اكرر هدفي فقط من هذه الخدمة أن نذكر بعضنا باننا نحتاج ان نستعد أي حياة اليقظة الروحية. والاستعداد ليس فقط قبل مجيء المسيح بل ايضا قبل الظلمة التي ستسبق مجيؤه لأننا نور العالم الذي أصبح مظلم وليكون عندنا زيت في مصابيحنا يكفي ان نعبر هذه الظلمة وتكون مصابيحنا مضيئة وقت مجيؤه او من منا سيسلم وديعته في أي وقت. بمعنى نحتاج من الان ان نستعد بقوة بأيمان عامل بالمحبة والتبشير وبتنقية القلب وان نثمر بالخدمة أي نجمع زيت في مصابيحنا لان الظلمة والضيقة اقتربت جدا ومن لن يستعد لها بزيت كافي من الان لن يجد زيت في الضيقة لان وقتها تجميع زيت سيكون صعب جدا بل أستطيع ان أقول من مثل العذارى انه لن يكون هناك زيت الا ما جمعته سابقا.

أفضل ان اقول لنفسي ولكم استعدوا الان لأنه اقترب فنكون مستعدين سواء جاء او نحن ان سلمنا وديعتنا عن أنى لا اقول انه اقترب لكيلا يقال عني كاذب وانشر اشاعات او اخيف البعض ولكنه يأتي بسرعة بغته. لا اعتقد اي أحد ندم لأنه كان مستعد ومنتظر مجيء المسيح ولم يأتي المسيح في زمنه ولكنه انتقل وهو مستعد ولكن كثيرين جدا ندموا على عدم الاستعداد عندما انتقلوا

Honey bees (Apis mellifera spp.) respond to increased aluminum exposure in their foraging choice, motility, and circadian rhythmicity

Abstract

Aluminum is increasingly globally bioavailable with acidification from industrial emissions and poor mining practices. This bioavailability increases uptake by flora, contaminating products such as fruit, pollen, and nectar. Concentrations of aluminum in fruit and pollen have been reported between 0.05 and 670mg/L in North America. This is particularly concerning for pollinators that ingest pollen and nectar. Honey bees represent a globally present species experiencing decline in Europe and North America. Region specific decline may be a result of differential toxicity of exposure between subspecies. We find that European honey bees (Apis mellifera mellifera) may have differential toxicity as compared to two allopatric Mediterranean subspecies (Apis mellifera carnica and Apis mellifera caucasica) which showed no within subspecies exposure differences. European honey bees were then used in a laboratory experiment and exposed to aluminum in their daily water supply to mimic nectar contamination at several concentrations. After approximately 3 weeks of aluminum ingestion these bees showed significantly shorter captive longevity than controls at concentrations as low as 10.4mg/L and showed a possible hormetic response in motility. We also compared European honey bees to Africanized/European hybrid bees (Apis mellifera mellifera/scutellata hybrid) in short-term free-flight experiments. Neither the European honey bee nor the hybrid showed immediate foraging deficits in flight time, color choice, or floral manipulation after aluminum exposure. We conclude that European honey bees are at the greatest risk of aluminum related decline from chronic ingestion as compared to other subspecies and offer new methods for future use in honey bee toxicology.

- UK households throw away an estimated 90 billion pieces of plastic packaging annually.
- In 2025, it is estimated that 75 to 199 million tons of plastic waste will be in our oceans, with a further 33 billion pounds of plastic entering the marine environment. every year.
- O There could also be around 10,000 times more plastic sitting on the sea bed.
- It's estimated that roughly 14 million tons of plastic annually enter the ocean.
- For every person on the planet, there are 21,000 pieces of plastic in the ocean.

More than 1.8 million cartons of eye drops have been recalled nationwide due to manufacturing issues that may have made the products unsterile. Recall notices from the distributor, AvKARE, and the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) did not specify what the issue was, or the health hazards of using these eye drops.

But they state that improper manufacturing resulted in a 'lack of assurance of sterility' and 'may lead to products of unacceptable quality.'

Pootage of large crowds at Moscow's airports was shared on Russian social media

At least 60,000 passengers have been stranded at airports across Russia because of a massive Ukrainian drone attack, local officials say.

Russia's Association of tour operators (Ator) says 350 flights have been affected since Tuesday evening in Moscow, St Petersburg, Sochi and several other cities.

The Russian defence ministry says 524 Ukrainian drones were destroyed in the past 24 hours - a record number if confirmed. No casualties were reported.

Ukraine says an overnight Russian drone and missile attack killed two people in Kyiv.

India-Pakistan war: A chilling 2019 study had predicted a nuclear war in 2025 and what could happen

Amid escalating tensions following a deadly terror attack in Jammu and Kashmir, a 2019 study has resurfaced, eerily predicting a nuclear conflict between India and Pakistan in 2025. The research outlines a scenario where a major terror attack leads to military mobilization, escalating skirmishes, and ultimately, the use of nuclear weapons by both sides, resulting in catastrophic global consequences.

Tensions between India and Pakistan have sharply escalated after a horrific terror attack in Jammu and Kashmir's Pahalgam last month, which claimed 26 lives. Amid growing fears of war, several Pakistani military and political figures have openly threatened to use nuclear weapons.

China has spent billions developing military tech. Conflict between India and Pakistan could be its first major test

Story by Nectar Gan, Simone McCarthy and Brad Lendon, CNN • 3h •

() 8 min read

The escalating conflict between India and Pakistan could be offering the world a first real glimpse into how advanced Chinese military technology performs against proven Western hardware - and Chinese defense stocks are already surging.

