والعلامات حتى 14 يوليه 2020

Holy_bible_1

اكرر هدفي فقط من هذه الخدمة أن نذكر بعضنا باننا نحتاج ان نستعد أي حياة اليقظة الروحية.
والاستعداد ليس فقط قبل مجيء المسيح بل ايضا قبل الظلمة التي ستسبق مجيؤه لأننا نور العالم
الذي أصبح مظلّم وليكون عندنا زيت في مصابيحنا يكفي ان نعبر هذه الظلمة وتكون مصابيحنا
مضيئة وقت مجيؤه او من منا سيسلم وديعته في أي وقت. بمعنى نحتاج من الان ان نستعد بقوة
بأيمان عامل بالمحبة والتبشير وبتنقية القلب وان نثمر بالخدمة أي نجمع زيت في مصابيحنا لان
الظلمة والضيقة اقتربت جدا ومن لن يستعد لها بزيت كافي من الان لن يجد زيت في الضيقة لان
وقتها تجميع زيت سيكون صعب جدا بل أستطيع ان أقول من مثل العذاري انه لن يكون هناك
زيت الا ما جمعته سابقا.

أفضل ان اقول لنفسي ولكم استعدوا الان لأنه اقرب فنكون مستعدين سواء جاء او نحن ان
سلمنا وديعتنا عن أنى لا اقول انه اقرب لكيلا يقال عني كاذب وانشرا اشاعات او اخيف البعض
ولكنه يأتي بسرعة بغته. لا اعتقد اي أحد ندم لأنه كان مستعد ومنتظر مجيء المسيح ولم يأتي
المسيح في زمنه ولكنه انتقل وهو مستعد ولكن كثيرين جدا ندموا على عدم الاستعداد عندما انتقلوا

المسيح قال بعض العلامات مثل

انجيل لوقا 21

21: 10 ثم قال لهم تقوم امة على امة ومملكة على مملكة

21: 11 وتكون زلازل عظيمة في اماكن ومجاعات واوبئة وتكون مخاوف وعلامات عظيمة من

السماء

21: 25 وتكون علامات في الشمس والقمر والنجوم وعلى الارض كرب امم بحيرة البحر والامواج

تضج

21: 26 والناس يغطى عليهم من خوف وانتظار ما يأتي على المسكونة لان قوات السماوات

تتزعزع

21: 27 وحينئذ يبصرون ابن الانسان اتيا في سحابة بقوة و مجد كثير

سفر اعمال الرسل 2

2: 19 واعطي عجائب في السماء من فوق وآيات على الارض من أسفل دما ونارا وبخار دخان

2: 20 تتحول الشمس الى ظلمة والقمر الى دم قبل ان يجيء يوم الرب العظيم الشهير

2: 21 ويكون كل من يدعو باسم الرب يخلص

لماذا قال المسيح بعض العلامات؟

أولا لكيلا نرتاع

انجيل متى 24

مت 24: 6 وسوف تسمعون بحروب واخبار حروب لا ترتاعوا لأنه لا بد ان تكون هذه

كلها ولكن ليس المنتهى بعد

ثانيا لنؤمن

إنجيل يوحنا 14: 29

وَقُلْتُ لَكُمْ الْآنَ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَكُونَ، حَتَّى مَتَى كَأَن تُوْمِنُونَ.

ثالثا لنتنبه ونستعد

28 وَمَتَى ابْتَدَأَتْ هَذِهِ تَكُونُ، فَأَنْتَضِبُوا وَارْفَعُوا رُؤُوسَكُمْ لِأَنَّ نَجَاتَكُمْ تَقْتَرِبُ».

COMET NEOWISE SPROUTS ANOTHER TAIL: Comet NEOWISE just keeps getting better. Not only is it visible to the naked eye in morning twilight, but also, now, it has two tails. Sebastian Voltmer photographed them over the village church of Spicheren, France:

The brighter of the two is the dust tail, made of dusty-rocky grains sprinkled like crumbs along the comet's curved orbit. Just above it is the faint ion tail, made of gas shoved straight away from the sun by the solar wind.

"The ion tail is relatively dim," says Voltmer. "To record it, I had to stack 63 frames captured with my Nikon D800 digital camera (ISO 320)."

