assigned deputy chief of space operations for personnel and logistics services.

The Space Force is seeking candidates with expertise in functions such as human resources, financial management, intelligence, communications, logistics and contracting.

"We completed the design for the initial staff several months ago, so we would be postured to hire people quickly. Just 30 days after the President signed the legislation, we are posting ads to target individuals with very specific skills. At the same time, we are assigning military members from the Medical researchers are holding their breath. They discovered what they believe could be an effective treatment for most cancers, maybe all of them.

The treatment proved successful in laboratory tests but hasn't been tried on humans yet, and a lot could go wrong during that testing phase. But right now, scientists are hopeful their new discovery will be a one-size-fits-all treatment for virtually every type of cancer.

Yet another Christian church has been ordered to shut down in Algeria as the government's crackdown on houses of worship continues.

The United Kingdom-based Christian persecution advocacy organization Christian Solidarity Worldwide reports that Hope Evangelical Church in Oran city in western Algeria received a closure order issued by a local court earlier this month.

The church is the latest in a series of churches that have received similar orders under a 2006 law requiring that all non-Muslim places of worship be authorized by a government board called the National Commission for Non-Muslim Worship.

"The closure of House of Hope church and the increased government pressure on Christians and other religious minorities in Algeria is a cause for concern," CSW Chief Executive Mervyn Thomas said in a statement.

EFFINGHAM, Ill. — The Wisconsin-based Freedom From Religion Foundation (FFRF) has requested that a city in Illinois remove a cross from a mural painted on a tunnel on city-owned property. A “Let the Cross Stay” petition has consequently been launched in an effort to urge city council members to uphold the mural — a petition that has over 30K signatures as of press time.

“We are writing to request that the Latin cross be removed from the mural,” the FFRF letter states. “It is inappropriate and unconstitutional for a government owned mural to prominently feature a religious display, such as a Latin cross. It is especially inappropriate where the display is placed in a location where it will predominantly be viewed by public school children and

A recent New York Times story by Reed Abelson about health care sharing organizations used Samaritan Ministries International members Mark and Caroline Collie for the opening of the piece. It had a catchy headline: "It Looks Like Health Insurance, but It's Not. 'Just Trust God,' Buyers Are Told." Unfortunately, the article misrepresented both the Collies' story and Samaritan Ministries, and both the Collies and Samaritan Ministries have requested a correction.