Shares of China's AVIC Chengdu Aircraft rose 40% this week, as Pakistan claimed it used AVIC-produced J-10C jets to shoot down Indian fighter jets - including the advanced French-made Rafale - during an aerial battle on Wednesday.

India has not responded to Pakistan's claims or acknowledged any aircraft losses. When asked about the involvement of Chinese-made jets, a spokesperson for China's Foreign Ministry said on Thursday he was not familiar with the situation.

الصين التي لم تدخل في حروب صرفت بلايين على تطوير التكنولوجيا العسكرية والصراع بين الهند المؤيد من الغرب وباكستان المؤيدة من الصين هو اختبار لهذه الأسلحة وفي اول جولة ظهر التفوق الصيني في اسقاط الطائرات الهندية.

India-Pakistan conflict 'none of our business' – Vance

The US vice president suggested Washington could try to encourage New Delhi and Islamabad to de-escalate the situation

Washington will not interfere in the conflict between New Delhi and Islamabad, US Vice President J.D. Vance said on Thursday, urging the South Asian nations to reduce tensions.

"We're not going to get involved in the middle of a war that's fundamentally none of our business," Vance told Fox News. "Look, we're concerned any time nuclear powers collide and have a major conflict," he added.

Vance said that the US hoped the situation would not spiral into a broader regional war or a nuclear conflict. "Fundamentally, India has its gripes with Pakistan. Pakistan has responded to India, he added. "What we can do is try to encourage these folks to deescalate a little bit."

IDF airstrikes 'fully disabled' Yemen's main airport – Israel

Israeli airstrikes have "fully disabled" the international airport in Yemen's Houthicontrolled capital Sanaa and hit other targets, the Israeli Defense Forces (IDF) announced on Tuesday.

The IDF has launched a series of strikes on Houthi-controlled targets in Yemen following the rebel group's ballistic missile attack on Ben Gurion International Airport near Tel Aviv on Sunday.

"The fighter jets struck and dismantled Houthi terrorist infrastructure at the main airport in Sanaa, fully disabling the airport," the IDF said. It added that several power stations and a concrete plant were also targeted.

Footage circulating online showed thick black smoke rising over Sanaa.

Tuesday's strikes killed at least three people and wounded more than 30, according to Houthi-run broadcaster Al Masirah. They came less than 24 hours after Israel bombed the port of Hodeidah, killing one person and injuring dozens.

Swiss university secretly ran AI experiment to manipulate minds

A major Swiss university has come under fire for running a secret experiment on users of social media platform Reddit to test how artificial intelligence (AI) could be used to influence their opinions. The platform has said it is considering legal action.

According to media reports, a group of researchers at the University of Zurich in recent months conducted an unauthorized study on r/ChangeMyView, one of Reddit's largest debate communities. The experiment involved AI chatbots posing as regular users and engaging in discussions on controversial issues.

The bots, whose accounts have since been banned, posted more than 1,700 comments across the subreddit. They adopted fake identities such as a male rape victim downplaying the trauma of his assault, a Black man opposing the Black Lives Matter movement, and a domestic trauma counselor claiming the most vulnerable women were those "sheltered by overprotective parents."

A group of Catholic preschoolers kneeling in a mosque during a school trip has sparked a political uproar in Italy, with critics decrying the episode as a case of religious indoctrination and cultural surrender—reigniting fierce debate over the limits of integration in the country's schools.

The children, aged between three and six, from the Santa Maria delle Vittorie school, were taken to the Emanuet Islamic Cultural Center, where they participated in an activity led by Imam Avnija Nurceski. According to Italian media reports, during the visit, after the imam explained how Muslims pray, and the children reenacted the gesture of kneeling towards Mecca, imitating the Islamic prayer posture. Images of the scene, widely shared on social media, have caused deep unease.

The school's director, Stefania Bazzo, defended the visit, stating that it was a "spontaneous" gesture by the children to show that they had understood the explanation. "We wanted to show them the place where some of their Muslim classmates pray so that everyone feels at home," Bazzo explained, emphasizing that almost a quarter of students at the school are of Muslim origin.

Why Jimmy Evans is Wrong, Not Jesus

Rainbow Ratings? Churches To Be Ranked By LGBT Activist Group

Share this article:

In an act that should alarm every freedom-loving Canadian, a government-funded LGBT activist organization has launched a campaign to create a blacklist of conservative churches and other religious communities that hold fast to biblical truths about sexuality.

The group, Rainbow Faith and Freedom, claims their agenda is one of "inclusion" and "welcome." But make no mistake -- this is not about inclusion. This is about control, coercion, and the outright marginalization of Christians who refuse to bow the knee to radical gender ideology.

Seven people have been sentenced in France for the cyberbullying of Thomas Jolly - the artistic director of the LGBTQ-themed opening ceremony of the Paris 2024 Olympics.

Last year's games opened with a controversial spectacle that included what was perceived as a recreation of Leonardo DaVinci's 'Last Supper' featuring drag queens, homosexuals, transsexuals and a pro-obesity activist in the role of Christ.

The show was condemned by Christians across the world, as well as Muslims, many of whom expressed their frustration on social media. Several days after the event, the production company behind the ceremony, Paname 2024, complained that its employees were getting harassed online and had received death threats.