There's something unusual lurking out in the depths of space: Astronomers have discovered four faint objects that at radio wavelengths are highly circular and brighter along their edges. And they're unlike any class of astronomical object ever seen before.

Rare Heatwave Event To Grip The US This Weekend

Jul 10, 2020 | 0 ● | *****

DEVELOPING: (ETH) – A rare heatwave event is shaping up for parts of the southwestern United States, placing many under an excessive heat warning going into this weekend. According to the report, Temperatures are forecast to see a stunning 120 degrees Fahrenheit in some areas, prompting officials to urge people to take precautions as temperatures this high could turn deadly.

The National Weather forecast from TWS is predicting a high of 126 in Death Valley, California. Phoenix, Arizona, is expected to see a high of 117 on Sunday, and Las Vegas, Nevada, is preparing for weekend highs of 113 degrees.

These excessive temperatures have prompted the National Weather Service to issue heat advisories for different parts of the country as there is a probability of considerable health risks to many in these regions. According to a statement from CNN:

Parts of South America were hit by record snow accumulations and below-freezing temperatures this week. This included Mendoza City in Argentina, which recorded about 1.5 m (5 feet) of snow-- the highest volume of snow in the city this early in the season.

The Andes mountain range in Chile and Argentina had large dumps of snow in the past week. Local ski website, Lugares de Nieve, mentioned on July 8 that the Andes are receiving "record accumulations of snow this year," but unfortunately, skiers would not be able to enjoy the snow as all slopes are closed due to the pandemic.

Incessant monsoon rainfall has triggered floods and multiple landslides in several districts of Bagmati Pradesh and Gandaki Pradesh, Nepal, from Wednesday to Friday, July 8 to 10, 2020. The police confirmed at least 12 fatalities-- including three children, and 19 others missing. According to the National Disaster, Risk Reduction, and Management Authority (NDRRMA), based on water-induced disasters, this season has been the deadliest monsoon in 11 years, with more than 60 fatalities since June 12.

The severe weather left several houses and roads damaged, forcing rescue teams to take alternate routes to reach incident sites.

14 houses were swept away in the Barahbise Municipality alone, after floodwaters from Almo Thado Khola and Kabre Khola

What's killing the fish in Lake Champlain?

By Ike Bendavid | Posted: Wed 6:55 PM, Jun 24, 2020 | Updated: Thu 8:31 AM, Jun 25, 2020

HIGHGATE, Vt. (WCAX) Within the last few weeks, thousands of dead fish have washed up on the shores of Lake Champlain. As our Ike Bendavid learned, the recent high temperatures may have contributed to the fish kill but they were not the primary reason. However, that doesn't mean warm weather won't be a factor later in the year for wildlife on the lake.

Joy Bliss of Highgate Springs says she was walking the beach on the Missisquoi Bay when she noticed something.

"Dead fish-- dead fish!" she said.

And it wasn't just a few.

KEY POINTS

- California Gov. Gavin Newsom on Monday ordered all counties in the state to close all bars and the indoor operations of businesses including restaurants, movie theaters and museums, as Covid-19 cases continue to climb.
- The businesses will be allowed to operate outdoors, if possible, except for bars, he said.
- In addition to the statewide order, Newsom said he would also close indoor operations for fitness centers, worship services, personal care services, malls, offices, hair salons and barbershops for 30 counties on California's monitoring list, which represent 80% of the state's population.

CDC: New flu viruses have pandemic 'potential'

By Shawne K. Wickham New Hampshire Sunday News Jul 11, 2020 Updated Jul 12, 2020

CONCORD — State public health officials are closely watching a group of swine influenza viruses in China that the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention warns could pose “pandemic potential.”

In a Friday news release, the CDC announced that the agency is monitoring these Eurasian H1N1 viruses that have “the essential hallmarks of being highly adapted to infect humans.”

The “G4” viruses have been spreading in pigs in China since 2016. And while three cases of human infection have been reported, there are no reports of person-to-person spread, the CDC said.

Still, with the nation and world in the throes of a global coronavirus pandemic, even the potential for another pandemic seems unthinkable.

Discovery of a new strain of H1N1 swine flu in China rises concern that the 2009 pandemic could reemerge. The new virus may become very dangerous if it manages to transmit itself between humans and acquire highly pathogenic genes.

A Canadian law firm has filed a $500 million class-action lawsuit against Monsanto and its owner Bayer. It says they've been acting with reckless disregard for the safety of Canadians by selling weed killer Roundup.

According to the firm Diamond & Diamond, there are currently more than 60 individuals named as plaintiffs, but it says that thousands may have been affected.

The plaintiffs involved in this class-action lawsuit are looking not only for financial compensation, but also for "behavior modification" so that the same thing doesn't happen.

Senior North Korean official dismisses comments by South Korean President that another summit between Kim and Trump is in the works.

North Korea has no intention to sit down with the United States and is urging South Korea to "stop meddling," a senior diplomat said on Tuesday (local time), according to Reuters.

Kwon Jong Gun, director general for US affairs at Pyongyang's foreign ministry, accused South Korea of misinterpreting Vice Foreign Minister Choe Son Hui's earlier statement dismissing an "untimely rumor" about another summit between North Korean leader Kim Jong Un and US President Donald Trump.

Choe said on Saturday that North Korea does not feel the need for a new summit, days after South Korean President Moon Jae-in, who had offered to mediate between Kim and Trump, suggested the two leaders meet again before the US elections in November.

Kim's sister says 'no need' for another US-N. Korea summit

by Staff Writers
Seoul (AFP) July 10, 2020

The powerful sister of North Korean leader Kim Jong Un said Friday there was "no need" for another summit with the United States unless Washington offered a "decisive change" in approach.

Kim and US President Donald Trump first met in Singapore two years ago but talks over Pyongyang's nuclear arsenal have been stalled since their Hanoi summit collapsed in early 2019 over what the North would be willing to give up in exchange for sanctions relief.

Trump said this week he would "certainly" meet with Kim again "if I thought it was going to be helpful", after speculation that he might pursue another summit if it could help his re-election chances in November.

But in a statement carried by the official Korean Central News Agency, Kim Yo Jong -- who has emerged as one of her brother's closest advisers -- said: "There is no need for us to sit across with the US right now."

If a summit was held, she said, "it is too obvious that it will only be used as boring boasting coming from someone's pride".

Denuclearisation, she added, was "not possible at this point", and could only happen alongside parallel "irreversible simultaneous major steps" by the other side -- which she emphasised did not refer to sanctions lifting.

State Department to invite China to join trilateral arms talks with Russia

by Christen Mccurdy
Washington DC (UPI) Jul 09, 2020

The U.S. State Department said on Thursday that it will invite the Chinese government to engage in face-to-face arms control negotiations in Vienna.

In a press release issued Thursday, State Department spokeswoman Morgan Ortagus also recommended China meet with Russia "to consider next steps for trilateral arms control negotiations."

"We will all bring different perspectives and objectives to the negotiating table and will surely have disagreements," Ortagus said. "But it is time for dialogue and diplomacy between the three biggest nuclear weapons powers on how to prevent a new arms race."

On Wednesday a senior Chinese diplomat said China would be happy to join arms control talks with the United States and Russia -- but only if the United States agrees to reduce its arsenal to match China's level.

President Donald Trump has repeatedly asked China to join trilateral arms control talks, but China has refused, arguing that its nuclear arsenal is comparatively small relative to the United States and Russia, which have at least 5,000 nuclear warheads each.

'We're next': Hong Kong security law sends chills through Taiwan

By Amber WANG
Taipei (AFP) July 7, 2020

The imposition of a sweeping national security law on Hong Kong has sent chills through Taiwan, deepening fears that Beijing will focus next on seizing the democratic self-ruled island.

China and Taiwan split in 1949 after nationalist forces lost a civil war to Mao Zedong's communists, fleeing to the island which Beijing has since vowed to seize one day, by force if necessary.

"The law makes me dislike China even more," 18-year-old student Sylvia Chang told AFP, walking through National Taiwan University in Taipei.

"They had promised 50 years unchanged for Hong Kong but they are getting all the more heavy-handed... I am worried Hong Kong today could be Taiwan tomorrow."

Over the years China has used a mixture of threats and inducements, including a promise Taiwan could have the "One Country, Two Systems" model that governs Hong Kong, supposedly guaranteeing key civil liberties and a degree of autonomy for 50 years after the city's 1997 handover.

Both Taiwan's two largest political parties long ago rejected the offer, and the new security law has incinerated what little remaining faith many Taiwanese may have had in Beijing's outreach.

Some now fear even transiting through Hong Kong, worried that their social media profiles could see them open to prosecution under the legislation.

India, China agree to 'complete disengagement' from deadly border flashpoint

by Staff Writers
New Delhi (AFP) July 6, 2020

Chinese troops were seen removing structures from a Himalayan valley where they fought a deadly battle with Indian soldiers last month, Indian army sources said Monday, after high-level talks between the nuclear-armed neighbours.

Brutal hand-to-hand fighting in the Galwan Valley in Ladakh on June 15 left twenty Indian soldiers dead and sent tensions between the countries soaring. China has acknowledged it suffered casualties but has not given figures.

The two sides agreed on Sunday to "completely disengage" from the border flashpoint and ensure "a phased and stepwise de-escalation in the India-China border areas," India's foreign ministry said Monday.

In a CCTV readout of the meeting, China's representative Foreign Minister Wang Yi said Beijing would "effectively defend its territorial sovereignty, while maintaining peace in the border areas".

Earlier, an Indian army source told AFP that China's People's Liberation Army soldiers were seen removing tents and structures in the Galwan Valley, and military vehicles were being moved back.

"Disengagement with the PLA has started as per agreed terms in the Corps Commanders' meeting," the source said, adding the Indian army was verifying how far back Chinese forces had withdrawn.

There was no comment on whether there was a similar withdrawal by Indian troops.

Over the past several weeks, a series of “mystery explosions” has happened at very strategically sensitive locations inside Iran, and it has become obvious that what we are witnessing is not just a bunch of random accidents. For years, the Israeli government has pledged that the Iranians will never be allowed to develop nuclear weapons, and several of the sites where the mystery explosions have taken place have direct connections to Iran’s nuclear program. For example, there was a very large explosion at Iran’s Natanz uranium enrichment facility on July 2nd, and it is being reported that some officials believe that this explosion was caused by a “powerful bomb”. Massive crowds have packed into one of the largest squares in Tel-Aviv on Saturday to protest over how Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu has handled the coronavirus pandemic and its harsh economic fallout.

The rally at Rabin Square, which is a traditional protest spot in the city, was staged by self-employed, small business owners and students, who claim that, unlike salaried workers, they never received financial help that was promised by the government.

A multidisciplinary group of teams from across the US have developed an extremely precise technique to edit inside the mitochondria of the cell for the first time in history.

Previously scientists could only make changes to the cell's nucleus, but not to the mitochondria or the "powerhouse" of the cell, as gene-editing tools were simply too bulky to deploy in the confined space.

Erdogan Looks to Assert Islamic Authority by Turning the Hagia Sophia Into a Mosque

BY RICK MORAN JUL 08, 2020 5:34 PM EST

Presidential Press Service via AP, Pool

The most recognizable building in Istanbul is about to get an Islamic makeover courtesy of the Islamist President Recep Tayyip Erdogan. The Hagia Sophia, once a mighty cathedral in the Eastern Orthodox Church, then a mosque under the Ottomans and finally a museum, may be turned back into a mosque by Erdogan.

Facebook is considering a prohibition on political ads on its platforms, according to multiple media reports. If the social media giant made such a move, it would be a significant about-face to the company's long-held laissez-faire approach to political ads and political speech more broadly, coming just months ahead of the 2020 U.S. elections.

Facebook declined to comment on a potential ban of political advertising.

Dutch ID Cards To Become Gender Free – Could More Of Europe Follow?

Jamie Wareham Contributor

Diversity & Inclusion

I report on LGBT life, identities and being queer.

- f Dutch ID cards will be gender-free within five years, as the Government seeks to end the “unnecessary” registration of gender.
- in And it is a move, the administration in the Netherlands is hoping could gain traction in Europe.

In a letter to parliament, Education minister, Ingrid van Engelshoven explains the move aims to remove obstacles that prevent transgender and intersex people from “fully participating in the society.”

Dutch ID will become genderless in five years, at a time when other changes will also come into force.

Meanwhile, some parts of the Netherlands already have made similar moves at a local level.

In both Amsterdam and Utrecht, you’ll find many forms have already removed questions about gender, where it is irrelevant.
